NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO MOTHERS.

In a country where the rearing of infants is attended with somewhat exceptional difficulties and risk owing partly to climatic reasons, and partly to the difficulty of getting medical assistance in the 'camp,' an apology is hardly needed for publishing a small hand-book on the subject for the use of mothers. In Dr. Pennel's book on Infant Feeding an attempt has been made to explain in simple terms the reasons on which the various rules and recommendations are based, in order that a mother in modifying her child's diet from time to time as required, may be guided by common sense and not by the hundred and one conflicting counsels, with which she will be assailed. On sale at all bookstalls and libraries.

Telegrams

(Per Havas Agency.)

United Kingdom

London, 1st—Southampton witnessed this afternoon the departure for the Cape of a Government commission sent out to investigate the conduct of Dr. Jameson in the recent invasion of the Transvaal. The commissioners are reported to be empowered to obtain every facility for the prompt fulfilment of their mission.

The news received from Asia Minor becomes daily of a more alarming character. Famine is reported to be raging in Zeitun. The Government has received trustworthy accounts stating that as many as 100 deaths from starvation, scurvy and typhus are of daily occurrence. The state of the Armenians is simply desperate and the utmost misery prevails in the unfortunate city.

Spain

Madrid, 1st—The sitting of the City Fathers this morning was a most noisy one. The sitting had finally to be broken up.

It has been raining in torrents in the north of Spain for eight days, especially in Navarro, and considerable damage has been done.

Señor Cánovas del Castillo, the Prime Minister, has stated that it is his resolve to crush the rebellion in Cuba at any cost and regardless of the interference by the United States threatened by the proposal in the Senate to invite Spain to recognize the Cuban ihsurgents as belligerents. This decision on the part of the Government meets with enthusiastic approval.

France.

Paris, 1st.—The river Rhone has been rising rapidly for two days and an inundation is feared, as the heavy fall of snow increases the volume of water.

The Budget for 1887 was laid to-day before the Legislature. Economies amounting to 40,000,000 francs are proposed.

The Government has decided to send General Le Mouton de Boisdeffre, Chief of the Headqurrters-staff, as head of the delegation which is to represent France at the coronation of the Emperor Nicholas II. in Moscow. It is said that nearly all the European Powers will be officially represented at the ceremony.

Italy

Rome 1st—Telegrams from Massauah state that in one of the attacks against Makalle the Italians lost 4 sergeants, 4 soldiers and 43 Ascaris. whilst 80 were severely wounded.

Rome, 1st.—The Ministers held a Cabinet Council this morning to discuss the African Question. All the Ministers agreed to the imperious necessity there was in continuing the war against Abyssinia to avenge the defeats of Ambu-Alagi and Makalle. A decisive battle is expected at any moment, as the Abyssinian forces are within a few hours' march of General Baratieri's advanced guard.

Germany

Berlin, 1st.—The strike of printers at Frankfurt is over, and the men resumed work this morning having amicably arranged with their employers.

Servia

Belgrade. 1st.—The political situation is getting worse daily, and the Liberal and Radical papers are very violent. A Cabinet crisis appears inevitable as the Ministers are at variance on many questions. and some of them are determined to resign.

Hungary

Budapesth, 1st—A Commission of Hungarian wine growers have petitioned Government for help owing to their losses last year by the phylloxora Government has promised to aid them.

Austria

Vienna, 1st—A telegram from Belgrade echoes a rumour in circulation there. to the effect that the young King Alexander will wed with the Princess Anna, daughter of the Prince of Montenegro. It is believed that His Majesty will shortly leave for Cettingé for the espousals.

United States

Washington, 1st—The Senate voted this afternoon the Bill authorizing the coinage of silver but it yet remains to be seen whether the House of Representatives will confirm the sanction.

Turkey.

Constantinople, 1st.—The Consuls of the Great Powers arrived to-day at Zeitun to ascertain the actual state of affairs, and to offer to mediate between the Armenians and Mohammedans, a proposal which it is believed will be accepted.

Chile

Valparaiso, 1st.—Exchange on London is quoted at 17 ¾.

The Ferrocarril corrects the statements made about Rothschild advancing Chile two millions sterling for one year and applying five hundred thousand pounds out of that sum to paying the interest on the Foreign Debt. The latter statement, is says, is quite incorrect. No such ment exists.

The Government employees are at their wits' ends as to how they are going to live, as they will not get a cent of their salaries until Congress passes the Expenditure Budget.

Engineer Muñoz, who is to survey the land where the Argentine Government wants to place the "hito" de San Francisco, has arrived et Copiapó.

Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, 1st—Telegrams from Bahia state the steamer Linhares has been wrecked off the coast. The crew were saved

Heavy rains continue falling all over the country. Half the provinces are flooded.

Exchange cn London is quoted at 9 1/16.

Argentine Republic

Rosario, 1st—The Orden, a new periodical, has appeared. It is a very well written paper edited by Pablo Della Costa.

A strong firm in the market has become bankrupt.

A society comprised of seven capitalists has purchased the Pereyra flour mill and intends to work on it on a large scale.

The Chaco Chico, another paper, has appeared in San Cristobal.

Wheat has reached 7.20.

(Special Service of the Diario.)

United Kingdom

London, 1st.—Telegrams from Rome state that Negus Menelik has kept ten Italian officers close prisoners in spite of his promise of setting them at liberty.

The report of the Anglo-Israelite Society states that the Jewish colonies in the Argentine Republic are in a very flourishing condition.

Fresh colonies will be opened in Argentina.

France

Paris, 1st.—La Politique Coloniale advises Government to take energetic measures in the Guayana Question, and winds up by stating that the want of action on the part of the French Government is taken advantage of by Brazil.

United States

Washington, 1st—Messrs. Estrada, Palma, Quesada and Sanguilly, comprising the Revolutionary Junta, are working hard to persuade Government to recognise the belligerency of Cuba. The whole United States press is in favour of recognising the belligerency asked for.

The Commission charged to report on the Anglo-Venezuelan Boundary Question has examined all the documents in the State archives and has sent the secretary of the commission to look into all the documents existing in Spain.

It is probable that the commission will go to Europe during the coming summer to hold a number of sittings.

RETURN OF THE PRESIDENT.

Yesterday H.E. President Uriburu returned to town after a three months' absence, during which time General Roca, as President of the Senate, filled the chair of President of the Republic.

The interlude seems short, looks hardly worth the trouble of reviewing, yet even in the short term of ninety days so many wondrous events have occurred, both here and in Europe, that it is difficult in a brief, scrappy article to set forth a correct schedule of all the mighty events that have shaken both continents since Dr Uriburu left. Restricting our view to mere local matters, we have but to refresh our readers with a list of the chief incidents of life's passing show—

Archbishop of Chile's visit
Bossuet preaching of Dr. Jara
Purchase of new ironclads
Defeat of the Romero Unification bill
Resumption of Madero Port Works
Arrangement of Railway Guarantees
National Guard bill
Neuquen Railway bill
Departure of squadron to South.
Renewed Mission of Dr. Quirno Costa and a number of minor matters which were pending so long before Government and were finally despatched.

That there is a change in this country since the 28th of October, when President Uriburu left for Cordoba and General Roca took office, none can fail to remark, and possibly, in the activity of our War and Naval departments that change is most accentuated. The retirement of General Roca from the administration of public affairs may possibly signify less steam on or pressure in those departments, but should such occur, it would be a matter of great regret to all who know the present very critical state of the Chilian question.

President Uriburu, whose long residence in Chile has secured for him a very wide circle of the most influentia Chilian friends, is, perhaps, of all others the Argentine most capable of judging the great dangers that surround the Chilian question, and is the best qualified to adopt wise measures to meet those difficulties. We do not apprehend any overt act on the part of either Chile or Argentina that would lead to a rupture, but the feeling of the masses in Chile to-day is as intensely warlike towards this country as was the feeling of the Paraguayans in 1865, when Francisco Solano Lopez seized the passenger steamer and plunged his country into a war which might have been avoided, and from which it has never recovered.

General Roca's three months' administration has been marked by a prudent preparation for the worst, and we see no reason why this line of policy should be departed from until this Chilian question is once and for ever settled.

It is difficult to suppose that the Chilians would be so rash as to invade this country, since the probabilities are that not one of them would ever get back to his native country; on the other hand, should the Argentines attempt to cross the Andes the same "suerte" awaits them. As regards the fleet. The Argentines have now such a powerful navy that it is as plain as a pike-staff the Chilian fleet will sweep the Pacific and nothing more; whilst the Argentines will at last begin to set their house in order on their long exposed South East coast, and remain mistress of the seas in the South Atlantic.

Probably the best guarantee of peace between the two countries is the presence of Dr. Guerrero in the post of Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Chilian Cabinet, but if it is wise to be unwise at times, we may hint that peace between the two countries will be all the more secure when the Argentines have 20,000 men at Neuquen and Nahuel Huapi and another 20,000 at that remote, unfriended and melancholy slow spot called Quiaca.

