Brandt. Now we have hay and maize cargoes going to Rio from Rosario almost every second day, and still they don't get enough; it is a rather good sign for this country, as Rio is a splendid market for our forage. The following are the extracts referred to: "Indian Corn-Receipts have been

11,479 bags per Soldier Prince from B. Ayres and 500 bags per Salerno from New York. River Plate corn is quoted at 7$400-7$800 per bag, and native at 7$500-9$000, according to quality. Receipts of foreign corn in November were 40,251 bags, against 800 bags in November last year. Hay-Receipts are 3,228 bales per Diana, from Paraná, 50 bales per Heve-

Also several pieces on the Avenida Buenos Aires, fronting the park of Palermist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the puri bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been inreased by that amount. What a wonderful result is this !"
