EDITOR'S TABLE.

The 'Iniciador' arrived yesterday from the Uruguay; her news will be found in another column. Mr. Dowse's office was crowded yesterday with guns, drums and bugles for the troops at Zarate.

wrecked off Santa Catalina. The crew we believe was saved, but we fear the cargo lost. Congress has just passed the law permitting the President to go when he likes, either in or out of the Republic. There was no discussion whatever in the house on the passing of the law—it was voted "nem con."

time in the Laguna de los Andes... partner of our landlord, Sr. Lezama, and played a very conspicuous part in River Plate affairs previous to 1858.

without even paying my accustomed visit to that drug saloon. The cold was fearful, portable pocket-stoves have not yet been introduced; but if this freezing weather continues I intend to apply to Government for a patent.

People have been so buoy with the 'funclon' that there is little else talked of. I am told that Government has given orders to tow down the hull of the Villa del Salto, and the remains of this fine steamer are expected here today or to-morrow.

A sword of honor is talked of for Colonel Manduca Carabajal, but the rumour is that he would prefer a silver medal; as yet there is nothing done about the subscription. The great concert for the 25th of May is about to be postponed in consequence of some of the lady singers suffering from colds, and one or two of the musical English clerks, not having had time to practice. It will probably take place on the 30th inst.

THE MAILS FROM CHILE.

THE REBELLION IN PERU. THE COUNTER-REVOLUTION IN BOLIVIA. We have received the 'Ferro Carril' and 'Mercurio' of Chile to the 14th ult. with dates from Peru to March 30th.

ROSARIO AND THE PROVINCES.

The 'Cosmopolita' of the 18th has little but news from the Interior. By private letters we learn that a grand ball in celebration of the Central Argentine Railway was to come off under the superintendence of Mrs. Consul Hutchinson, at the Jardin de Recocho.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

The steamer Iniciador arrived from Concordia yesterday evening with news that Gen. Caeceres at the head of 2,000 men surprised 6,000 Paraguayans at Rincon on the night of the 13th, killing 500, and recovering 3,000 head of cattle.

LONDON.

(From our special correspondent.) April 7. Dwelling on the outskirts of the modern Babylon, from my window I behold the great dome of St. Paul's surmounted by a gilded cross, rising far and away above clouds of murky smoke.

LATEST FROM PERU.

Lima, March 30th. Vice-President Diez Canseco has taken refuge in the American Legation. Basagortea was arrested last night. Two naval commanders have been seized as conspirators, also Major Gonzalez.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE PROCLAIMED.

SPEECH OF THE GOVERNOR. The magnificent ceremony which took place here to day has had such an impression on me that I feel disposed to moralize. The torch of liberty, about which we have all heard and read so much, has been as it were rekindled in this city.