ROSARIO.

HARVEST, COLONISTS, BANKS, ETC.

LOTTERIES LIKE CHARITY, "BEGIN AT HOME."

STRIKE OF ROSARIO COACHMEN.

THE "ANUNCIADOR DEL PACIFICO."

CARNIVAL v. REVOLUTION OR "VICE-VERSA."

(From our own Correspondent.)

Jan. 31st.

The news from outside continue being far from satisfactory in reference to the harvest, the last rains having done further damage to the stacked wheat, and caused delays and sundry other inconveniences to the labours of harvesting.

Apart from the natural causes which have been against the colonist this season a good percentage may further be added to the general loss, because many of them have not had the means, either to gather the crops, or carry out this operation with the necessary rapidity to make it effective.

Apart from the banking institutions which with their rates of interest and conditions of amortization are useless to the farmer and to the general commerce and small industries, our colonists find it extremely difficult, if not impossible, to get advances on their crops to enable them to gather them up. This is due to the want of good faith in many of them to fulfil their engagement, and which naturally creates a feeling of distrust in the would-be advancers of the money. Many colonists for instance will sell a standing crop of wheat say to A., with the premeditated idea of going through the same operation with B. or C., and if eventually the rights of the first purchaser may be recognized yet, who will run a risk of this sort, which apart from the terrible worry and expense it may entail would necessitate at least a constant watch and supervision of the property on which the money had been advanced; and if it becomes a question of going to law in order to settle the affair, that is probably the worst sequel of all, as we know full well what our law courts are, and what manner of justice we are likely to expect from them, when, as is pretty often the case, the prosecutor of a just and simple suit will after months and months of delays, trouble and expense get a verdict or settlement for which a few days would have been sufficient.

Thus, a great number of our good and honest colonists have suffered, and will go on suffering, on account of the great number of them also who have set up a precedent of conduct which debars them of the aid which would otherwise be willingly accorded them—and to-day the man who requires to sell all or a part of his standing crops, in order to defray his harvest expenses, will knock in vain at the door of exporters or other commercial firms, who more or less, and in different ways, "have been done before."

As to the banks, as I have said before, the agriculturists, farmers, or middle class "industriales." can derive no benefit from institutions which, like the "Banco de la Nacion" and "Provincial" ought certainly to give more facilities to those who in downright honest labour contribute in their various callings to the general progress of the country. But what business or enterprise except a roulette table or a lottery administration, will permit a man to repay the bank a loan, amortizing 25 % quarterly, plus 10 or 12 % per annum.

Talking of lotteries, I am glad to say that the project of our provincial one has, by all accounts, gone to the d——. Probably the Santa Fé government is satisfied for the present with the proceeds of the National lottery, which, it seems, has been finding its way by crooked roads to the old Sleepy Hollow for the last three years, at the rate of a hundred thousand a year. This sum is destined by law to our charities and hospitals, and two-thirds of it belong by right to Rosario, so that steps are being taken in order that henceforward the monies may be paid directly to the benefit of the "children," without going through the hands of our fatherly government, who is a self-appointed and rather doubtful "tutor," or "albacea," in this case, as in many others.

Coachmen are yet on the strike. with no immediete or awful consequences, except to themselves, and thus the city is quieter than when these worthies drive at full tilt over our paved streets, which are a miniature of the approaches to the heights of the Rocky Mountains.

The cabbies have struck because they will not conform with the ordinary rules which our municipality very rightly enforces on them—a cool reason, to say the least of it, on the part of this independent, and as a rule. insolent "gremio," as they are not doing any good to themselves by sulking, nor by their retirement, over inconviencing the public, it is probable that very shortly they will resume the reins of their horses. and respective seats on their "pescantes," a wiser, if a poorer lot.

I have received some numbers of the "Anunciador del Pacifico," kindly sent me by a friend in 'Frisco, California. The review has been started, and is edited in Spanish by our Argentine consul in San Francisco. Mr J. F. Schleiden, its main object being full and reliable information on commercial and maritime items, and the latest appliances in scientific matters and machinery in general, with artistic illustrations in phototype. Great credit is due to Mr. Schleiden for thus adding a new and important factor to the press, which will carry its grain of seed towards strengthening the commercial and social relations between the South American republics and their great sister of the North.

There is no extraordinary "entusiasmo" to be noticed generally for the approaching carnival festivities, which may or may not be accounted for by a rumour which has been floated in earnest, or probably as a joke, to the effect that this festive and mad season will be the time selected for a revolution to break out with the object of knocking Governor Leiva and his set from the heights of power.

There is undoubtedly some unpleasantness in the wind—besides the periodical emanations from our unfinished sewage works— which bodes no good to our present government, which as a power in the land has been a complete nontentity. With ample opportunities to have done a deal of good to the province, it has done nothing else but saddle it with new taxes, not even having had the common decency and for form's sake if for nothing else to devote a part,—however, small—of the proceeds of them towards doing the slightest work in favour of the province or its inhabitants. If a revolution breaks out, the present Government will be wiped out without a drop of blood being spilt, as public opinion is unanimous in condemning its policy, and I expect that General Roca himself would be pleased at such a sequel, as such Governments as ours serve only as stumbling blocks instead of factors in the sound, liberal and "go-head" National police, which undoubtedly is the aim and ambition of our acting President of the Republic.

Leo.

DEATH OF MR. CARROLL.

The grave has again closed over an old friend and countryman, Mr. Michael Carroll, for many years manager of the old English importing house of Bates Stokes and Co. both in this city, in Montevideo, in Lima and in Mexico. Mr. Carroll was born in Galway, Ireland, about 60 years ago, served his commercial apprenticeship in Liverpool and Manchester, rose to distinction at the book-keeper's desk, and was sent out to the house in Buenos Aires about the year 1860. Buenos Aires was so different then from what it is to-day that we find it difficult to convey to our readers the far higher social position of the British clerk in B. As. then than now. We shall not stop to trace the cause which has led to this result. It may be one thing or it may be another, but the fact stands that the British clerk in B. As. 1860 was as different from the British clerk of 1896 as is the press, as are the merchants, as are our public men, as is the very country itself. Carroll, although but a junior clerk in Bates Stokes, at once rose to distinction, notwithstanding that his manners were against him. Mr. Wells, who was called the Buzzard, and who was manager of the house of Ashworth, started a British Clerk's Provident Society, and called in Mr. Carroll, who was always a ready speaker, to support him. Wells and Carroll at once raised the young society to position and importance; they met at the rooms of the old British Library at the corner of Defensa and the Plaza, with our old countryman Mr. Duffy the Librarian and a 13 tumbler of punch man, for secretary. The British Clerks' Club grew. Mr. Fred. Moore, who was then a clerk of the house of Van Deurs and a most talented and representative young man, joined Carroll and Wells, and took the old Hotel de Roma building in San Martin, next to the old STANDARD office, and started the United Club, composed, exclusively of British clerks: the object was to give the clerk a better status than he had in the "Club de los Estrangeros," and a more independent position than a mere lodger in his patrons house; as in those days the clerks all lived in the houses of their patrons, pretty much the same as lodgers. Carroll and Moore saw the depressing influence on the English clerk of being tied all day to his desk, and even at dinner or breakfast unable to say his soul was his own, with the 'patron' at the head of the table and the Missus at the foot helping out the beefsteaks, mutton chops and puchero. Thrice happy days. Carroll meanwhile rose in the estimation of his compeers or fellow clerks. There were nights of debate at the old British Library where old Mr. Krabbe presided: well we remember them, and such nights and such discussions. The old patrons or British merchants subscribed freely to help the young men and stumbled in at night time to hear the debates. At the St. Patrick's Day dinner in 1865, Carroll made such a speech that old Dr. Sheridan and the British Consul, Constant Santa Maria, came round to his chair to congratulate him. Meanwhile Carroll, who was a tremendous worker, earned such a fame for his business letters to the Liverpool house that on the first vacancy that offered he was promoted and named submanager of the house in Mexico—Mr. Barton was then manager.

In the year 1861, on an occasion when the editor of this paper went out to spend the day at Mr. Patrick Brown's quinta, at San Isidro, Mr. Carroll took charge of the STANDARD, and, aided by Mr Stanfield, edited the paper from top to bottom on that day, and he often spoke of it as the hardest day's job he ever had. He remained in Mexico a few years and was transferred to Lima, where he managed the house for many years, and had the good luck to make the acquaintance of the lady to whom a few years afterwards he was married. From Lima Mr. Carroll went to England, where he remained about a year and was then named to the post of manager of the same house in Montevideo, and subsequently to the full managership in Buenos Aires, where he brought his young wife, and, purchasing a quinta in Flores, settled down there until he returned to England to fill the important post of agent and representative in London of the National Bank of Uruguay, which he held till the bank collapsed. He then took the Secretaryship of the London banker, Mr. Noetzlin, who was largely interested in various Montevidean enterprizes, and as his secretary and representative of the Western Railway of Uruguay, he resided for the last 4 years in Montevideo, and died in harness. Mrs. Carroll, during her residence in Buenos Aires formed a wide circle of friends and figured as one of the most accomplished English ladies in the British community. She is a woman of marked ability, and her two sons, at present at school in England, inherit great talents from both parents, and are destined to figure yet in life.

