PEACE CONGRESS.

The following interesting correspondence is published in the London Times, and we readily make room for it, as it changes topics and rescues us from the necessity of writing too profoundly on local politics.

The subjoined offers suggestions for an agreement between the Republics of South America now at war. It would be well if on any reasonable terms peace could once more be restored; but that end can hardly be hoped for if Peru be called on to make too great sacrifices:

"January 16

"The war between Chile, Peru, and Bolivia may now be considered practically terminated.

"The Chilians have destroyed the maritime force of Peru, have beaten the united armies out of the field, and have occupied a considerable portion of the Peruvian seaboard.

"The President of Bolivia has been deposed, the President of Peru is a fugitive, and the Government of the latter country has fallen into the hands of Pierola, who has assumed the title of Dictator.

"At the conclusion of the Russo-Turkish war a Congress of the European Powers determined the conditions of peace and the concessions of territory to which Turkey was compelled to submit.

"As between Chili and Peru it will be difficult (if not impossible) to establish a lasting peace based on a sacrifice of territory, without extraneous interference and without a formal treaty. The state of warfare may be protracted for an indefinite period, to the ruin of both countries, and the exasperation of inimical feelings which will react in a fatal manner on the commerce and general interests of the two Republics and of all connected with them as creditors and traders.

"I submit, therefore, that a Council or Congress should be formed, composed of the Ministers of the European Powers and of the United States resident in Santiago, assisted by two commissioners appointed by the holders of bonds of Peru, to draw up a definitive treaty of peace between the belligerent Republics, assigning to Chili, as indemnity, the Peruvian territory fairly conquered by her in the course of the war, subject to certain conditions with respect to the deposits of guano and nitrate existing on that part of the Peruvian sea-board which has fallen into the hands of Chili. The basis of these conditions should be the payment to Chili of the expenses of administration of the new territory out of the proceeds of the sale of guano and nitrate, and the conveyance to the bondholders of Peru of the remaining proceeds, to be devoted to the payment of interest and amortization of the bonds.

"The whole moral, and, if necessary, active force of the nations represented in the Congress should be brought to bear to uphold the decision of the Council, and enforce the observance of the conditions laid down by that body.

"As regards Bolivia, Tacna should be ceded to her in return for Antofagasta, and Mejillones transferred to Chile, the latter Power remaining in possession of the port of Arica: a railway already exists from Arica to Tacna, and another line should be constructed from Tacna to La Paz, the capital of Bolivia, which would place this country in direct communication with the Pacific and enable her to export for the benefit of the world the many valuable products which exist within her limits, without having recourse to the chimerical project of the Madeira and Mamoré Railway and the navigation of the Amazon.

"A customs administration under European management might be established in Arica, with the concurrence of the Chilian Government, to levy duties on goods proceeding to Bolivia to defray the cost of the Tacna and La Paz Railway and pay the outstanding Bolivian foreign debt.

"My intimate relations with Chili and acquaintance with the relative merits of the several belligerents enabled me to predict many months ago the position which now exists on the West Coast of South America, and I have laid some of the details of my scheme, now made public, before many persons of high position in London and Paris, by all of whom it has been approved, and it is certain that it is the only possible means of securing for the Peruvian bondholders, in an equitable and durable form, any payment, present or prospective, in respect of the obligations which they hold.

"The nitrate question must, of course, be dealt with altogether apart from that of the guano; but with the assistance of the Chilian Government, I apprehend no difficulty in obtaining a satisfactory arrangement of that business.

"To the same Council or Congress might also be referred the dispute between Chili and the Argentine Republic on the subject of the territory of Patagonia and the Straits of Magellan; a body of enlightened and disinterested men studying this question, on the spot as it were, with access to all the documents which exist in the archives of the respective claimants, should be able to arrive at a solution which would satisfy the disputants and put an end to an attitude which threatens the peace and prosperity of both countries and causes serious alarm to a large section of the community which is deeply interested in their welfare and progress."

"Your obedient servant,
"Wm. Warden Morice."

