THE OLD MAN'S DARLING.

A short time ago, says the Cork Herald, we chronicled an act of commendable courage and humanity on the part of a young man named Ennis, at Queenstown, and on Saturday last, while waiting for one of the vessels of the line to sail, he was the subject of a large group of emigrants who were awaiting the launch of the "Missions" at the pier.

AMERICA.

The following extracts from a letter in the New York Times will be read with interest:—"Washington, Wednesday, May 10, 1865.

"You will be glad to know that the sanguine reports of Surgeon-General Barnes concerning Secretary Seward are fully justified by the facts. He is recovering steadily and rapidly. Indeed, his general system is as sound, and his general health as good as ever.

THE EDMUNDS SCANDAL AND THE BROUGHAMS.

THE UPS AND DOWNS IN THE LIFE OF A THOROUGHREED.

Although the high-priced Kangaroo, says Dr. Lyle, was defeated for the Two Thousand Guinea, the history of his dam, Yarra Yarra—who has recently been brought forward as a candidate in consequence of her high-priced ancestors—forms a curious romance, that it is worth a brief review, even at the risk of somewhat diverging from our direct narrative.
