THE WAR IN THE WEST.

BOMBARDMENT OF VALPARAISO.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT 20 MILLIONS.

A profound sensation was caused in this city on Sunday morning by the news of the bombardment of Valparaiso, the steamer Ibiicy bringing the Chilean mails with dates to Easter Sunday, 1st inst.

The 'Patria' gives full details of this unjustifiable outrage which is likely to arouse as much horror and indignation in Europe as in South America, against the Spanish Government. It seems that Admiral Mendez Nuñez had received by last mail positive orders to commence energetic hostilities by bombarding Valparaiso and all the other Chilean ports. In reply to a remonstrance by Gen. Kilpatrick, American Minister, he shewed his despatches to this effect and said "As a soldier I am bound to obey the orders of the Queen."

On the 27th ult. the Admiral sent a notification to the Commandante of Valparaiso that he would bombard the place on Saturday morning, 31st ult., directing the projectiles chiefly against the Government offices and public departments, at the same time requesting that a white flag should be hoisted on the various hospitals and charitable institutions, and all women and children removed beyond reach of the shells. The garrison had been reinforced to oppose any attempt at landing, and numbered 4000 men, beside the various fire-brigades of Valparaiso and Santiago. Meantime the foreign residents vainly called upon their ministers and admirals to prevent the impending and wanton destruction of property. Such was the hurry to despatch goods out of the Custom-house stores that the 'Patria' says the amount of duties paid in the last two days was $700,000. The citizens also began moving their furniture and effects up to the Quebradas, and carts, waggons, &c. were greedily hired at extravagant prices. Telegrams and ministers kept passing up and down from Santiago, and it was still hoped the catastrophe would be in some way averted. Mendez Nuñez of course paid no heed to diplomatic notes or protests, well knowing that they meant nothing, but Commodore Rodgers boldly offered to prevent the blockade with his United States squadron if the English Minister or admiral would lend him one vessel just for moral effect. The Hon. Mr. Thompson and Capt. Denham came in for a full need of malediction from the British residents, the former excusing himself from any intervention, for 'want of instructions': he, however, wrote an urgent letter to the Archbishop begging him to prevail on President Perez to yield to the preliminary demand of the Admiral by firing a salute to the Spanish flag.

Even up to the 29th the journals treated the bombardment as very problematical. The Admiral sent a note to the Intendente which was returned unopened with the message that no proposal could be received with the impending threat of bombardment. Still the citizens cast confident glances towards the wicked-looking U. S. monitor Monadnock, and some Englishmen posted a pasquin at the Boles, thus:

"To be chartered, for any part of the world H.B.M. war-vessels Sutlej and Leander, as they are useless to protect British interests and properties. For terms of freight, &c., apply to Capt. Denham, or to the consignee, Hon. Mr. Thompson."

A meeting of British residents was also held, expressing their profound disgust at the conduct of the Minister and naval commander as degrading to the arms and honor of Great Britain. At the same time an old Chilean officer named Blanco who had fought under Lord Cochrane offered to fight the Spaniards a naval duel with vessels of the same weight of metal, which Mendez Nuñez haughtily refused.

On the 30th the Admiral finally notified the American Minister that the bombardment would commence next morning, and few people slept that night in Valparaiso. At daybreak the city presented a gay appearance, being decorated with Chilean flags. The British war-vessels left port at 7 a.m., followed by the French, and took up their position near the Spanish prizes outside. The Americans were the last to leave, and then the Spanish vessels Numancia, Resolucion, Villa Madrid, Blanca, Vencedora, and Maule drew in towards shore.

At 5 minutes past 8 a.m. (31st) the Numancia drew up close to the mole, about a mile from the shore, and fired two shots, a signal the bombardment would begin in an hour. The heights and 'quebradas' were crowded with spectators, when the Resolucion took up her position in front of the railway-station, the Villa Madrid and Blanca about 500 yards from the Custom-house, and the Vencedora in front of Calle Cabo. At 8 minutes past 9 the Blanca opened fire on the Custom-house with shouts of 'Viva la Reina!' next came the Villa Madrid, whose rifled shot and shell made a horrid shriek, searing its fiery course through the air. The Blanca next fired on the Bolsa and Intendencia, the shells falling through these buildings as if made of paper. The Resolucion fired at the railway-station, and some stray shots fell in the neighbourhood of Baron, killing a woman and wounding a child. The Vencedora kept up a constant and destructive fire from her 68-pounder swivel guns.

