We have received the following wool circular by the packet, dated Liverpool, 22nd December, 1865 :---

No new feature in wool the last fortnight Stocks of River Plate kinds are small, and transactions on a limited scale : the tone of the marke s healthy, and prices are firmly maintained. On the 15th inst. 3,500 bales Montovideo and

Buenos Avres, were offered at Havre by auction

In the United States mestizo as well as domestic wool were (up to the 9th inst.) very dull at 10 to 15 per cent, below the rates current is October.

Another steamer has been placed on the Mon evidean route, the Tevere, a first-rate boat, and laily mails from Montevideo.

We notice during the past week numerous failares of shopkeepers in this city, they were in the rotail business, and the heaviest creditors are the auctioneers, some of whom are in for large mounts.

A Semi-annual meeting of the shareholders of the Socorros Mutuos, a Spanish Insurance Company, was to have been held in Montev dee on last Sunday: we understand the affairs of the Com any are in a most prosperous condition.

Messrs. Folmar and Carrego, assignces of the bankrupt firm of Civillari and Co. have published a notice that they are prepared to pay a dividend, we don't know how much.

The Mary Jessie, from Lafone's saladero, Goyo has arrived in Montevideo with a cargo of bone and bone-ash and three thousand arrobes of salt beef. We are glad to see that the jerked beef business is going out of fashion.
