

THE NATIONAL BALANCE SHEET

IMPORTANT STATE PAPER.

Yesterday the Finance Minister disclosed the state of the National Ledger to the President of the Republic in a note which we condense as follows:

Most Excellent Sir—

I call your attention to the following Balance Sheet furnished me by the Accountant General.

When you look at the funds available in the Bank of the Nation and elsewhere...

At same date the $412,000 were $1,654,000 in paper and $1,419,000 gold as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Treasury Bills, Various debts, and Total.

Your Excellency will see that the service of the Home and Foreign Debt is not included in the foregoing figures...

There is a wilderness of figures on the Credit side of the account, but they are worth next to nothing as prospective assets and nothing at all as immediate ones.

The Doubtful Assets are $78,700,000 paper and $4,197,000 gold, but nineteen of these enormous figures are represented by credits on the National Bank...

Neither now nor at any future time can we count on these to pay what the State owes on demand.

I must add to the other figures here the "Contaduria," to show what the National Ledger really is...

I need not tell you that it is an utter impossibility for the Contaduria to pay such an amount in cash...

There is another debt on the National Ledger which is not included in the note...

The recent rapid appreciation of this large amount of notes is evidence of the confidence of the people...

The late Finance Minister, Mr. Hansen, has issued a manifesto to the effect that his successor, Dr. Romero...

The new Minister of Finance was doubtless animated by the noblest intentions in his statement to the public...

Foreign loans, 175,500,000; Free Banks, 90,400,000; Internal loans, 303,600,000.

Before proceeding to explain to our countrymen the mysteries of the Me or Yo (glasy) money, and to give a report of the toasts which marked this memorable occasion...

Scotchmen from all parts of the country were invited to the banquet...

There's a Scotchman in the land, there's a Scotchman in the land, there's a Scotchman in the land...

There's a Scotchman in the land, there's a Scotchman in the land, there's a Scotchman in the land...
