The fifth Limay auction came off to-day before a great crowd of buyers. The Sections at \( \frac{1}{4} \) per cent or so, and money till after July of the lots of the 10th Section were sold as follows:

The fifth Limay auction came off to-day before a great the brokers do not care for that. They can borrow large sums from day to day at \( \frac{1}{4} \) per cent or so, and money till after July of the lots of the 10th Section were sold as follows:

6th is only ½ per cent. When that date is reached, and the Market groans beneath the weight of dividend money, the brokers calculate that they will be more than ever masters of the position. All the indications are that they will not be disappointed. "After standing at yesterday's prices for the greater part of the day, Foreign Govern-ment Stocks became weaker, in sympathy with the fall in Consols, and left off at the lowest Italian Rente alone amongst Inter-Bourse Stocks closed 1 higher. Egyptian Bonds lost \(\frac{1}{2}\) to \(\frac{3}{8}\), Portuguese Stock \(\frac{3}{8}\), Russian 1871 and 1872 Bonds \(\frac{1}{2}\) to \(\frac{3}{4}\), and the 1873 Loan \(\frac{1}{8}\), and the Turkish Tribute Loans \(\frac{1}{4}\) to Argentine Hard Dollar and Treasury Bonds relapsed 2 to 21, on renewed weakness in the Buenos Ayres exchange, accompanied by fresh reports about the issue of a new Argentine Loan. As regards this last the truth is difficult to reach. The Argentine Govern-ment sold a Five per cent. Loan last year to several eminent London financial houses before the paper currency panic came on. At the present price of Argentine Bonds--above panic level though they be--this new Loan could not be brought out except at a heavy loss to the contractors holding it; and it is hard to see how the Argentine Government could give them the go-by and issue a fresh Loan elsewhere. In fact, this is too improbable, because too suicidal, to be believed, unless he Loan can be disguised under the name of a Railway Loan, or something of that kind. The rumour of a speedy appeal to the Money Market was, at all events, current again to-Referring to the official statistics of French foreign trade during last month, the Temps observes that whilst the exports and imports

All the lots of the above Section are situated inland, and the average price paid amounted to little more than double the Government valuation. Bidding went on slowly and little section was taken in the Section. The 11th Section was sold as follows:—