"49, Lower Belgrave-street,
Belgravia, Jan. 21.

"Sir—I see in the Times of today a communication from Mr. W. Warden Morice, in which that gentleman suggests the idea of a 'council or congress' being formed, composed of the Ministers of the European Powers and of the United States, assisted by two commissioners appointed by the holders of Bonds of Peru, to draw up a definitive treaty of peace between the belligerent Republics,' &c.; and further suggests that the same congress might arrive at a solution of the dispute now pending between Chile and the Argentine Republic.

"Without entering into the merits of the terms of peace suggested by Mr. Morice, I venture to trespass on your valuable time, asking the publication of these lines, only to point out the utter disregard of all international principles shown in the above-quoted proposal.

"The South American Republics being independent countries, where the strict fulfilment of the law of nations is firmly adhered to by their Governments, and even exacted by the European Powers, it is not likely that they would allow any foreign interference, unless asked for by themselves (even in which case the sister countries of South America would, in all probability, be applied to in preference, as it is quite natural to suppose) or imposed by main force, which latter line of conduct would be an open violation of all the principles hitherto advocated by England.

"The only fair suggestions respecting these events I have up to the present seen published, from a South American point of view, the the first to be consulted, is that made by 'Pacificator' in the Times of to-day.

"I remain, Sir,
"Your obdt. servant,
"Alberto. A de Guerrico."

The Toronto Relief Fund on Saturday sent $1,250 to the Duchess of Marlborough. In St Mary's Cathedral, Toronto, on Sunday, the collection amounted to $700. A paragraph in the Kolnische Zeitung warns the public of the inflammability of the substance known as celluloid. It seems to be composed of gun cotton, sulphuric ether, and camphor. An explosion has occurred in a manufactory for its production. It is, it appears, exceedingly inflammable, and people who wear bracelets, combs, and other articles made of it are put on their guard not to expose them to a temperature of more than 150 to 160 degrees Centigrade.

Their object was scientific, literary, and artistic.

A new political sensation has been caused in Dublin by the receipt of a letter by the Lord Mayor from his Grace the Lord-Lieutenant declining his Lordship's invitation to his inaugural banquet on the 3rd of February. The Lord Mayor on receiving his Grace's reply, convened an informal meeting of the members of the Corporation, which was held at 5 o'clock and was numerously attended. His Lordship read the letter, which was as follows:—

"The Castle, Jan. 26, 1880,

"My Lord,—I observe that in your official capacity as Lord Mayor you presided at a public meeting held in the City-hall, at which resolutions were passed in relation to the opposition in the West of Ireland to the enforcement of the law and to the measures which Her Majesty's Government have taken for the relief of the distress existing in parts of the country. I regret that the character of these resolutions will prevent me having the honour of dining at the Mansion-house on the 3rd of next month, as it would not be in my power either to ignore them when they have received your sanction or to observe upon them while accepting your Lordship's hospitality,

"I have the honour to be,
"Yours faithfully,
"Marlborough.

"The Rt. Hon. the Lord Mayor."

We are informed that all statements to the contrary notwithstanding, Sr. Pierola, the new Director of Peru, has concluded a contract with the agent of Messrs. Dreyfus and Co., by which he is to get an advance of fully £1,000,000. That firm is, in exchange for this money, to obtain large consignments of guano; and it would also appear that their outstanding claims against the Government, hitherto disputed, are to be recognized.

LATEST FROM ROSARIO

(Our own Correspondent.)

Rosario, Feb 26.

All well-wishers of the country are in a state of immense satisfaction with the happy denouement of your troubles in Buenos Ayres. It is impossible to give too much praise to Mr. Avellaneda and Mr. Tejedor. They have proved themselves true patriots. In after years I think our President will look back with honest pride to this epoch of his Administration. When we consider that both President and Governor were surrounded by violent counsellors, their presence of mind and patriotic integrity are beyond all praise. The news was received in Rosario with a very intimate sense of relief by almost every one, the only exception being amongst the official class, who are mostly partizans of General Roca. They still insist on the subsistence of the candidature of their favorite. But if the Standard was right, and you undoubtedly were when you proclaimed the inevitable necessity of both candidates resigning, how much more inevitable has become the resignation of General Roca when his antagonist has retired, and the Province of Buenos Ayres has pronounced herself so emphatically against him. As a soldier, General Roca will do well to remember that there is a good deal of philosophical wisdom in the old refrain—

"He who fights and runs away,
May live to fight another day."