The work of destruction continued actively, but happily without loss of life. The Minister of War, Intendente, and fire-brigades were looking on from the Quebradas, waiting for a cessation of the fire to render any service that might be required, while Gen. Kilpatrick kept his flag flying from an adjacent cottage. The firing was directed greatly at the Artillery-barrack, and when they at last hit the flag-staff a cheer arose from the Spanish vessels.

At 10.40 a shell from the Vencedora set fire to the Bathing-establishment, and the flames spreading to the Union Hotel and the calles Cochrane and Planchada, a dense volume of smoke shot up to the sky, which obscured the daylight. At 11.45 another fire broke out in the Custom-house, completely enveloping that edifice, and still the shower of shot and shell poured down on the devoted city, destroying numbers of private houses and stores.

At 8 minutes past 12 the Numancia signalled to cease the bombardment. Immediately the war-vessels put out in direction of the flag-ship, having thrown about 3000 shot and shell into the city. The citizens hastened down from the heights to extinguish the fires and ascertain what damage had been done. The Intendencia received 61 shots, the railway-station 29, the Bolsa 23, the rest falling in the Custom-house, barracks, streets, and private-houses. The house of Mr. Grisar, valued at $1,000,000, was destroyed, also that of Mr. Edwards in Cochrane Street. The houses of Messrs. Templeman, Ossa, Manet, Gallo, Sanchez, and others, were burned down, including the Union and Lafayette hotels.

The damage sustained by English residents is estimated at 4 millions sterling, while that of other foreigners collectively is said to be nearly as much: Chilean loss only £100,000 sterling. The fire-brigades displayed great activity in putting out the conflagrations and so incensed were the inhabitants against the British war-vessels that they refused the assistance of the crews to put out the fires. The greatest order is said to have prevailed, and at 3.30 p.m. bands of music went through the streets. Only two soldiers are reported injured. The fires were partially extinguished on Saturday night, and next morning the bells were again rung, but the city has not suffered so much as was thought.

The news of the bombardment caused such a sensation in Santiago that the mob ran through the streets threatening to kill all the Spanish residents.

On Easter Sunday the American Commodore had an interview with the Spanish Admiral, in which the latter declared he did not intend to bombard the place again. He will next bombard Valdivia, Concepcion, and the other ports.

This shocking outrage will be productive of no advantage to Spain but cause a terrible revulsion of feeling against the Cabinet of Madrid, especially in England, most of the sufferers being British merchants; and here we have a sad example of how often red-tape prevents British war-vessels from rendering aid where most wanted by their countrymen.

There is a rumor, founded on a letter from Sr. Civit of Mendoza, that the Spanish frigate Almanza which left Montevideo last February, was encountered near the Magellan Straits by the Chileno-Peruvian vessels, and a combat ensued, in which the Esmeralda, Combatonga, and another Chilean vessel were sunk, but the Almanza was captured. This requires confirmation, as we see nothing of it in the Chilean papers.

PROTEST OF THE PRESS

ON THE BOMBARDMENT OF VALPARAISO.

Yesterday a meeting of the city-editors took place at the residence of Dr. Mariano Varela, to protest against the recent outrage committed by the Spanish fleet in bombarding the port of Valparaiso. After a discussion of some length, as to the terms in which it should be couched, the following was agreed to—

Whereas the unjustifiable outrage committed by orders of the Spanish Government, in bombarding the offensive and defenceless city of Valparaiso, is unworthy of any civilized country and shows a tendency to the barbarous usage of antiquity, of injuring the enemy as much as possible, we hereby protest against the same and call upon the rest of the Republic to ratify our views by a solemn addression.

Isaac Tezanos, 'Pueblo.'
Mariano Varela, 'Tribuna.'
Agustin Vedia, 'América.'
José Maria Gutierrez, 'Nacion Argentina.'
Carlos D'Amico, 'Nacional.'
Carlos Wild, 'Nacional.'
José Zavalia, 'Nacion Argentina.'
José M. Cantilo, 'Correo del Domingo.'
M. G. & E. T. Mulhall, 'Standard.'
Raoul Legout, 'Courrier de La Plata.'

The last named being in prison sent a note expressing his conformity of sentiment with the purpose of the meeting, and Mr. Bernheim took this occasion to request the aid of the press to procure Mr. Legout's liberation, adding that his life was in danger, as one of the criminals confined along with him stabbed another last night. It was, however, considered impossible to do anything for him.