Only a month ago Mr. Carroll came up on a visit to Buenos Aires and remained a week. He seemed then in good health and spirits, and spent a pleasant day at Lambaré, talking over old times and long vanished years. His friends here were delighted to see him, and he assured us that nothing could surpass their hospitalities and kindness. He contemplated, on the winding up of the Western Railway business, returning to England and closing his chapter with his wife and children in a retired nook not far from London. But man proposes—and hardly had he returned to Montevideo than he got an attack of paralysis which was followed by a softening of the brain, he lingered between life and death for the last few weeks, and finally departed as appears by telegram received yesterday.

So soon may we follow
When friendships decay
And from loves shining circle
The gems drop away,
When true hearts lie withered
And fond ones are flown,
Oh, who would inhabit
This bleak world alone?

THE CRISIS IN THE TRANSVAAL

A DIARY OF RECENT EVENTS.

Dec. 28th, 1885. Jan. 7th, 1886.

It is now possible to put together, largely by the aid of the valuable Times telegrams from Johannesburg and Capetown, something like a connected narrative of recent events in South Africa.

Saturday, Dec. 28.—Uitlander's Committee, presumably, send urgent appeal to Dr. Jameson at Mafeking to come and help them.

Sunday, Dec. 29.—Dr. Jameson starts to their relief.

Monday, Dec. 30th.—Committee go to President Kruger "to discuss conciliatory measures with a view to the averting of a crisis." President Kruger, having heard of Jameson's advance, and having sent picked Boer forces to cut him off, grants some concessions,, and promises more—on condition that they all keep quiet. Uitlanders presumably go to bed, thinking they have done a good stroke of business. Jameson still on the march

Tuesday, Dec. 31.—Committee send urgent appeal to Sir Hercules Robinson, declaring their lives at stake. Boers and Johannesburgers arming and watching one another. Uitlanders form a kind of Provisional Government under the Transvaal flag, but "business is going on as usual." "Little anxiety is felt for Dr. Jameson who is considered well able to push his way through." The news of Jameson's advance "not very favourably received" (vide Times correspondent.) Star says it will be misconstrued. Sir Hercules Robinson publishes proclamation in Johannesburg, calling on all loyal subjects to disown Jameson and keep the peace. Johannesburgers crowd the trains for Cape Colony, and 2,000 fly to the frontier by road.

JOHANNESBURG MUST FIGHT.

Wednesday, Jan. 1.—The advance of Dr. Jameson's force has completely changed the position in Johannesburg. The feeling is that all must prepare to fight, for if fighting is once begun the Uitlanders know that they must at any cost come out the winners. nor can anyone stand neutral, for in the heart of action few questions are asked such as to whether a man is neutral or not.

The Boers are reported to be collecting from all sides and sending a force of 1,200 men to oppose Dr. Jameson.

A strong Committee of Defence has been formed under Colonel Frank Rhodes and Mr. George Farrar, with a detailed and careful organization. Thousands of Lee-Metford rifles, besides Maxim guns, have been distributed. More than a sufficient number of recruits are coming forward. A mounted rifles, a cycle corps, a commissariat department, and an ambulance corps have also been formed.

"MEN IN GRIM EARNEST."

Detachments of untired, but hard, intelligent, determined-looking miners, leavened with a few old soldiers, have crowned a height commanding the town on the north, and have occupied a series of posts all round the town. The positions have been selected with the greatest care, and strong entrenchments will be constructed with the aid of black labour. The different sections of Uitlanders have voluntarily formed themselves, according to their nationalities, American, Scottish, Australian, Afrikander, etc. This arrangement helps to promote "esprit de corps" and efficiency. There is a strong set expression about the newly-enrolled troops, as of men in grim earnest. The crowds which parade the streets are, however, remarkably cool. The wagon loads of ammunition and Maxims which are brought in are specially cheered.

ALL UNDER THE TRANSVAAL FLAG.

The leaders of the Reform Committee have spared no pains to keep the populace steady, and by hoisting the Transvaal flag on the roof of their building the moment that arming began, and by authoritatively stating from a window that it was for that flag and for the true Republic that they were preparing to fight if called upon, and not for the overthrow of the present Government, they allayed the suspicions of an attempt to thrust the British flag on them.

This unexpected organisation and determined deliberation and cool-headedness on the part of the Uitlanders have gained the confidence of the town, and have won to the cause even the German section.

No offensive move is intended, and the attitude of the leaders is strictly defensive till substantial guarantees have been given that their grievances will be redressed. They do not wish to commence hostilities, but they wanted to show the Transvaal Government that they were really in earnest.

All the Government police have been withdrawn from the town and concentrated at the gaol. On a ridge which commands it there are from 500 to 600 Boers. Temporary police have been organised by the Uitlanders.

COLONEL RHODES'S SPEECH

The crowd called for Colonel Rhodes, who, addressing them from the balcony, said that he had to thank them for the manner in which they had answered the call to arms in the good cause which they were now prepared to vindicate. He congratulated them on their good behaviour and self-restraint during a time of high political excitement. He appealed to those men who had already been served out with arms to do their utmost to maintain law and order in the town. If the negotiations now going on should not lead to the happy result which all wished, he felt certain, on looking at the material before him, that the duties of a military commander there would be easy.

"DR. JIM"—JOHANNESBURG RUMOURS.

The latest news of Dr. Jameson is that an action took place west of Krugersdorp, twenty miles from Johannesburg. He did not wish to fight, but being opposed, he drove the Boers back, and they are now occupying a position a mile west of Krugersdorp. There is a very strong feeling in favour of supporting Dr. Jameson. He comes to the succour of the town, so the town feels that it could not but help him.

The deputation which went to Pretoria to secure concessions does not seem to have secured much after all, for "nothing was settled pending the arrival of the High Commissioner."

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED TO THE CHARTERED COMPANY'S FORCE.

Meanwhile, apparently unknown to the Uitlanders, Dr. Jameson arrived almost within reach of Johannesburg and found no Uitlanders. He fought a series of engagements against the Boers, who held a strong position at Krugersdorp. Major Sir John Willoughby, exhausted by the forced marches, suffered a slight reverse. The casualties in this engagement are reported to have been—nine men killed, nine wounded, and Captain Webb, Lieut. Scott, and twelve men made prisoners. The attack was renewed again and again, the Chartered Company's men fighting with desperate courage.

After eleven hours' fighting the column retired for the night, prepared to march through Johannesburg through Randfontein, along the upper road, thus avoiding Krugersdorp.

THE FIGHTING RESUMED.

Thursday, Jan. 2—By two o'clock in the morning the Boers had discovered the manœuvre, and heavy firing recommenced, the Maxims being worked on both sides. The Boers' ammunition, which had run short during the day, was replenished, from Johannesburg, Boers running with it to the scene of action.

When daylight came heavy firing again took place in the direction of Roodepoort, thus showing that Dr. Jameson, despite terrible odds, pushed on towards Johannesburg. By this time Dr. Jameson had lost sixty or seventy killed or wounded or taken prisoners, while all his men were entirely worn out with hunger and fatigue. The Boer forces meanwhile had increased to between 3,000 and 4,000 men. They had also, by reason of numbers, managed to intercept the column's progress towards Johannesburg.

When at Brink's Drift on the farm of Vlakfontein the Boers extended their force right across the position in a half-circle, and placed six Maxims in position at long intervals. Dr. Jameson's men kept very close, thus exposing a better target for the deadly discharge from the machine-guns. A fierce and determined battle took place.

THE SURRENDER.

By eleven o'clock in the morning Dr. Jameson—he had spent his last shot and his men were almost dropping from their horses from fatigue, having fought almost for twenty-four hours on their empty stomachs—waved a flag of truce, and surrendered to an overwhelming force of quite six to one. They were completely hemmed in by the Boers.

PRISONERS "ALMOST SLEPT IN THEIR SADDLES."

At the time of surrender there were upwards of 600 altogether, and the poor fellows made a sorry sight, tired from their long march, their privations, and the tremendous strain of continuous engagements for nearly twenty-four hours. Some almost slept in their saddles as they were being escorted, and when they arrived at Krugersdorp Market Square the scene will not soon be forgotten.

KINDNESS OF THE BOERS.

