Saturday, June 6th, 1891. The first news in the market this morning was the publication of the balance-sheet of the Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata: we give the figures at the foot of this column. The balancesheet is most hatisfactory, and produced an excellent impression. All the shareolders of the bank can see at a glance he sound management of the concern, and depositors may feel confident as hey peruse the figures. The bank reeived telegrams from its agents in Paris and London to-day announcing that all ts bills had been covered. The French Bank opened its doors today and resumed business under the legal provisions of the Judge's moratorium There was a report that the branch of the bank in Rosario had been declared bankrupt, but there is a mistake in this regard, as the branch in question was closed by order of the cen-
