Company of the American LOSS OF THE LIGHTER VICENTE

THE CAPTAIN OF THE BRITISH BARQUE

We have not yet heard the last of the disasters by the late storm. Yesterday two survivors, 'the 'patron' and a sailor, from the above lighter, arrived from Martin Garcia 'in custody,' and have given the following account of the catastrophe.-

On the afternoon of the 19th inst. Messrs. Casares' lighter Vicente left three men, and had on board Captain of the prosecution of busine aforesaid vessel. They started about 4.30, and proceeded safely until 5.5, tion, when the force of the wind was so were picked up alive near Martin

Nothing since has been heard of Captain Micklejohn, or the surviving members of the crew, and when we take into consideration the fury of the mate business. keel of the small boat until about 11 ped off from sheer exhaustion.

The survivors were picked up and landed at Martin Garcia, where they sent ashore yesterday. To-day they monopolies are bad, very bad indeed forther details.

The captain was unmarried, a native of the Frith of Forth, and aged about bad and insupportable. 32 years; a seaman of very high re-system are better understood, it will is now in charge of the vessel.
