In Exchange there has been even a greater ris than in patacons. On Saturday fifty thousand pounds was taken by one of our private banks at 52, and in the afternoon ten thousand pounds at 524, the drawers, we understand, first-class exdraw by this packet for the balance of the loan £175,000 sterling. We heard on 'Change that business, and money rules so extremely tight that it is believed even the non-drawing by Go vernment will hardly alter the rate. The real cause of the disturbed state of the Exchange murket, is the unlooked-for news about the loss the Provincial Bank drawing, and the unprece dented tightness of money. Takers seem how over determined to make the most of it, and w approve of theconduct of the Minister in waiting until next packet. Custom-house bills wer going about in the market to-day, a thing almost unknown in Buenos Ayres: the Mana Bank discounted them largely on Friday and Saturday at 21 per cent. per annum, and a Spanish count them, and each day, unless some arrangement is made, more must be offered in the market All eyes are turned on the Paso de la Patria, as umors were current to-day that peace is feasible and even probable. Mr. Galvan, the contractor we hear, is going up. We find, however, nothing in our advices to justify the rumor, and the coner the river is crossed the better, as the ex-papers have taken the matter up. Business may be said to be brought to a stand still by the scarcity of money.
