The market has been aware for some time past that negotiations were going on, and that the only difficulty was a Estanzuela, Banda Oriental, the wife of latter has now been arranged, at least such was the report affoat. The shares were looked for to-day and quoted at

Messrs. Campbell and Mullally's offires in the Bolsa are No. 8 and not No. 6 as we said by mistake a few days No. 6 as we said by mistake a rew days ago. We also fell into the mistake of representing Mr. W. D. Campbell as a Williams, of Roldan (formerly of Reading) to M. Ethel new member of the ring he has been a broker for many years. It is been a broker for many years. It is Mr. Mullally who has been recently Baptiste Ribiere to Marie Luisa, daughunched on the troubled wave of roker's, eventful career, Mr. Fennesy, Manager of the Lon-don and River Plate Bank has formally acknowledged, in a note, the receipt of the Finance Minister's recent circular in reference to exchange operations. He hopes for the Minister's appr ion of the steps since taken Bank, and informs H.E. that it ha drawn large amounts in paper at a uniform rate. The managers of all the other private banks have sent similar notes to the Minister. Surveyor Gorostiaga has submitted to Government his measurements of the Chweehau-ruca and Chincuta colonies in Chuput Territory belonging to the Central Argentine Land and Invest ment Company. He says the lands are generally of prime quality, with excel-lent grass and well watered by many small streams. There is also abund ance of timber of all kinds, and th lands are magnificent in every way for colonization. We received the following from the conrecous purser of the Thames :-Montevideo, 6th April 1891. "Mr. Editor, "I beg to enclose a list of the passer gers and to announce the arrival of this ship here at 4 p.m. to-day.

During the voyage nothing worthy of special mention occurred. "Leaving Southampton we encountered a fresh South westerly gale across the Bay; on departure from Lisbon we also experienced a heavy South west el mes siguiente, gale with high sea for about eightee iours; the remainder of the passag being made in fine weather throughou though the heat along the South Ame rican coast has been very oppressive