The Boers freely mixed with them and talked with them. Provisions were brought and devoured with ravenous hunger. In many cases the Boers gave from their own scant stock of provisions to the starving men, for whom they expressed the utmost admiration for their pluckiness and determination.

Dr. Jameson and his principal officers, including Sir John Willoughby, were brought in separately from the main body of the captured troops. Although the Boers treated most of the prisoners with consideration, they jeered somewhat when Dr. Jameson was brought forward, but this was promptly suppressed by the Commandants. Dr. Jameson and his officers were temporarily housed in the Krugersdorp Court-house, together with the other officers captured previously.

At about half-past three a mule wagon was brought up fitted with mattresses and other conveniences. The chief officers were despatched to Pretoria under a strong escort of Boers. About half an hour later the rest of the prisoners were also escorted out of the town to Pretoria, most of them on their own horses. Both men and horses were extremely emaciated.

THE OFFICERS AND THE JOHANNESBURGERS.

To an interviewer Dr. Jameson, Sir John Willoughby and Colonel White were very reticent, but said that the attack had failed owing to the absence of the support which they had expected to receive from Johannesburg when they reached the Krugersdorp railway terminus.

Dr. Jameson added that even without the expected allies he might still have escaped if the railway line between Krugersdorp and Johannesburg had been torn up, as the Boers were without ammunition until an express engine and truck arrived upon the scene with plentiful supplies.

The rapidity with which the Boers were mobilised and concentrated is considered almost as wonderful as Dr. Jameson's marvellous march.

The wounded are being well tended by nurses from the Rand. The dead are still being brought in.

"SO ENDS THE DESPERATE, OUTRAGEOUS, GLORIOUS RAID.

The Cape Times says:—"Jameson's march will remain a glorious tradition of the Anglo-Saxon race." It describes how Dr. Jameson and his force fought for two days without food, water, or sleep, hoping against hope for the help that never came, and entrapped, practically within sight of 15,000 armed men in Johannesburg, whom he had come to help. "So ends," says the journal, "the desperate, outrageous, glorious raid of the lion-hearted Jameson, ignominious to others, but certainly not to him."

THE ADVENTURES OF KRUGER'S GRANDSON.

According to the Times correspondent, when the news of Dr. Jameson's advance was received, young Mr. Eloff, President Kruger's grandson, rode out unattended to meet the Chartered Company's forces with the view of persuading Dr. Jameson to return. He met the column at Zwaartlaagte, and urged Dr. Jameson to retire across the frontier. Mr. Eloff's representations, however, were disregarded, and he was placed under arrest until the following day, when he was liberated, his horse being returned to him, but his arms retained. With regard to the latter, Dr. Jameson informed him that he might call for them at the Government offices in Pretoria.

The Central News account of the Eloff incident is different. It mentions Eloff's appearance as taking place after the fighting had begun—Jameson fought his way as far as the Robinson Mine, within two miles of Johannesburg. The Chartered men maintained a vigorous fire upon the enemy with their machine guns. The Boers, however, had ample cover, having thrown up stone breastworks, as well as taking advantage of the natural formation of the ground. The Maxims, therefore, did scarcely any damage to the enemy, Jameson then shifted his position in the face of the Boer fire, carrying his dead and wounded with him. A curious incident occurred soon after Jameson moved his position. He found his way barred by a Boer detachment under the command of Captain Eloff, a grandson of President Kruger. This opposition was soon overcome, and Eloff himself was taken prisoner. As the chartered men were disarming the President's grandson they cheerfully told him that he could ask for the return of his weapons when "Dr. Jim" got to Pretoria.

DR. JIM'S ALLEGED "DECOY."

Jameson (adds the Central News account) is said to have sent out a small detachment early in the battle as a "decoy." These men, it is stated, occupied the attention of the Boers, and ultimately surrendered to them, while the main body of the chartered force marched on Johannesburg.

The Times mentions the surrender: but does not add these details.

THE MADERO PORT.

MOVEMENT IN JANUARY.

The shipping movement in the Madero Port is growing very fast. Last month of January beat the record, as will be seen by the following figures:—

TRANSATLANTIC STEAMERS ENTERED IN JANUARY 1896.

PUNTA ARENAS.

POPULATION OF MAGALLANES.

The population of this important district is, according to latest reports, 5075; and although no census has yet been taken we may safely state that the figures are much nearer 6,000. These 5075 inhabitants are divided into three sections:—

Punta Arenas	3,141
Patagonia	1,368
Tierra del Fuego	566

But to this must be added the inhabitants of Dawson Island, and Puerto Cuarenta Dias, which brings the total up to 8,224.

In 1895, the population of Magallanes was 2,085, not counting the Indians. To-day the total is nearly four times that, a tremendous increase. As a population of a town or country does not increase every year in the same ratio, we may expect to see Magallanes with 20,000 inhabitants at the close of this century. The white population of Magalanes is classified according to nationalities, viz:—

Chilians	3,244	or	61.92 %
English	413	or	7.88 %
Austrians	315	or	6.01 %
French	220	or	4.19 %
Spanish	186	or	3.55 %
Italians	150	or	2.78 %
Germans	124	or	2.36 %
Argentines	111	or	2.11 %
Swiss	83	or	1.58 %
Portuguese	50	or	0.95 %

DEATH OF LORD MILTON.

Yesterday's telegrams brings the sad intelligence of the death of Lord Milton, grandson and heir of Earl Fitzwilliam, one of the richest, most hospitable and most popular noblemen in Ireland. While out hunting, Lord Milton's horse stumbled and fell on the railway liner throwing his rider, who was killed on the spot. He was not yet of age. Earl Fitzwilliam has £50,000 a year, which he spends like a true Irishman; and his beautiful seat, Coolatin Park, is full of guests for half the year, especially during the hunting season, when noblemen from France, Austria and half the other countries of Europe are to be met there. When the Empress of Austria was in Ireland she honoured the Earl with a visit. We remember Mr. St. John, who was H M. Chargé d'Affaires here twenty years ago, telling us that no fewer than 35 hunters are saddled at Coolatin Park for the guests every day during the hunting season. As the words "Shillelagh" and Ireland have become synonymous all over the world as suggesting fighting for the fun of the thing, cracked skulls, wigs on the green etc, the following particulars will interest most of our readers:—Four miles from Tinehely is Coolatin Park, the residence of the estimable and deservedly respected Earl Fitzwilliam, well cultivated fields and comfortable homesteads abounding around the mansion. On this estate is the far famed wood or rather what remains of it of Shillelagh, which gives its name to the solid oak sapling so famed in Milesian song and story. This wood, which covered the southern portion of the county, was cut down in 1634 by the Lord Lieut. Strafford, who wrested it from the original proprietors, the O'Byrnes, because they were unable to produce any written titles to their lands. Some of the oak was used to roof St. Patrick's Cathedral, and Westminster Hall, it is supposed, was roofed from the same source. Shillelagh is an ecclesiastical district in the county of Wicklow and takes its name from the wood of Shillelagh once the most celebrated forest in Ireland for the excellence of its oak, which was exported to different parts of Europe; and hence it is also said that Turlogh, King of Leinster, sent the oak for the roof of Westminster Hall to William Rufus. Agriculture has much improved here within the last few years, and the late Earl Fitzwilliam reclaimed an extensive tract of bog and waste land by draining and trenching under the superintendence of Mr. Mil from Scotland. Coolatin Park mansion i very large and situated in a fine park of about 400 acres, tastefully laid out and planted with a variety of forest trees.

Our invaluable contemporary, the Montevideo Times, being nearest the church on the occasion in question, is, naturally, more orthodox than any of us on this side of the great Plate can be. It says:—"Telegrams published by our Buenos Ayres contemporaries state that Mr John Baring will probably be the successor of Mr. Pakenham in the British Legation at Buenos Ayres. There is no Mr. John Baring in the diplomatic service. It is possible that the announcement may mean that Mr. Walter Baring, at present British Minister in this capital, will be promoted to the post, but we are in a position to state that that gentleman has, so far, neither notification nor expectation of such a change".

Old Ireland's share of New Year's honours was the following, which may interest friends of the recipients in this country:—Mr. T. Sinclair, Mr. Smith Barry, M.P., and Sir Richard Martin are to be sworn of the Privy Council in Ireland; and knighthoods are given to Mr. Patrick Coll, Chief Crown Solicitor for Ireland; Dr. Moffett, President of the Queen's College, Galway; and Dr. James MacCullagh.

THE LA PLATA AND ENSENADA TRAMWAYS COMPANY LIMITED.

OPENING OF THE "LOS HORNOS" LINE

On the occasion of the inauguration of the tramway line to "Los Hornos," which takes place to-day, Sunday, various festivities are being prepared in that district, organised by the Committee which has been appointed for the purpose of increasing the prosperity of that suburb.

There will be an open air lunch, various games, and at night fire-works and a ball.