By some mistake the editor of the German paper 'Deutsche Zeitung' was forgotten, but it was resolved to send him the protest for signature. The Spanish organs 'Esperia' and 'Razon Espanola' were not invited, as well from motives of delicacy as because they were said to have received the news with fireworks.

The unanimity of the Argentine and foreign press of the city in condemning the outrage of Valparaiso will have a good effect in Europe, the more so as Buenos Ayres hitherto abstained from the question of Spain and Chile.

SECOND GERMAN MUSICAL FETE IN BUENOS AYRES.

The festivity has now come to a close and, in our opinion, even exceeded in éclat that which took place last year in Monte Video. We will endeavor to give a resumé of the various fêtes.

On Tuesday morning, 17th inst., all the German clubs of our city assembled on the mole-head, with many other German residents, to receive the guests expected from Monte-Video. It was a lovely morning, and at 8 o'clock they landed at the stairs and were at once accompanied by the band of the Germans to the Louvre Hotel. The chief attention of the crowds of citizens looking on, seemed to be the Herculean frame of Mr. Keller from Fray Bentos, standard-bearer of the Frohshinn. The address of welcome was read in the Louvre by Mr. Keil amid great applause: this was followed by a speech from Mr. Krutisch, after which the company repaired for rehearsal to the Colon Theatre. In the evening the Germania Club gave a banquet, which was kept up all night, there being two comedies among the night's amusements, and daybreak overtook the pleasant company before breaking up.

The Club Heimath gave a grand breakfast on Wednesday, on occasion of presenting a beautiful 'baton' to their leader, and an elegant cup to Mr. Seeger, leader of the Frohshinn, whose services for the German glee-clubs are well-known. In the evening took place the first grand Concert, for the benefit of the widows and orphans of those who fall in the Paraguayan war, and for the fund for a German Hospital. The Colon Theatre presented a brilliant appearance, every part of the house being crowded, mostly with foreign residents, for every German in Buenos Ayres was present. The stage had been fitted up into a saloon, decorated with German, Argentine and Oriental flags. The orchestra played the overture to the 'Merry wives of Windsor,' and when the curtain rose about 120 gentlemen were seen, forming probably the most effective chorus ever assembled in this city. Mr. Keil was the conductor and displayed consummate skill in the execution of the various German airs which produced a spirit-stirring souvenir of the Fatherland. Between these songs (see Dr. Lopez's translations), the Italian opera Co. performed select pieces in their usually able manner.

On the conclusion of the Concert a banquet took place in the Coliseum, at which 250 gentlemen assisted. Good cheer and generous wine caused an expansion of friendly and patriotic sentiments which found expression in several eloquent and telling speeches. Our space will not permit us to give the toasts in full.

Mr. Krutisch, president of the committee, in proposing the toast of the German singing associations reviewed the origin of Glee-clubs from the 'Sing-academie' of Berlin, after the disastrous battle of Jena, passing a high eulogium on the patriot-bard Zelter, whose musical association received afterwards from Goethe the soubriquet of 'Liedertafel.' This toast was drunk with great enthusiasm.

Mr. Kurth, editor of the 'Deutsche Zeitung' gave an appropriate toast to the hospitable Republics of La Plata. He alluded to the great intimacy of relations between these countries and the German settlers, both by inter-marriage, commercial relations, and identity of sympathies, and concluded by hoping the allied arms would issue victorious out of the great struggle in which they are at present engaged.

Mr. Güthner, in elegant terms and a strain of poetic sentiment proposed 'Germany, our Fatherland' (rapturous applause).

Dr. Lopez followed with an eloquent speech in German, of which language he is a complete master, alluding to the pleasant years he had passed in Germany, and bringing in gracefully that sentence of the poet Arndt "Far as the German tongue is heard, and the praises of the Most High are sung; this, O Germans!, is your fatherland."

Mr. Krutisch then proposed the 'Liedertafel of Rio Janeiro,' Mr. Egg 'The German Poets,' Mr. Keil the 'Liedertafel of Port Alegre,' Dr. Korn 'German industry in foreign countries.' Mr. Becker gave, with great applause, the health of Mrs. Krutisch, the patroness of German song in the River Plate. The Rev. Mr. Gercke, German pastor, and Messrs. Gaebele, Kiel, Krutisch, Liederer, and Frers in turns pronounced eloquent and enthusiastic speeches, and merriment and harmony prolonged the 'soirée' till daylight. We forgot to mention a beautiful song, expressly composed for the occasion by Mr. Borner, which was sung by the whole company.

