The monthly balance sheet of the Caja alongside these coal depots, and we hear alongside these coal depots are more deposits. the end of the month the requirements of the liquidation and the necessities of the market are felt. What with Sunday and Santa Rosa intervening all stock accounts for the end of the month have very little more time to be closed. But it seems the whole business for the month is a mere trifle, and possibly it is that the total note circulation of the Republic is 265, 243, 933, and this is perhaps the most important figure of the month of the liquidation and the necessities de Conversion is again published and it that the company expect this or next month a consignment of 4500 tons by one steamer. This we may say will be the largest coal consignment by one steamer on record in the River Plate. Another feature of the La Plata port is the admirable train service of the Ensenada Railway Co. The trains with passengers and luggage drive from the Central Sweden, much regretted by his widow vencimentos that indirectly helped the general market, leaving the great volume of floating capital free from the demands of bolsa speculators and to be employed in the legitimate requirements of trade and business.