It is wisdom for him now to run away. The country will want him at some future day, and it would be a pity he should destroy the hopes of that future day.

I hope before long to be able to furnish your readers with some interesting data of Mr. Eddowes's mines in Cordoba. They can hardly be said to be in working order yet. These mines, situated about a hundred miles North-West of Cordoba, have been worked for a great many years, and enriched two or three families, but becoming inundated, the working was given up. Before this, however, the proprietors had set up a pump, which, after working some time, came to grief, the whole apparatus tumbling to the bottom of the shaft. After lying there for fourteen years, the new proprietor, Mr. Eddowes, has recovered it, and it is now actually at work. The ores of these mines are Argentiferous-Galena, and very rich, giving, as I have understood, eighty marks to the 'cajon' of fifty quintals. At this 'ley,' it is more profitable to ship the ore to England than to smelt it here, taking into account the present high price of lead; and I understand Mr. Eddowes is preparing a cargo. I have seen specimens of ore from these mines in which virgin silver was visibly encrusted. I shall try to get some more interesting intelligence about these mines, which are evidently a 'bona-fide' reverse of the famous Amambay mines.

This is a pleasant country to live in. On Sunday, on account of some squabble with the Municipality, all the bakers shut up shop. Not a loaf of bread was delivered in town. Strange as it may appear, this is a fact. All the families of Rosario, a town of thirty thousand inhabitants, were without bread, except the camp biscuits, of which a supply is usually kept at the stores and bakers. The following day, and up to time of writing, large quantities of bread come into town from the colony towns of the railway and from San Lorenzo, but, of course, not sufficient to supply the tenth part of the population. The cause of this singular strike is the following: The Municipality, in excess of other taxes, ordered the bakers to have a mark with which every loaf of their bread was to be stamped. To register this mark they had to pay fifty dollars fuertes every year. They paid the registry fee the first year, but consider it downright robbery on the part of the Municipality to exact a similar fee every year. On this occasion, and probably for the first time, the public side with the bakers. The corporation, however, seem to be jealous of their dignity, for they have had all the bakers imprisoned, and now insist on making them pay, not only fifty dollars for registry fee, but fifty more as a fine.

One would hardly have imagined that the institution of man-traps would have so soon been introduced into the country. Three Italians, I suppose to preserve their melons and water-melons from depradators, set up a killing man-trap, and a young man, by the name of Ricardo, was actually killed. The playful descendants of Rienzi are enjoying themselves in jail.

During the recent week 190 immigrants arrived in this port. About a third of them were sent up the country, mostly to the Colony of Caroya, of which the Cordoba papers speak so badly.

The maize crop is pretty well destroyed by the locusts in this department. In some places, however, it is saved. The colonists of San Lorenzo boast of possessing fine fields of the golden cereal. Your roving correspondent, 'Pike's Peak', has very graphically described the destruction of the maize fields of Carcaraña by the fearful pest.

The speculation in wheat is beginning to be reckless. Extremely fancy prices are being paid for sound lots; and one holder stands out for twenty-one dollars Bol. silver per fanega. This is at the rate of 2 dollars 56 cents gold the bushel, a price I never saw before in Rosario. At this price it would be profitable to import wheat. The foundation for this speculation is by no means sound. Santa Fe has been unfortunate this year it is true; her whole crop will not reach a quarter of last year's: but it is only in Santa Fe that the crop is partially lost. In Buenos Ayres, in Cordoba, in Mendoza and San Juan, and even in Santiago the crops have been in some of he provinces magnificent. With wheat in Rosario at two dollars gold per bushel, the provinces of Santiago and Catamarca will be drained, as the people up there exist on Indian corn when they can sell their wheat at a good price. There certainly cannot be a short supply for domestic consumption, and prices preclude shipments to Europe, so, 'atando cabos,' as the Spaniards say, it is my opinion some one will come to grief.