A great number of people will be present, and the tramway service will be continued until late into the night in order to assure to those who assist at the festivities a comfortable means of returning.

Yesterday a trial trip was made over the line to be inaugurated, and it was found to be in a perfect state.

LA PLATA.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The amount already discovered as having been stolen from the Judicial deposits of the Provincial Bank by a fraudulent clerk, reaches $70,000; but the revisal of the books is still being continued.

The Tandil police have at last captured a murderer, who had taken refuge in the adjoining Sierras. For six days he remained there, till forced by hunger to leave his hiding-place.

Last Thursday night some criminal removed various wedges from the permanent way near the Barracas al Sud station. The police are endeavouring to discover who it was.

THEATRES.

Our Teutonic readers should not forget that "Der Hypochonder" will come off at the San Martin on Monday next, under arrangement of the German Theatre verein. We are rubbing the dust off our German dictionary and oiling up long disused springs of our tongue for the occasion.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The event of yesterday was the arrival of President Urlburu from Cordoba. Sharp to time as a train from Balmoral to Windsor with the Queen, the special entered the Central Station at 3-45 p.m. Acting President Roca, the Cabinet Ministers and a crowd of Notables were on the platform, as the train drew up. All hats were raised. General Roca and some of the Ministers and others entered the car and the President shook hands with them all cordially, and sat down in a corner with General Roca for a fifteen minutes chat, after which the train went on to Quilmes, where there was a small crowd who respectfully saluted the President as he drove to his quinta. A subscriber on the spot says that H. E. looks very much better, but is evidently not very strong yet.

There was a great levée at the Plaza Constitution Station last night: it reminded one of Paddington, such was the crowd and crush for the Mar del Plata train. Among the many families leaving for the Argentine Brighton we noticed those of Azevedo, Alberto Zache, Norton, Mulhall, Miller, etc., etc.—bankers, merchants, brokers, diplomatists, editors. Half fashionable Buenos Ayres has gone to the sea-side, and we think that in view of the fact Carnaval might be continued for a week this month, as there will be no business, and the banks and the Bolsa might be practically shut.

The only really important news from Europe yesterday was Lord Salisbury's statement at a public meeting on Friday that England accepts the Monroe doctrine as laid down by President Monroe himself, not by some up-to-date Americans. Also that England is not going to make war on Turkey single-handed, at the risk of provoking a greater and more general calamity than the massacre of a comparatively few Armenians.

We hear that the wedding of Mr. George T. Crane and Miss Ethel Williamson will take place at St. John's Church next Tuesday, 4th instant, at 4 p.m.

The Scotch School will re-open tomorrow at 10 a.m. The usual tramcar will be in waiting at the Retiro for the pupils in that district.

We salute with hand, hat, and heart our new colleague L'Italiano edited by our old and esteemed colleague and friend, Dr. Basilio Cittadini, to whom we wish the most brilliant success, and feel certain that he will attain it.

The balance of immigration in favour of the country 'ast month was 7,841: at this rate the balance at the end of the year will foot up 100,000 souls. Argentina is fast emerging out of the crisis. The figures of last month are double those of the same month in every previous year since 1891.

A poor little fellow 2 years old was yesterday in Flores scalded to death through the upsetting of a saucepan of boiling milk.

The Court holds proven the charge brought against Mr. Jacob Peuser of having simply appropriated to himself for publication, the new Municipal Map of the City. The case has now been placed in the hands of the Criminal prosecutor.

Mr. Thursby inaugurates his Los Hornos Tramway line to-day with a grand blow-out worthy of the good old times. There will be lunch, games of all kinds, fireworks and a ball.. Bravo! Mr Thursby.

Two plucky Germans start from the Capital of Chile to-day to cross the Andes to Mendoza on bicyles. We hope they won't cross the Styx instead.

Jenner is beaten. A Japanese doctor named Mutsu has discovered that injections of carbolic acid into the parts affected are a sovereign cure for cancer. He has tried it with the greatest success.

We congratulate our aristocratic friends in Belgrano. We see that Mr. William Paats, the leading Dutch merchant, has accepted the post of Municipal in that pleasant suburb. We hope that one of his first efforts will be to supply better water for the locality.

Gentle Beer! The far-famed Cerveceria Quilmes supplied the market yesterday with a new brew—Crystall-Bier, a bitter beer of pleasant and refreshing taste in this hot weather. This new brew and a few bottles of Rhens mineral water man. age to keep one afloat in this dry weather.

In a Parisian omnibus an ill-bred male passenger made a grimace when a very stout old lady got in. "Hippopotamus?" he exclaimed under his breath, but so loudly that the old lady heard him. "Sir," she said, "you know an omnibus is like Noah's Ark; it takes in all the animals—even donkeys."

Our esteemed friends, the proud and haughty Dons, move slowly, but their steamers are quite up to date in the way they cut through the foaming wave. Whoever wants to get to venerable Europe in sixteen days should take passage in the Ciudad de Cadiz, which will sail tomorrow.

In reference to the complaint of a dozen fair subscribers in Belgrano as to their complexions being hopelessly ruined by having to wash them in well water, we are favoured with the following:—

Rosario, 31st Jan., 1896.

Dear STANDARD.

In answer to "Ruined Complexion's" letter, allow me to draw her attention and that of all users of hard water, to the "Californian Borax" prepared and sold by The Patent Borax Co., Limited, of Birmingham, England. In the year 1892, when I was at home, this company sold nine million penny packets of the article, which is a sufficient recommendation.

The Agents for this part of the world are Messrs. Blyth and Co., of Rosario and Buenos Aires. For softening water, preserving food, laundry and antiseptic purposes these Borax articles stand alone.

Yours, etc.,

Birmingham.

There was some disappointment in clerical circles yesterday on the official statement that for the present the Government has no intention of increasing the Argentine Episcopate by creating new bishoprics in La Plata, Tucuman and Santa Fe.

Lord Randolph Churchill, in his book on South Africa, mentions various things that might be done "if God had only given a glimmer of intelligence to the Boer."

A London medical expert says that an excellent test of whether or not a man is sober is to ask him to repeat the sentence, "The artillery extinguished the conflagration early."

Ladies and gentlemen, look out how you display your teeth, as your character can be accurately told by their shape and size. The following is the latest theory about grinders. The worst of it is that our Mar del Plata Secretary, Dr. McNally, or our equally eminent friends Drs. Mathieson, Newbery, Webster, Izard or any of their "gremio," can give a man a good character with a set of false teeth. "The size and shape of the teeth are an indication of character. Small, short, square teeth, when sound, are indicative of great bodily vigour and strength. They are rarely found in the mouth of an intellectual man. Many very vain women have noticeably long, narrow, fragile teeth. You need not look for much force from their possessors. Long projecting teeth denote a grasping disposition, especially when great breadth is seen at the upper part of the nose next the cheek. Usually long and narrow eye teeth are the accompaniment of a dog-like tenacity. People with these teeth sometimes curiously resemble dogs when they are angry, and show their teeth just as an enraged dog will—they snarl literally. They will often have long narrow hands, slender, tenacious fingers, and narrow feet. With a strong under jaw, projecting very slightly, and these long teeth, the subject will fight to the death before yielding: with a receding chin, the indications are ambition, self-conceit, and failure to really accomplish great things. Very resolute, determined women usually have strongly set teeth, but from a habit of compressing the lips, do not display them often. Almost all the men remarkable for energy and strength of will have this same cast of mouth and jaw—notably, Napoleon, Luther, Cæsar, and Frederick the Great. It is said that nearly all red-headed people gave rather short upper lips, rising in the centre, displaying the front teeth, and that they are singularly susceptible to flattery, and exhibit a great desire for approbation. Men of great resolution have frequently rather large teeth, with a development of the jawbone in the centre amounting to a projection and producing a noticeable fulness there. This characteristic is increased in the subjects who combine it with straight and rather long eyebrows. Arching eyebrows are always a sign of a more easily moved nature. Small, pointed teeth denote many unpleasant characteristics. When accompanied by near-sighted, round eyes, a pug or snub nose, and noticeably small and sometime very pretty ears, their owner will be found to possess many catlike attributes."

All our commercial friends will remember the Messageries steamer Orenoque, so many years on this route, and her popular Captain M. Frager. She has now been placed on the Syrian route, and last month at Marseilles, while making a trial trip after repairs, the unfortunate captain went down to the engine room, slipped, fell amongst the revolving machinery and was torn to pieces before the vessel could be stopped. A truly awful death.

All our German friends were talking yesterday of the scandal in Berlin, where a double-dyed Shylock named Pariser has been brought to book for fleecing several members of the aristocracy. In the course of the trial it came out that the Jew had terribly squeezed the Emperor himself when he was Crown Prince. The moment this was known, the Emperor ordered the whole case to be stopped and hushed up at once. Another piece of news from the city on the Spree is that Mr. Charles Day, United States Consul General there, has been promoted to be Minister Plenipo, vice the recent incumbent, deceased.

