BRAZILIAN INTERESTS THE BANDA ORIENTAL

At the present moment, when so uch attention is paid to the subject of a razilian intervention in the Banda Oriental it is well to know the real extent of Brazilian interests in the Republic of the Uruguay.

There are very few in Buenes Ayres who are aware of the number of Brazi-ian estauctors in the Banda Oriental, the amount of stock which they possess and square leagues they own. Through the kindness of a distinguished Oriental, we have been favored with a book entitled 'Negotiations between the Oriental Republic and the Empire of Brazil, on Commerce and Navigation. for the years 1856 and 1858.' From this book we gather that in the year 1850 Brazilians possessed in the Banda Oriental, viz:-

San Miguel, 86 estancias of 342 square leagues, and on 33 of these estancias ere were 421,000 head of cattle.