The price of cattle too is running up in a manner much more agreeable to the Estanciero than the consumer. A joint of our best beef in the markets, which is as a rule very inferior to what is sold in every market in England, actually costs more here than in Europe. The price per arroba, say about eight shillings sterling, does not appear out of the way; but this arroba of twenty-five pounds is made up of the worst meat, only fit for the commonest dishes. A family must select the meat, either joints, loins or ribs, and at present we pay fully as much, if not more, for these than is paid in Paris for the same pieces. Somebody must swindle the community. Cattle sell at a comparatively high price, it is true, but not more than half what they sell for in Chile, where good beef is always to be bought at a lower price than our butchers make us pay.

Colonel Nelson, the Commander of the National troops in Rosario, left for Buenos Ayres on Sunday, accompanying General Campos, who arrived from Cordoba the same morning. It has not transpired what has been the result of the General's mission to General Roca.

The weather is cool and pleasanter after the late heavy rains. The river is still rising and is carrying down numbers of vegetable islands.

W. P.

TIRO NACIONAL.

In furtherance of our remarks as to the very strict rules in England respecting our 'Volunteers', and the great necessity of the Government here adopting a similar course, we cut from the London Times the following, which will interest many here:—

"Some little time back, in consequence of representations made on the subject, by memorial and otherwise, to the National Rifle Association, a letter was addressed, by direction of the Council, to the Adjutants of the Volunteer corps throughout Great Britain, asking if it was the wish 'of any considerable majority of the shooting members that the use of the Snider rifle should henceforward be altogether discontinued at Wimbledon, and the Martini-Henry substituted for it in all competitions hitherto confined to the Snider.' The replies in the affirmative have been almost so universal that the Council of the Association has made an application to the War Office for such an additional number of Martini-Henry rifles on loan as would make, with those already possessed by the Volunteers, a total of 10,000."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The rain on Thursday night put everybody in good spirits, laid the dust in the suburbs and wool plazas, reinforced the city 'algibes,' cooled the air, and did a deal of other good in a small way: but it was only a pet shower, and farmers would like to see a week's steady, business-like rain, but there is not much sign of it.

Yesterday was, comparatively speaking, a very dull day in a news sense, and the ball of excitement set rolling by the mooted triple alliance and the 'pronunciamiento' in Cordoba came almost to a standstill. The latter affair was rather a poor one, although 7 killed and 20 wounded was the bill of fare: the papers give their several versions of it, according to their party views, but it was a mere flash in the pan. The Nacion repeats that the author of Lochiel's Warning is a person worthy of every credit, living in Montevideo, but his name cannot be given, as the sister city would become infinitely too hot to hold him if he were found out: he has promised the Nacion another letter on the same subject, and so the gold-broker story falls, to the ground. Anything but a pleasant feeling has been created by the continued advertizements in the papers calling on the Tiros and Bomberos to assemble punctually as before for 'ejercicios doctrinales:' it is also announced that all these Free Companies are to be welded into two regiments. Some of the companies intend having a 'fete champetre,' 'carne con cuero,' &c., at Palermo to-morrow, and we suppose Roederer's Champagne will be more in demand on the occasion than Remington's rifles. Of the two Rs, Roederer is far the best fellow.

We have seldom seen the Montevidean papers so devoid of news. They express the utmost surprise at the fatigue exhibited by the troops of the Line in their march from Palermo on Sunday last. The victim of murder at the Union was a good-looking widow named Castro, who had refused to marry the criminal, a Spaniard named Salva, a baker's peon; he borrowed 20 dollars from his employer in the morning, and bought a pistol and dagger; he stabbed the poor woman to the heart as she was standing in the patio with her little son, and then blew his own brains out. The statement that the murder was preceded by another crime is utterly devoid of foundation.

