LETTERS TO JULY 1st. Esquina, June 29th 1865. Gentlemen:

Emigrants are leaving our village anxious to see their forsaken establishments. I fear many will find very little property, others nothing: one of our guests, a fugitive from the coast of Santa Lucia, with a large family had reached his home. A month ago he was in easy circumstances. He writes me that upon his return he could not discover any trace of property whatever save the bare walls of his house. He complains bitterly of the doings of his own countrymen as well as of the invaders: the Paraguayans visited his estancia, then the Corrientes army, and finally the vagabonds of the country The iron gratings of the windows of his house wrenched from the walls and caried away, his carts minus, corrals made use of for firewood, the doors and off the bolts locks, and hinges, not an animal was to be found in the camp. he concludes the epistle thus. "Cuando abandoné mi Estancia dejé un numereso rodeo de hacienda vacuna, caballos, yeguas, ovejas y una casa bien arreglada. Cuando regresé, nada encontré, absolutamente nada, ni un ammal en el campo ó cosa alguna en mi ga de maiz." The Brazilian steamers are at a little distance below Corrientes; they are short of coal and stores, their force,1,209 men distributed in the fleet to feed to say nothing of the fagitives in the Gran Chaco that have been supplied with food by them. towns of England, the highest aristo of moderate a figure as not to assume the place of a tax. A 'guia' should not cost more than ten dollars, but we believe the present charge is forty or fifty dollars, which is, we insist, altogether too high. In Salto there seems no escaping taxation, for even the very grave is taxed: we see 'sepulturas,' burials, yield $1,000 mpc.

Then again 'patentes,' i.e., licenses, are marked at the enormous sum of $10,000. Now really for a small town bilks Salto, that city being hung like Salto, to wring from the unfortunate dealers and shopkeepers such a tax, seems to us most improper. But the most ludicrous feature of this report is, that the items which should yield a revenue give nothing; for instance, 'Contribucion Directa' only news of the enemy is, that the items which should yield a revenue give nothing; for instance, 'Contribucion Directa' only news of the enemy is, that the items which should yield a revenue give nothing; for instance, 'Contribucion Directa' only news of the enemy is, that the items which direct the proporties of England, the lightest aristo cracy of the United Kingilom and the Executive Committee.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO. No. 103 Unite de Cangalio. BUENOS AYRES.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emperiums of the River Plate. Montevides and Buenes Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in inhich they place the most confidence.

The Bark of Mana and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerke, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally increased in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in letteries, and other frivoilities.

The Bank of Mana and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now after the swine facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m. till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Tenam, to Twelve m., for the reception of the eavings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former cose the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mana and Co. is sofficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The wank of Mana and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.