We have received an enormous batch of papers from Guatemala, which we will cheerfully lend without interest to any subscriber. There is not much news in them. No foreign Consul has been whipped in the republic for a long time. The price of such public amusement is too high—£12,000 per hiding, at least this is what the last two British Consuls there got for their sore backs. One of them was an Irishman, and he worked heaven and earth to get a second hiding at the same price, but failed, as the authorities had become wary.

A friend from Martinez F.C.C.A. assures us that one of the greatest misfortunes in life is to live along that line of railway. As a rule all encomiendas arrive broken at their destination, or if they reach safe are smashed by the peones at the station, whilst any passenger unfortunate enough to leave a package in any of the carriages may be perfectly certain that he will never hear of it again, the excuse given being invariably that some other passenger seized the package. This should be looked to at once, as we cannot for a moment doubt the veracity of our friend.

FASHIONS AND ACTUALITIES.

Last Sunday did you miss my correspondence? My dear readers, I should wish it so, but without having much hope.

The truth is that I was going to Mar del Plata, where one tries to amuse oneself in the best way possible. This is only by taking walks, excursions in the environs, "asados con cuero" and "sin cuero." I do not speak of the obligatory morning baths, dinners and balls in the evenings at the fashionable hotels. You can imagine that for such a life a very respectable array of all kinds of toilettes is necessary, and that one can almost avow that ladies, "dans le train," do nothing else than continually change their toilettes. And that is called sea-bathing!

Oh good gracious! We have not invented this singular manner of taking our ease, and our god-mothers in high-life in Europe are doing the same at Vichy, where they should more than anywhere else enjoy a Lent quietude! For finally it is the doctor's orders which sends them there, and it is really sick persons who assist at this rete, whilst we, on the contrary, are simply a little tired of the winter, and a few bottles direct from the Celestins or the Hopital springs are sufficient to restore our tum-tum surfeited with good living.

The real sufferers by this round of pleasure are the ladies' maids who have not the compensation of amusements and who have often during the day the difficult task of putting on "chefs d'oeuvres" of toilletes, without speaking of the bad humour of their mistresses when the dressmaker does not keep her word, or when the ladies themselves are not in a happy frame of mind.

The approaching Carnival will give even more animation than ever to the Argentine Trouville, a goodly number of families are expected to pass at the seaside these modern Saturnalian follies. Already certain ladies of my acquaintance have received from the Ciudad de Londres some mysterious trunks, from which will be extracted for this fete scrumptious costumes, and a profusion of Serpentines for intrigues and combats from the hotel-balconies. I myself was entrusted to buy up the existing stock at M. Brun's for the benefit of my friends there, and was delighted at my mission, as I had another opportunity of admiring the art with which this establishment Protée adapts itself to the wants of the season, renewing incessantly its marvellous assortment.

You would not believe me if I say that it is on your account that I went to Mar del Plata and...you would be right, but the truth is, that I find there something to interest you, my fair readers, particularly. You know Mr. Buzzo?—no—but yes! He is Mr. Colombo's partner whose chocolate you have ate so often; Oh! now you remember, the memory for dainties! Well? The first person who welcomed me there was Mr. B. So! If we want much Vichy water to digest all the chocolate we have eaten, he on his part requires a large number of sea-baths, to repose after all the dainties he has manufactured for us.

But the news! you are in a great hurry, Mesdames! It is all the better, because, I also, am the same. Well? He informs me that he and his partner intend opening at their "confiserie" corner of Esmeralda and Corrientes, a private saloon for ladies, where we will find everything in apple-pie order, as well as all kinds of refreshments, and where we shall also have a chance of tasting some excellent chocolate and ices in the afternoon, like at the best houses in the city.

One always learns something...travelling.

	Gold Premium.
FIRST RING	217.50%
SECOND RING.....	217.50%

The gold bears scored again this morning. They came down upon the market with very large amounts of gold for cash and on time; the bullish line wavered, and down went the premium, the contango holding out stubbornly at three points for end of the month.

The majority in the market watch the fall in gold with surprise and distrust. They fail to see the plausibility of the arguments trumped up to explain the fall, and they cling to their gold though they may have to pay 1% per month to hold on. The market is to-day in pretty much the same condition as in the beginning of last year, when the market pulled one way and speculators tugged away in the opposite direction; the latter won the day, and they are again at the same game.

About four hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands for cash at the first ring; the premium opened at 218.50%, fell headlong to 217.20%, and closed at 217.50% flat. A quarter of a million was sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 220%, fell to 219.50%, rose, and closed at 220.50%. Eighty thousand dollars were sold for next Saturday at cash rates more or less. Business for the fortnightly settlement exceeded one hundred thousand dollars, the premium closing at 218.50%. A fair amount of business was done for the end of March; the premium opened at 223.50%, rose to 224%, and closed at 223%. Something was done for end of April at 225 and 225.50%. and for end of May at 227 % premium. The turn-over in gold at the first ring was over a million gold dollars..

National Cedulas F ruled firm at 79.50 to 79.70, very little done. La Plata Cedulas were dead-and-alive at 17.20. A small amount of Spanish Bank shares changed hands at 106. Two hundred shares of that flourishing concern the La Argentina paper factory were sold at 110 and 112. Catalinas were neglected at 3.10.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

$ 371,000 for cash at 318.50-318-318.20-318-317.80-50-80-318--317.60--50-80-50-30-50-60-70-50-30-20 30-30-50-40-317.50.

The London Statist of 11th ult. deals in the following cruel fashion with the Uruguayan Government, its little Loan, and its pet hobby—the State Bank:—

"If it be really true, as the Uruguayan President in his Message to the Legislature states, that influential London bankers have agreed to lend him a million sterling in gold for the purpose of founding a State Bank, we strongly advise our readers to have nothing to do with the transaction; and we earnestly hope that City opinion will be so strongly pronounced against it that it will be impossible to place the bonds. There is an allegation that the bankers in question have concluded the negotiations because they have obtained a settlement in regard to the Western Railway—or rather that the conclusion of the negotiations was one of the terms for making the settlement. Whether that be so or not we do not know. But in any case this loan ought not to succeed in London.

"According to the President's Message, it is proposed to found a Government Bank with the proceeds of the loan, which is to yield a million sterling in gold. The loan is to bear 5 or 6 per cent. interest—the exact rate is not settled—and there is to be a sinking fund of 1 per cent., while the price of issue is to be in proportion to the market price of the existing Uruguayan debt. The whole thing, it will be seen, is as vague as it well can be. That, however, is a matter for the Uruguayan people. The main points of interest to the British investor are:—firstly, that the loan is for the purpose of starting a State Bank; secondly, that the issuers of the loan are to have no part whatsoever either in founding the bank or in controlling it afterwards; and, thirdly, that Uruguayan capitalists have refused to have anything whatsoever to do with the bank. We need hardly remind our readers that State Banks all over South America have been dismal failures; that they contributed powerfully to the financiul disasters from which the South American countries have suffered. Consequently, if British investors subscribe to this loan they are not merely doing a foolish thing, but they are doing it with their eyes open and with abundant warning.

"The country is doing fairly well, but the Government is as bad as it well can be. It is corrupt and incompetent. The taxation has recently been increased, though it was already too high. And now an attempt is being made to start once more extravagant borrowing. Everybody knows by past experience what extravagant borrowing leads to, and if investors lend they will richly deserve their fate."

The exchange market ruled a shade firmer to-day; more bills were offered and rates were hard at:—

48 ¼ d. on London.
5.09 fcs. on France.
5.10 fcs. on Belgium.
4.12 ½-4.13 mks. on Germany.

Paper discounts were quoted in stiff demand to-day at 8% ; gold discounts were nominal at 7%.

Telegrams from Rio Janeiro quoted exchange on London to-day at 9 1|16d.

Telegrams from London this morning announced a fresh rise in Argentine securities. Great Southern Railway stock is up to 125. The Funding Bonds are again near their old top quotations in the neighborhood of 78.

The Produccion Argentina points out the want of storage in La Plata. Our collaborateur, Mr Carlos Lix Klett, is perfectly right in saying that we have superabundant produce, but no means to transport it. There are piles of cereals outside, which would startle the stranger, and if he asks how it is that you don't forward them to Buenos Aires, the only answer is—no waggons. In the meantime the people who suffer most are the colonists, there they are, with no banks, stores sending in their accounts, and no money to meet their bills with. This country must be very young when it allows its principal resource viz., agriculture, to decline for want of funds. The poor farmer does all he can, but his progress meets with every obstacle; first, the want of transport; secondly, when he is able to place his produce in the ports, he finds no deposits, and his corn is left to the inclemency of the weather. Wonderful country; notwithstanding all these "contretemps," the farmer works on undaunted, with the full conviction that if affairs are bad to-day they will change to-morrow. The Produccion Argentina does well in describing these circumstances, and nobody will thank it more than those farmers who have suffered for want of storage.