The Heraldo de America publishes another very stiff article about the treatment of the 73 passengers by the Cordillera now in quarantine. Their plight must be truly dreadful if what our colleague says is true, viz., that they have neither beds nor covering; that men, women and children all sleep huddled up together on deck, under tattered tarpaulins, and, worse than all, that no fresh provisions whatever were sent to them from the 24th, Tuesday, up to 5.30 p.m. on Thursday! This is the most terrible quarantine story that has yet transpired.

M. Raciter, the inimitable comic artist, takes his benefit on Sunday night in the Variedades Theatre. Niniche has been especially selected, as all the artists of the Verneuil company have the opportunity of shining in their roles.

Don Nicolas Calvo is expected here from Europe next week.

We give some more news by the Tamar in another column. Some sensation was caused in Dublin by the Lord Lieutenant's refusal to attend the Lord Mayor's inauguration banquet, and the latter then threw the feast overboard and gave £500 to the Relief Fund. Mr. Parnell's three sisters were on the platform with him at the Philadelphia meeting, wearing orange ribbons.

Our esteemed friend and countryman Mr. Keenan, of Rosario, has proved himself 'facile princeps' amongst the collectors for the Irish Relief Fund. 27,000$ m|c. for one man in a single district is indeed a noble evidence of the energy of the collector and the generosity of those to whom he appealed. In the name of the Irish community we beg to thank them warmly.

M. Masyonet, the French painter who has recently arrived here, is creating a prodigious sensation by the facility and rapidity with which he wields the pencil. We hear he can take your portrait in less time than he takes to look at you! This beats photography hollow. Some of his finished works are very fine specimens.

Mr Bernard Quaritch, the renowned bookseller of London, has consigned his usual autumn remittance to Mackern Bros. of five cases of rare, valuable and miscellaneous books, per Tamar, to be sold in public auction by Messrs. A. Bullrich and Co.

Habitual travellers by the Western Railway had better take a note that the time table will be changed on Monday next, March 1st. The first train from Parque will be at 7 a.m., and the last, to Moreno, at 7.25 p.m.

There is nothing whatever in the Rio papers about the alliance that has so frightened us all here. The fever is much worse there, and there are fears of another famine in Ceara The Emperor was about to make a tour to the Provinces.

Amongst the flying reports in the papers by the Tamar we see one to the effect that Lord George Hamilton is to succeed Lord Lytton as Viceroy of India. The New York Herald announces that Great Britain has determined to interfere at once in the war between Chile and Peru. This last piece of news may safely be set down as a 'goke,' and perhaps the first also.

Many people will be glad to hear that Chiarini, with a greatly augumented circus and menagerie, is expected at Montevideo within a fortnight, and, of course, he will afterwards come up here.

Our native colleagues say that another duel between two Colonels of the army was to have been fought yesterday morning. The Capital sets at rest all the conflicting rumours as to Colonel Mansilla's whereabouts. A reporter of that paper saw him at Rosario on Sunday last stepping into the train for Cordoba.

Much comment is made about the announcement that several families of recently arrived immigrants have been turned out of the Asilo (the time allowed by law having expired) and are begging about the streets. If this be so, the fault does not lie with the Immigration Department but with Congress, which gives a mere pittance to the most useful and important office in the country, while immense sums are lavished on colleges in the provinces and other matters of no consequence whatever in comparison with the real back-bone of the Republic's progress—Immigration.

The warmest welcome we have ever heard of any one receiving, on or off 'Change, is that accorded to Mr. Zelaschi last week by came Fortune, on his arrival from Paraguay after fifteen years absence. On arriving at his hotel he bought a whole ticket, No. 7478 in the Uruguay Lottery, and it turned up next day with 10,000 pats. prize. It is better to be born lucky than rich.

Another daily paper in support of Dr. Irigoyen's candidature will appear next week.

