NEWS BUDGET.

A Dangerous Bridge.—On Wednesday morning one of the largest bridges was about to pass over the St. George's (Surrey Canal) Bridge, at Camberwell, when she came in contact with the iron railing of the arch. It was nearly an hour before she was disengaged, and the canal was either up or down the canal was suspended during the time.

Andrew Johnson has been dubbed 'L.I.D.' by Columbia College, U.S. One of the journals says: "No doubt Andy will write a very clever acknowledgment of the honour, while he will pile it away among his pardon papers, and give a general amnesty to his wife, whose assistance towards his earlier studies has been acknowledged."

The Election Riots at Rotherham.—The examination before the Rotherham magistrates of the fifty-seven prisoners charged with rioting at the election, was brought to a close on Thursday. The bench committed twenty-three for trial to the Assizes, bound over to the peace for six months, bound twenty-one on their own recognisances only, and discharged the remainder.

A Village nearly Destroyed by Fire.—The village of Montrou, Savoy, has been almost totally destroyed by fire, caused by the imprudence of allowing a child to play with a lucifer match, which, being lighted, the flames spread with extraordinary rapidity, and in a short time thirty-seven houses and twenty-four barns were entirely consumed.

The Crops in the United States.—Encouraging reports says the New York Herald, reach us from all portions of the country. In the west the wheat crop will be much more than an average yield, and the prospects for corn are highly favourable.

A Novel Action for Twopenny.—An application was made on Tuesday morning, at the Sheriff's Court, in a case in which a man, named Henry, was suing for the sum of twopenny. The particulars of the demand set forth that the claim was for money had and received from the plaintiff by the defendant as the first class passenger on a steamship.

Assault with a Gun.—On Friday an action for assault was brought by M. Duguid against M. Hug—two French glass-blowers employed at Chance's Glass Works, West Bromwich, at the Oxford Assizes, the object being to recover damages for a personal injury.

A Gentleman Drowned while Bathing.—The water-gate of Aberdeen was the scene of a melancholy accident, which terminated in the death of a young English gentleman, seemingly about twenty-eight years of age, who was on a pleasure tour, had come from Edinburgh in the forenoon, and, after rambling about the vicinity, had met two other English gentlemen, who were on a similar excursion.

Prize Money.—The Lottery gives notice that the distribution of the tonnage bounty, &c., of a slave ship, G. name unknown, captured March 11, 1863, by her Majesty's Ship Ariel, will commence on the 15th inst., at Somerset-house.