The Queen Province is showing the way in more lines than one. Don Narcisco has weeded out the garden so thoroughly that the petty officials have reluctantly relinquished the cherished perquisites of office, convinced that the times are now so changed that instead of fostering malpractices they are rigorously expected to ferret them out and denounce them—an evolution that only those who know the crooked ways of camp justice can thoroughly appreciate. It is a very grateful change. The estancieros realise it to the full, and the good example is so contagious, than in Santa Fé the chief of police is emulating Don Narciso, stirring up the police to a keener sense of its duties and obligations than was ever known there before. There have been undoubtedly chiefs of police as active, righteous and jealous as Don Narciso, but none of them had the divine foresight to grasp where justice halted, and drive the nail home.

We have so frequently alluded to the defective state of the mining code, that it is a pleasure to hail any attempt at correction. Strange to say, Buenos Aires is responsible for the lead, although where its mines are it would be hard to say. Dr. Joaquin Gonzalez, the well known litterateur, has been asked to revise the actual code. When his task is done, we shall have the curious condition of Buenos Aires with a code and without mines, and the other provinces in the contrary mood—lots of mines and no code that a practical man would look at without developing a huge smile. Mining will be an unknown quantity here until individual enterprise is protected as it is in Australia, the Cape and United States, the great gold producing countries of the universe.

The report and balance sheet of the Banco Popular of Mercedes was handed round to-day, and is an extremely interesting document, shewing the very important role that these banks now play in the development of their respective districts, as their sphere of action is strictly limited to the locality they are intended to serve. This Mercedes bank is very much in point. Only four years working, and with a modest capital of $394,000, the shareholders have already received in dividends 51 % of their capital, besides an allotment of $120,000 put to reserve, allowances for deterioration of fittings, bad debts, etc. It shows the solution of a very important problem, working out very favourably, and we congratulate our old friend, Don Nicholas Lowe, the president, on the brilliant success of the institution. As to the year just ended, the discounts figure at $746,330, and deposits $652,348, items that speak for themselves as to the hold the bank has taken. The profits, after making more than due allowance for different debts, stand at $55,679, which allows a distribution of $6 on the fully paid-up shares, representing interest at the rate of 12 % per annum. The more we see of these local banks, the more rooted grows the conviction that properly and prudently managed, they are far more useful to the country than the big central banks that throw out feeble feelers, unable to grasp the wants of the districts they serve. They may not be towers of strength, but even giants have fallen—and fallen badly.

Our tireless Southern peripatetic arrived in again to-day with a well stored note book, though curiously enough, he reports things very dull, quiet in the South, no stir in anything. The fair at the Saladillo drew few buyers, due to being the first of the series, and in all about 5,000 dollars changed hands. Lobos announces its fair for 7th and 10th. Tremendous movement in maize all along the time, says our correspondent, and Mr. Bliceman, the sectional inspector is continually on the move trying to keep pace with the tremendous demand for waggons. On the Navarro—25 de Mayo extension the works are being pushed ahead very actively. Mr. Barrow himself having paid a visit to see that everything was going on well. At Loberia there is a splendid maize crop, though it has not been got in yet; but for this the farmers would be like Micawber, shattered towers, as they have had nothing but loss on loss for years, the late rains having just come in time to put them on their legs. With regard to wheat crop sowed 65 hectares of barletta and reaped 1278 fanegas or say 20%, most of the farmers having got from 15 to 17%. Camps and animals are in splendid order, steers having changed hands during the past few months at $42 gold, the weight running to 700 kilos on average, whilst wethers run to 65 and 70 kilos.

The firm of Bossio and Camuyrano are buying up all the pears they can get hold of, which they are exporting to Brazil. This is a turn in the right direction, as we produce such an enormous quantity of fruit that we are unable to eat. The initiative started by these gentlemen will soon be taken up by others.

Our old friend Don Domingo Cichero was welcomed to-day on his return from the "bel paese" where he has spent a lengthy vacation. He brings with him "saudades" from Pollinini, Maccio, and many friends in Italy who are keenly watching the development of affairs here, more especially as the purchase of Italian iron-clads and cruisers has become quite a feature of our trade relations with Italy.

The London papers call attention to an interesting article in the December issue at the Journal of the Royal Agricultural Society on the cultivation of alfalfa or lucerne in Argentina. The article is from the pen of Mr Herbert Gibson, and at leisure we shall reproduce the chiefs points of this instructive paper. We see in the London papers that farmers are paying attention to the improved prices of rams of late owing to the purchases, principally of Lincoln rams, for Argentine account. Other journals look to Argentina to supply England with food in the event of war: in fact the British press is full of Argentina at present. In the political articles the attitude of this country is a subject of query; in London they do not believe that Argentina would accept the Cleveland interpellation of the Monroe Doctrine.

A correspondent from Tucuman sends us the following mems:—"The San Cristobal line in combination with the Rosario Co. carried during last year 27,378 tons cargo, mainly consisting of lumber and sugar, a large proportion being in "intercambio" with the F.C. Noroeste Argentino. The export of oranges is rapidly making headway, having ready markets in Cordoba and Santa Fé, this business being a very recent one, not yet three years old. The leading lumber merchants seem satisfied with the measures (prepaid freights) taken by the Rosario line, as this will prevent agglomeration at the Retiro, since the small holders, who formerly dispatched on chance of getting a buyer, will now be unable to operate on this line except with sales already effected. The importance of the business can be gauged from the fact that the lumber exports per annum run to over 1 million dollars, of which no less thad 40% are eaten up by the first and other expenses."

The news from Cordoba, rural Cordoba, is that the farmers are heart sick with the poor yield of the crops—much poorer than they ever supposed, as only when the machines were working the true estimate could be arrived at. Now there is a disposition not to sell—to hold back until the failure in the crops generally begins to tell on prices, by driving all those that have contracts to fill in the market. The hail and locusts and frost have made the farmers' history a very sorry one.

The Italian Bank of Uruguay has presented the Report for the 2nd half-year of 1895. The period, it says, has been characterised by an extreme paralysation of business and a reduction of interest almost to European rates. The profits for the half-year amount to $82,026.80, and there were no losses. After necessary deductions there is an available balance of $51,882.77 which it is proposed to distribute as follows—80% to the shareholders, being $2 each on the 18,346 shares in circulation, $38,082;—14% for amortisation of shares $6771.00;—5% to the Directors, $2418.25;—1% to the Italian Hospital, $483.60; Balance carried forward, $3,517.77. The retiring Directors, all eligible for reelection, are Sres: A. Fravega, V. Stajano, A. Pastori, and A. Talice.

Gold ruled steady, but very dull at the second ring. About a quarter of a million changed hands. Business for Monday delivery did not amount to eighty thousand dollars; the premium opened at 217.40%, rose to 217.80%, and closed at 217 ½ %. Sixty five thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 220%, rose to 220 ¼ %, and closed at 220%. Something was done for March at 223 ½ %, and for April at 225% premium. Stocks and shares were neglected.

Mr. Pinsuti's contract for repairing the fallen-in wharves on the Riachuelo has been rescinded by Government.

The Engineers' Department has asked the Government for funds to carry on teh waterworks at Rioja.

The Governor of Santiago del Estero has asked the Minister of the Interior "to advance" the funds voted by Congress for Canalization in that province. Rather a suspicious request from such a notoriously hard-up quarter.

Serious complaints from merchants in Rosario have reached the Finance Minister in reference to the despatch and valuation of Samples. The Post Master General recommends as a solution of the case, that where there are Cussom Houses the Administrators of same should be athority in the matter, and where there are not, the post masters,

The news from La Plata to-day would have had the effect of a bomb-shell in the market but that many refused to give credence to such an outlandish rumour, as the Liga Agraria advising Governor Udaondo to revive Cromwell and the Rump—dissolve the Chambers and call new elections. The Liga Agraria, it must be borne in mind, is the quintessence of conservativism, being the landlord collectivity, and that they should recommend such a course is preposterous. It would be out-Heroding Herod. The difficulty is that the Chambers are at a dead lock with the Executive and will not vote the Budget, but so long as the Legislature is within its privileges we imagine Governor Udaondo to be the last man capable of personating 'Crummle' and the Liga Agraria the least likely body to urge him to it. Perhaps the whole thing is a joke, but it comes from very serious quarters.