The very latest fashionable news from Paris is that all the female 'upper crust' there have totally discarded false hair, the doctors having proved to them that wearing such is terribly dangerous to health. French belles now wear nothing but their own tresses, and of course, every woman under the sun, from Cork to Calcutta and from there to Chicago, will follow their example. 'Tant mieux.' Nutria fur is all the rage this winter in Paris. Maddle. Heibbron, the new operatic star, wears a mantle of Nutria skins which cost 60,000 francs (£2,400) and was presented to her by her admirers in St. Petersburg. Our 'habitues' should take the hint for the next Prima Donna that comes to Buenos Ayres.

Stagno was drowned at Montevideo last week; not the divine tenor, who is still above ground, but a little boy of the same name who got out of his depth while bathing.

A foreign Consul in this city was 'stuck' to the tune of $200 m|c a few days ago by a very handsome and well dressed woman who called on him and begged a trifling subscription for the Mad Asylum. The fair one was a swindler. It is not often that even the prettiest woman succeeds in 'walking round' a Consul.

Governor Tejedor and his Ministers will inaugurate the Flower Show to-morrow at the Florida Gardens. Exhibits are received to-day from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The Union of San Juan reports the great success of a Joint Stock Estancia recently started in that province. The balance sheet for last year shows a net profit of 14,200 bolivians, and 28,400 in hand. The provinces are improving faster than people in B. Ayres imagine.

The announcement that the Provincial Senate has accepted the nomination of Mr. Edward Casey, President of the General Brown Club, as a Director of the Provincial Bank was hailed yesterday with equal satisfaction in commercial and camp circles. The rural interests have now an able representative on the Board of the country's foremost institution.

A subscriber whose health has been seriously affected by recent events, as he is thoroughly sick of all the political fuss and folly going on, requests us to open another short course of Conundrums, say for a week, puzzles being far pleasanter reading than politics. So be it. Our friend sends us the following, which is a very good one. Answer to-morrow:—

One semi-circle; next a circle complete;
Third a triangle which stands on two feet.
Then let one horizontal and upright meet,
And whole will give something productive of heat.

IRISH RELIEF FUND.

Rosario, Feb. 25th.

E. T. Mulhall Esq.

Sir:

I find great pleasure in forwarding to you, through the London and River Plate Bank, the sum of twenty seven thousand seven hundred dollars m|c. (27,700) for the Irish Relief Fund, also the list; and I found more pleasure in seeing my friends and countrymen subscribe so willingly according to their circumstances. I only wish that our countrymen in B. Aires would do as well.

As soon as you receive the money please forward an acknowledgement.

And oblige yours truly

James Keenan.

There was a complete change in everything in the market to-day; gold, stocks, shares, &c, everything down. In the gold market nearly a million of pats sold before 2 o'clock; prices opened at 30.70 and dropped all day closing at 30.55; for to-morrow, end of month, 330,000 sold same price as cash and carried over to end of March about 400,000 at 30.85, closing at 30.75. For April also there was a heavy business done at 30.80.

Cedulas rule very weak, nothing sold cash but 68,000 for end of Feb. at 83½. Treasury Bills also gave way, closing at 76½, and National Bank Shares on the very eve of the dividend have dropped to 60.

The great news on 'Change was the enormous wool transactions of the morning. A very large re-sale of wool from deposits was spoken of, perhaps the largest wool business for one transaction ever recorded in this market; wools that were offered yesterday at 106 were sold to-day at 112.

In political circles the news current was that Roca will resign in favor of Dr. Quintana, and as this solution of the electoral difficulty it is thought will meet with support from the Buenos Aires party that the news had a favorable effect.

Respecting the rumoured alliance of Brazil with Chile, we have it from the very highest and best authority that the news is a Bola, and that there is not the last foundation for the stories so current.

Mr Kincaid, from Patagones, was welcomed on 'Change; he arrived up in Santa Rosa and reports everything down there thriving and prosperous. Governor Alvaro Barros is busy with a surveyor, measuring the new lands

We give the following extract from Messrs Woodgate's important shipping circular which will be out in the morning and on sale at Messrs. Mackern's—

Freights—The engagements of wool this month have been 33,497 bales

Against 46,220 bales in Jan.
43,782 do Dec.
25,033 do Nov.

