

THE WAR IN THE NORTH

Mr. Thornton to Earl Russell. B. Ayres, April 24th, 1865.

In my despatch of the 12th instant I had the honour to inform your Lordship of a rumour which was then current in Buenos Ayres...

The exploit was doubtless a barbarous one, and the news created, as may be supposed, great irritation and excitement.

The provocation given by President Lopez seemed so extraordinary that it was believed he must count upon some co-operation and assistance from what is called the Federal party in the Argentine Republic...

The Government are likewise taking the most energetic measures for forming an army; 1,500 men were dispatched yesterday up the River Paraná...

For some days it has been rumoured that a Paraguayan force had also taken possession of the town of Corrientes...

Edward Thornton.

On Friday the British steamer Lill made a trip to Ensenada, having on board a party composed of Mr. Beatty, attached to the firm of Messrs. Brassey and Co., of London...

The party returned at 7 p.m., all pleased, not only with the trip, but with the evident capabilities of Ensenada to become the shipping port of Buenos Ayres.

Knowing your readiness to wield your powerful pen in the defence of justice, and in fearlessly exposing all abuses, I venture to call public attention through the medium of your very valuable paper to one of the most dastardly acts of brutality heard of for many years.

Now the poor fellow not understanding them very well, and not wishing to be robbed of his horses, professed he did not know what they wanted...

To the above stated facts many of the neighbours can testify, as well as can your Humble servant M.

The spring meeting will take place on the 1st of November, and the programme will be published to-morrow. We understand that there is no scarcity of good horses.

ON 'CHANGE.

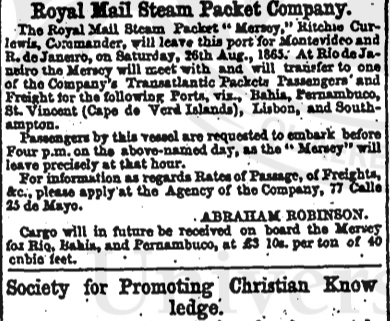

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes entries for Paper price of ounces, Do. do. sovereigns, First price of patacons, etc.

The victory of the Yatay had its effect on specie. Patacons fell almost as if broken believed every captured Paraguay had one hundred patacons in his pocket.

The news from the seat of war has revived confidence, and on 'Change all believe that the next news we have from Concordia will be the annihilation of the Paraguayan army at Uruguayans.
