A robbery took place on Monday night, in the house of the Juez de Paz, in Calle Suipatha, No. 70. The robbers stripped the house of almost everything which they could conve-niently remove. We have not heard if everything which they could conve niently remove. We have not heard if the robbers have been arrested. One of the most efficient police officers in this city, the very man who arrested the forgers in San Fernando and the robbers of Mr. Visser's safe. has left Buenos Ayres for Rio Janeyro in consequence of the miserable salars which the police office allowed him. This officer called on us yesterday, and gave us the most gloomy picture of the increasing in this city, and the police are becoming worse and worse daily.

Entre Ries is becoming so thickly settled with Englishmen, and good mestize sheep are so scarce in that pro-vince that we think it would be a good speculation for some of our enterprising countrymen to buy twenty or thirty thousand sheep in Buenos Ayres and ship them to Gualeguaychu; we have no doubt that the business would nav well, as many Englishmen have in formed us that good sheep cannot be found at any price in Entre Rios. Without wishing in the least to injur the landed proprietors, we think it right to caution our newly arrived friends from purchasing too hastily Entreriano estaucias as it is saiu, we

The Buenos Ayrean press contamus such rude treatment, yet we think it a decided imprisonment on the old plan of killing the prisoners right off— a matter looked on with indifference by our very humane and sensitive col-

Cranwell, Eastman, Roever, Gancalez Vidale, Bell. &c., he levied ontributions off several persons whose names have not transpired. Medicine, art, literature, and commerce were equally objects of his care, and some of the details are amusing. The quantity of books taken by him indicates a studious turn of mind; and we are told that his complacency in exhibiting the surgical instruments, showed how

MAILS FROM PARAGUAY

The Paraguay steamer arrived yes-eday with the 'Semanario' from Asuncion, 16th inst. Great progress is observed in all branches of industry, Twelve young men belonging to the srmy have devoted themselves to electro-plating. The telegraph agent Mr. von Fischer, has chosen six youths for his department : after due instruction they will be able to take charge of the several stations now projected, and work the wires. Surgeon general Stewart has entered an additional number of young men in the Hospitals to serve in the Medical Corps.

There was a General meeting of the Club on the 4th inst. and the following members were elected; fressurer D Antonio Ezquer (Spaniard); Directors D. Adulfo Saguier & D. Feliz Larozza (Paraguayans), D. Estevan Chasaning (Argentine): Substitute, D. Emilio