But rates by steamers have not improved, on the contrary cargo is scarce at 25s. Wool sailed and engaged to date 152,910 bales

Against 135,313 bales 28th Feb. 1879
148,204 do 1878
165,891 do 1877
142,028 do 1876

With the favorable news now arriving from the European markets it is probable that by the end of March very little wool will remain; we close the month with 28 sailing vessels or 10,539 Register Tons disengaged.

Salt—Import 21,792 fan., 9 rls offered, but at this price there are no sellers.

Coal—Import 2,813 tons has improved and we quote: Cardiff $f.9, House $f.10½-11.

Lumber—Import 1,060,813 feet. Spruce abundant, but white is getting scarce. We quote Spruce 8-9 rls, Pitch 12½ rls. dispatched in lighters, white $f.41-42 gold on board.

On Tuesday next the Bolsa meeting will be held to consider the Reglamento, many parties think that the meeting ought to be held upstairs in the board room and not in the Hall where it stops business.

Shareholders of the Nat. Bank must hand in their shares on Saturday, as on Monday the Bank pays the dividend.

There is a rumour on 'Change that another English emigration scheme to Paraguay has been hatched in London, and that 2000 English farmers may be expected to take farms from the English Bondholders who own the Government lands. Nothing that we can write or say would be sufficiently strong to condemn this new Paraguayan bubble, and if attempted it will inevitably end the same as the former mad English emigrant scheme, when subscriptions had to be made to save the Englishmen from starving in Paraguay.

The Allan line steamer Phœnician sails tomorrow for Havre, taking the following cargo:

From Buenos Aires—
2,380 bales wool
3,087 salted horse hides
675 ox hides
100 bordalesas tallow
2 trusses Guanaco hides
1 case ostrich feathers.

From Montevideo—
400 bales wool
3,300 salted ox hides
2,000 dry hides.

Captain Chapman, Commander of the R.M.S. Tamar was welcomed on 'Change, also Mr Grey, Purser. We return thanks for all the gold they brought us. The Tamar has already engaged—
7,000 salted hides
12,000 dry hides
1,000 bales wool, 25s/ and 10 per cent.

Commodore Ferguson of steamer Herschell took leave of his friends on 'Change. He sails on Monday.

The magnificent steamer Elbe of the Royal Mail line will leave England for the Plate on the 30th March, and will sail from here about 7th May direct for Europe. This splendid steamer is one of the Company's best, and it shows the turning over of a new leaf, sending her out to meet the convenience of parties leaving that month for Europe.

The splendid barraca Solè on the Riachuelo with fine mole, and commodious dwelling house is now offered in the market to rent. The barraca is one of the best known in this market, admirably situated, and mounted with every necessary and convenience. We call the attention of our friends who made millions in wool this season to this fine property, as we strongly suspect next year's wool season will be even better than this.

The sale of 247 squares of estancia land at Marcos Paz, for 535,000, shows the great value of land out there; the legal valuation was only 258,000, Mr Zemborain buyer. The price paid is nearly at the rate of four millions per square league. Farmers please take note.

The Senate yesterday at secret session rejected the name of Ventura Martinez proposed by Governor Tejedor as chairman of the Western Railway.

Mr N. Calvo, who has written such admirable letters to the Siglo, is expected out from Europe shortly, and ex-President Grant and General Sheridan are expected down from the United States. If General Grant comes, Americans will have an opportunity to press the new American steam line from Rio to the Plate, as the chances are General Grant will be the next President of the U. States.

The receipts of the Campana Railway show increase; total for Dec. 490,173 m|c. We hear of an important trade in lime now going on at Campana, and a great quebracho wood trade spoken of; two vessels chartered to bring down from the rivers to Campana a large quantity of that timber cut under a contract for ten thousand tons, all for Havre.

Gold at afterhours ruled weak, and was sold as low as 30.40, but about 5 o'clock it again grew firmer, and closed buyers at 30.45.

