There are many passages in this lumi nous report that deserve the most serious attention. We take the following:-

Manufactures "It is very questionable whether the country is benefitted by spoon-fed industries, unless in exceptional cases. In the last few years a number of exotic and artificial manufactures have been created among us, by allowing the raw material to be imported duty-free, and imposing a heavy duty on the importaion of the manufactured article. In this marner the Custom-house has been robbed of a large source of income, while
