THE PROVINCIAL BANK.

It is remarkably easy to raise a clamor in Buenos Ayres, and Messis Cornac and Legout, two French writers of our city press, are victoriously riding the whirlwind of their own ideas, having arrived at the grand dis covery that the Casa de Moneda is all but insolvent. We are inclined to be lieve there are some parties, who may have been refused money by the Bank taking advantage of the Cornac controversy, as we learn that on Friday some of the peops and orange-sellers of the Boca went to withdraw their deposits, and it is even said that emis saries, have been sent to various parts of the camp with the view of circular ting alarming reports. As we have frequently taken occasion to condemn the monstrous privileges and mono poly of the Casa de Moneda, and the evils of an unredeemable currency, i excites our surprise that the French paper and M. Cornac did not then side with us especially in the effort to pro cure the right of emission for the other Banks. But these very privileges and monopoly are an additional security for the Casa de Moneda, and as long as we cannot force them to give us gold for its paper we can see no danger of the Bank breaking.

The nett profit of the Bank, last year, exceeded 17 millions mpc, and its capital is at present over 50 millions shewing that it never was on a more This fellow, hardly 24 years of age, prosperous footing than to day. Its mortgage securities are far beyond the amount of its deposits, and no greater proof of public confidence can be cited than the fact that specie-certificates are in actual circulation among our merchants to the amount of 950,000 hard dollars. As the Bank-profits belong to no one, but to the entire public, the Directors might to-morrow burn the 17 millions gained last year. without prejudice to anyone and leaving the Bank on as solid a basis as at the beginning of 1865. But the riches o the Bank are turned to better account by being applied to the exigencies o commerce, and as this depends on the Board of Directors, who are perfectly ijustified in following their own judgment, refusing money to even a man of superior talent without real proc perty, and giving to one of obscure intellect who possesses withal every security, it only remains for the public to enquire who are these Directors? and we venture to say a more respectable board than the present never saf in the Bank-parlor.

YOUR AGENT.

ARGENTINE GLEANINGS.

To Thomas Hutchinson Esq., Consul Rosario, Santa Fé.

College San José de Flores, Feb. 23, 1866.

In your book entitled 'Argentine Gleanings' &c., I find in the third chap ter the following statement. "At Lobos, one of the Southern Parti los of Buenos Ayres and situated about twenty five leagues from the capital, a college was established in November 1862. Its principal was Dr. Fitzsimon. This establishment was founded by the Irish Sheep-farmers who subscribed 90,000 dollars [say from .CS00 to .C900] for its erection." Now in reference to this I have to observe that I established college in Lobos in the year you state—and that I remained there for twelve months; so far your statement is correct-but in saying that this College which I conducted was founded by Irish Sheep-farmers and that they way of donation from any man either in South America or Europe-You are too clever a man to make such a statement as this without authority and other points from more reliable sources I am not even aware that there is in existence in this province an Irish College, that is a college erected by the exclusive education of their sons. The reality of such an Institution may be classed among things possible. I dance so that should your book ever reach a second edition you may be able to impart more correct information on this head.

I have the honor to remain. Your obedient servant,

P. Fitzsimon, Dr. Ph.

The persistent attacks of Mr. Cornac and the Prench paper on the Provincial Bank were great embition is to drive up gold, were busy circulating the most exaggerated stories about the fur on the Bank, but the effort failed most signally is ratheons closed even weaker than they opened has proved of such great utility to the country Destitute of the slightest particle of foundation, the most lying rumors have been circulated about the solveney of the Buck, which amongst the smaller class of depositors seems to have obtained cre country itself, and were if even possible that Mr Cornac and his clique should succeed in shaking

The state of the bank is however well know on 'Change, and therefore it is that the calumnious letters published by Cornac and others meet with such slight attention from merchant and brokers. Yesterday, when it was rumored that the It dians had made a run on the bank, one has more than enough to meet everything. The scurrilous attack on Sr. Domingues, the Provincial Finance Minister, is much to be regretted. Sr. Domingues is one of the most popular Finance Ministers we ever had, and the gross alluions in Sr. Lugout's letter are but the foules other day, which caused much joy to calumnies on this respected and straightforward