The death of Mr Marti, of the firm of Benites & Marti, was announced on 'Change. Deceased, it seems, was found drowned at the Tigre yesterday.

At 4 o'clock when the wool men came on 'Change, there was much said about the great purchase this morning; nearly all the deposits cleared out

In salted hides we have the following important sales—

15,000 do Arias, Concepcion, 64 lbs., at 51 rls.

Another sale spoken of, but not concluded.

Mr Dumaresq Le Bas took leave of his friends on 'Change; he leaves to-night for Montevideo and sails in the Tamar for Europe. Mr C J Nuttall has been admitted as partner, and the firm now is Dumaresq Le Bas & Co.

The premium on sovereigns has fallen pretty low when at the cambistas to-day they were selling sovereigns at ⅜ premium.

Exchange showed no advance spite of all the wool sales, bills passed at 50d and 50⅛d London, 5.30 Paris, and 5.32 Antwerp. Another thousand pounds sterling are remitted by the Humberto I. to morrow by Messrs Carroll and Casey, Trustees of Irish Relief Fund, to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, and subscriptions are coming in so fast that we have no room for all the lists. The great improvement in paper money is shewn in the fact that £1,000 remitted now only costs $146,000 m|c.

The sale of a pine cargo, consigned to M. Forrester and Co., is reported on 'Change at reserved rates.

Large purchases of wheat in Montevideo by Messrs. Maderna and Co. are reported, as also large purchases of wool by same firm this morning here.

The Memling entered to-day, and thanks to the attention of her Commander we received files of English papers.

There is a tremendous hub-bub in the market about the non-payment of the coupons of the Municipal Bonds. We call the attention of our excellent Provincial Minister to the affair, as it is likely to damage the credit of the Province of Buenos Ayres.

The Humberto to-morrow takes 160 passengers and full cargo.

We have received by the Tamar and Memling's mails many interesting papers for publication which for want of space we are obliged to hold over. We extract the following from the London papers:—

"It is announced that Mr F C Barron, M.I.C.E, has been chosen (out of 50 candidates) as the Resident Engineer and Assistant Manager of the Central Argentine Railway. We also learn that the high opinion which has been formed of his personal and professional character, and intimate acquaintance with the Spanish language, eminently qualify him for the post.

"The traffic of the Buenos Aires Great Southern Railway (says Herapath's Railway Journal) continues to increase largely, and we are happy to add that the number of paper dollars required to purchase a pound sterling is sinking. Should the paper become equal to gold, the comparative benefit to the Company would be great. Such a result has been achieved in America, and we cannot doubt that by-and-by it will be brought about in the Argentine country."

The mails from Rio bring the following:—

"Freights—We quote:—

Mr Edward Casey was warmly welcomed on 'Change to-day by his numerous friends and congratulated on his appointment as Director of the Provincial Bank, a position for which his wide relations with the estancieros and sheepfarmers eminently qualify him.

The Italian barque Vespucio has been chartered to load the cargo of the Padre Tomasso bones for Live pool at 17s and 5 o/o.

The sale of 7,000 dry hides in Montevideo is reported at reserved price; the chief importance of the news is that there are still some hides left in Montevideo.

A steamer left Montevideo on Wednesday with some troops, and it is said for the Uruguay; formerly this news was unimportant, to-day it may mean much.

The fine Italian steamer Humberto I. sails on Saturday for Italy; she takes a heavy cargo of cereals and but few passengers.

The American barque Havilah has been chartered at reserved rates to load bales for New York, and the Brit. barque Verona has been cleared by Pisani for Falmouth with a full cargo of tallow, 590 pipes and 127 half-pipes and horns. The Italian barque Trionfo from this port has been obliged to land part of her cargo at Fayal, having put in leaky; and the barque Thomas Turnbull with a coal cargo for the Plate has gone aground and unable to proceed.

Mr Livingstone's great sheep auction comes off on March 1st; the sheep belong to the estate of Patrick Gannon, Giles, and are some of the best in the country, as they are sold by order of the Court they will go for whatever they fetch over ⅔ the valuation.
