INAUGURATION OF THE

The long expected meeting of the Circula Literaria came off on Saturday evening at the rooms formerly occu-pied by the Italian Club. There were bers present, but it was remark able that hardly a single literary celebrity assisted. President Mitro was detained in his house by a deputation from Congress touching army flogging. Don Juan M. Gutierrez, rector of the University, preferred to attend a meeting of land surveyors. The author of 'Amalia' (Marmol) has, we believe, refused to join the Society Sor Dominguez (Historia Argentina was probably prevented by ministerial duties Drs Navarro and Quesada (Revista) also absented themselves. The editors of Buenos Ayres seemed to have conspired against the Society, which was deprived of the brilliancy of Varela, the logic of Gutierrez the fire of Chassaing, the patriotism of Keen and Damico, and the playfulness of Legout. Not even the new light Sor Bilbao, condescended to illumine the assumbly. Politics were represented by Senster Anian and Deputies. C. Obligado, Ruir Moreno, Adolfo Altica. C. This controversy has taken a new phase, and Sor Oliden withdraws two statements of great importance, showing that in the hurry and vexation of the moment, he was not quite so careful as business men should be when their and their neighbors' interests are at stake He arrupes us that Mr. Foline Arana who came forward so officiously to rec-tify the report of Oliden beef having been thrown overboard at Liverpool, was nowise authorized by him. Sor Oliden further denies that Mr. Biraben Onton further denies that all. Invoced falsified his name at Rio Jaueyro or elsewhere. It is surprising that he has allowed so many days to elapse without an explanation of this nature, but he an explanation of this nature, but he declares his ignorance of English or of the controversy published in this paper about his beef. It appears the Mesers. Smith Brothers have at last aroused him, and his answer is so lame that we him, and his answer is so lame that we think that firm has a perfect right to demand of him the publication of the private letter on which he bases his apology. The matter should be made clear, for the interest of all parties, and the sake of truth. His communication