Costa Torres, reports the following sales: 1,350 Lincoln wethers, 60 kilos and upwards, from the Simons' estancia, Estacion Vieytes, at $11 each, placed in waggons; also, 130 mestizo steers. 600 kilos and upwards, from the Ferrer estancia at Guerrero station. at $100 each.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

If affairs were slow on the bolsa thes were slower still in our marketh Circumstances did not change for the better, prices were firm but operationd were slack For the first of the monty this strikes us as peculiar, and when we take into consideration the telegrams from London referring to cereals, and those from Antwerp on wool, we are perfectly astonished that operations should be so dull. Every day we hear of large shipments ot maize, but this is only to fill outstanding contracts. Prices for maize and wheat are firm as ever; the other day 3.80 was asked for maize; the price was considered as exorbitant, to-day they stand out for 4 dollars, and refuse to let go under this price. Wheat holders of French classes will not let go under 8 dollars. A parcel of 1,000 bags of barletta was sold at 7.90, some other sales were reported, but we do not know if the prices asked were paid.

Operations in wool were slow, three or four fine parcels are on the markets, but the prices asked by the consignatarios drive the artistas away. The telegrams from Antwerp report combed wool, "type B," at 4.15 francs. That's the style, let us have wool as high as you choose. At present we have 18,000,000 kilos on hand.

The arrivals at the Central Market were over 700,000 kilos, the sales reached 400,000 kilos; at this rate our markets will continue filling without any outlet, to equalise the affairs our sales should be at least a million kilos per diem.

The big sale of the day was the parcel from the Cabaña, El Rosario, belonging to Mr. Arias. The wool is so fine that it can bear comparison with any wool from Australia. These wools, which have attracted so much attention from foreign buyers, is more or less what we call "Sajonia."

The principal sales were to-day as follows:—

CENTRAL MARKET.

Cross Lincoln wool—10000 kilos at 9.90, 5000 do 9.80, 6000 do 9.40, 7000 do at 9.20.

The increase in our live stock exporting trade is well marked in the following cutting from an exchange:—

"The demand existing in Argentina for cattle and sheep for breeding purposes well deserves the serious attention of English breeders of these classes of stock. Mr. Herbert Gibson, the Agricultural Commissioner of the Province of Buenos Ayres, and a member of a firm largely engaged in the import and export of live stock, says that there is, perhaps, no better market than Argentina for the British breeder of first-class bulls and rams, and the presence of Argentine buyers at English sales has served to enhance very considerably the value of pedigree stock for meat-producing countries. In 1894 over £30,000 worth of live stock was exported to Argentina, the values in sheep being more than 50 per cent. of total amount represented by exports of sheep from the United Kingdom. The year 1895 shewed a marked increase, and for certain breeds, such as shorthorn cattle and Lincoln sheep, the Argentines represent over 80 per cent. of the whole foreign purchasing community. Up to September 30, of 171 certificates for bulls and 41 for cows and heifers, granted by the Shorthorn Society to exporters, 154 bulls and 23 cows and heifers were for shipment to Argentina. The export trade of live bullocks and wethers for sale and slaughter in the United Kingdom, has developed so rapidly that the Argentine Republic now ranks third as an exporting country of live bullocks and second as an exporter of sheep.

The business to-day in Rosario showed a great decline, every day large consignments are arriving, but this does not affect the markets, as the greater part has already been contracted for. From the customs reports we see that over a million kilos of wheat has been despatched during the two past days.

The paralyzation in prices does not frighten holders, on the contrary they look at the present state with one eye shut, the other standing out for a rise. The Rosario markets must of course feel the effects of the fall in the gold premium in Buenos Aires, perhaps it is felt more here than in that market; with all this we are still convinced that the heavy rains have more to do with the question than the fall in premium.

The great reserve for our cereals is, that supposing the North American wheat does not meet with a satisfactory yield, large demand with all fall on our markets. The real price ruling for wheat here is from 7 to 7.10. The sales were as follows; 500 tons to be delivered before the 15th February at 7.05 and 3000 bags at 7.10; another sale of 300 tons was done at 6.90. Good parcels of wheat are always picked up from 7 to 7.10. Maize has evidently gone to the dogs, not even the "consumo" operates, leaving the export quite aside; the news from Buenos Aires report large sales, we are at our wits' end to know why such stagnation should reign here. The prices in linseed have fallen from 10.00 to 9.70; consignatarios are unable to account for this collapse; their only opinion is that holders of stock on hand refuse to sell at the rates offered by exporters. Not a single sale worthy of notice was made, the situation strikes us as peculiar in Buenos Aires; and in Europe the demand is stiff and prices firm, this ought to reflect on our markets, but it does not; we never noticed transactions so slack as this year.

The operations in Montevideo show no change in wheat. The millers are the principal buyers, but they refuse to buy at the rates to-day; exporters hold back; they are not evidently in the current.

The sales were about 2,000 bags, at prices ranging from 1.30 to 2.80; the sales were so small that we do not think them worthy of mention.

In the saladero line the following was effected; a large hide sale was made at private conditions up to the 15th of this month. In tallow the following was reported: 200 bordalesas from Messrs. P. San Martin and Sons at a reserved price; 200 do from Messrs. Mouret at 9.05 and 200 pipes from Messrs. A. Santa Maria and Co. at 9.76 the 100 kilos.

The German steamer San Nicolas has been chartered to load 6,000 cow hides at 30 marks per 100 kilos.

Business in wool fell off this evening; "artistas" were not in a humour to settle contracts; the markets suffered for this, both demand and prices fell; a parcel of 3,000 Goñi fetched 2.55, 6,000 kilos from Nico Perez at 2.35; besides this some 28,000 kilos were sold at prices from 2.00, 2.10 to 2.50.

"The bright, moving picture of the country's trade, commerce and production on the opening year consoles us with the conviction that its future is superior to human error and independent of individual influence."

The above lines, caved from THE STANDARD of 3rd inst., are the true expression of our sentiments respecting the present position and expected future of the country, if we are to judge from what has occurred to us, as a minute fraction in its common wealth, during the year that has expired, and the hopeful advent of the new one on which we have entered.

If we take our branch of trade, and instance our business in particular, we have to admit that the prospects as regards the country at large are not at all exaggerated in the transcript we have made us of, as the increase in our concern has been beyond our most sanguine expectations during the old year, and, on the eve of the new one, promise is given of a very satisfactory augmentation.

To keep pace, therefore, with this hopeful state of affairs we have made ample provision, and our stock, which is always kept in adequate supply, will be periodically increased with every novelty to meet the increasing requirements of the year.

A solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of the late Edward Casey, of Arroyo Luna, will be celebrated in the Parish Church of Salto, on the 7th of February, at 10 a.m. Friends and relatives are invited to attend. 1454 j31 f7

The Venus and Golondrina from Montevideo and the Comercio from Salto and Saturno from Asuncion are expected to-morrow in the South Basin.

The Olympo leaves the South Basin to-morrow for Asuncion, the Rivadavia for Salto, Venus for Montevideo and Lafayette for Carmelo.

The Tridente is expected to-morro from Salto,

The Venus and Tridente leaves to-morrow for Montevideo.

GENERAL.

The Madonna del Carmen from Patagones is expected to-morrown in the Boca; she is posted to leave again for the same port on the 8th instant.

The Spanish gun-boat Temerario should leave for Montevideo to-morrow.

The Ciudad de Cadiz also leaves the Madero port to-morrow for Cadiz and Barcelona.

The R.M.S. Danube has arrived safely at Southampton.

The Highland Mary is expected to arrive here to-morrow from Liverpool also the Solferino from Genoa and on Monday the Cordoba from Hamburg.

Bills of health were issued to-day to the following vessels:—Hippomenes bound for Liverpool, Sola do, Tucuman for Hamburg, Capri for Santos, Bellarena for Rio, Ciudad de Cadiz for Cadiz, Etona for New York, and Velleda for Dunkirk.

The steam-launch Tomasito B., which for some months had been engaged in carrying provisions to vessels in the roads, foundered yesterday just after she had come along the Dutch steamer Leonor, which had shortly before anchored in the roads. The cause of the disaster was the breakage of her screw, which made so much water to enter her hull that she sank in half an hour, notwithstanding every effort made by the crew of the Leonor.

The wreck lies N. E. of the hospital-pontoon Rodolfo del Viso.

Estancieros are loath to believe that the price of steers has so fallen in England as to make it impossible for shippers to pay the artificial prices paid here in November and early in December. Misled by the dire necessity of shippers who are bound almost at any price to fill ships chartered six weeks ago, they are still labouring under the false idea that shippers are merely attempting to combine against them in order to pocket larger profits. Such pretensions as $100, $110, and even $128, or say $40 gold, are freely heard, when $60 to $70 is the current prices in the "corrales" for the same animals when compelled to be offered for sale. This is hardly an exaggeration. Until old contracts have been worked off such fabulous sums as those still asked may in isolated cases be paid, but they are na guide to the present value of animols and "invernadores" will find it necessary in a few weeks' time either to accept $60 and $70 or else remain with their steers on their hands till next summer, when euen then in all probability they will at last have to succumbe.
