> ON 'CHANGE. May 20th, 1884

Affairs on 'Change ruled rather dull this morning and, although the ring was thronged, Shares, Cedulas and Scrip looked flat. The speculative boom has fizzled much faster than anticipated and the market wears an inStation, 20-12, 9 rls. tb different and dull aspect. Seventeen hundred shares of the National Bank were sold for the end of the month; rates opened at 148, went up 1, but the position could not be held and up \(\frac{1}{4}\), but the position could not be held and prices tumbled to \(147\frac{1}{4}\), the market closing at \(147\frac{1}{4}\). The feverish features of the speculation have disappeared and affairs are now passing through a calm after the panic of last week. Operations for June are small; 500 were sold this morning at \(149\frac{1}{4}\)-\frac{1}{4}\. The Scrip was in better demand; one hundred Certificates were sold for the end of the month at 60, and there were buyers for more at this rate. Two leading capitalists have been buying the Scrip freely since the beginning of the month.