The programme for the third day's festivities was the grand competition concert at the Coliseum, on Thursday evening, for which each of the four Clubs competing had chosen two pieces of music. The hall was crowded, and we regret that the length to which we have already spun our account prevents us from making detailed mention of the fine concerted pieces performed by the chorus, as well as the melodies sung by Mrs. Krutisch with such brilliant effect. The various Clubs presented a fine appearance with their respective banners. For the distribution of prizes Messrs. Litzmann, Bussmeyer, and Hergert were appointed judges, the awards being as follows:—

1st prize: Clock and candelabra, presented by the 'Montevideo singers.' This was awarded to the 'Heimath' society of this city.

2nd prize: Large silver cup and gold medal, sent from Port Alegre. This was awarded to the Frohshinn Club of Montevideo.

3rd prize: Silver cup, sent from Rio Janeiro. This was awarded to the Germania Club.

4th prize: Small silver cup. This was awarded to the Concordia Club. After the concert a splendid ball took place in the club-rooms of the Concordia.

On Friday the 'fetes' were concluded with an excursion to the islands of the Tigre, and the various members of the Clubs passed a very pleasant day in that delightful locality. Much credit accrues to the German residents for the splendid and philanthropic festival now terminated, and the city journals speak of it in the highest terms. We sincerely hope it will be renewed every year.

On Saturday evening the Buenos Ayrean Clubs accompanied their brethren to the mole-head with a band of music—'Deutsche Zeitung.'

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was an anxious day in town. The afflicting news from Chile cast a gloom over the city. A meeting of editors was called for twelve o'clock at Dr. Varela's house, the account of which appears in another column. No steamer from Corrientes. The Proveedor is now six days overdue. Every one believes there has been a fight, but the result is, of course, mere conjecture. To-day, however, all doubt will be silenced by the arrival of the Espigador. Never was there a steamer looked for so anxiously: her dates will be to the 20th, being one week's later news. It is supposed by many that the Brazilians must have vacated the island in front of Itapiru, as the river was rising, and we have 'Sinbad's' word for it that shortly it would be covered.

Sunday was a charming day, the suburbs were crowded. At the Tigre, the members of the Yacht Club mustered strong. No accident; no British merchant fell in the water; everything passed off well. Mr. O'Donoghue's funeral, from Barry and Walker's store, took place in the afternoon; it was very large, and the carriages lined Calle Defensa. The Boca, Barracas, and Lomas de Zamora, were crowded with visitors. At the latter place the crowd of English excursionists on every Sunday and holiday is such that Mr. Montegrifo is about to put up a refreshment stall at that station, which will prove a great convenience. Down at the Tres Esquinas, the great object of attraction is Marshall's new steamer, which is progressing so rapidly that soon it will be launched. Mr. Matti is the owner, and we believe she will be larger than the Tala.

A little steamer called the Vermejo entered the Boca from Santa Fé; she was laden deep and heavy with a cargo of potatoes, hides, and zapallos. We believe this little steamer was originally built for navigating the Vermejo.

On Sunday a vessel, the Demetrio Fario, laden with coal, consigned to the house of T. Duguid & Co. took fire at her anchorage in the outer roads; as there was no putting out the fire the Captain scuttled her and thus effectually extinguished the blaze. We notice that during the last 12 months several vessels laden with coals have taken fire by what is termed spontaneous combustion; two cargoes fired up in front of the Falkland Islands last year. There must be some neglect in stowing the cargo, which ought to be looked into by the Cardiff shipping.

There was a meeting of the Municipality of South Barracas on Sunday, and it was resolved to apply the tax collected on the killing of capones at the saladeros, towards repairing the roads which lead to the port. Last week this tax amounted to no less than $3000 mpc, this looks well for the sheepfarmers who have capones to sell. Mr. Richard Lavalle is the man for the Estancieros, his capon saladero is now doing a most active business: parties having capones for sale ought to see Mr. Lavalle. We have not heard the price he pays.

We hear now that it is a fact the Paraguayans have got a railway from Itapiru to Hamaitá, and that by means of the heavy guns have been removed from that fortress.

There is a small Island called the Island of Santa Anna, just at the canal in front of Itapiru, at the Paso de la Patria; it is covered with wood, and commands the pass of the river even more effectually than the Island which the Brazilians took; here amongst the trees there is a powerful battery which the allies seem to have known nothing about until Romero, the captured Paraguayan, told them. Our colleague 'Nacion' states that the Brazilians never sounded this canal, which is certainly news for us, and shows us that there is yet much to be done. This is a new hitch which may take some time to overcome.

On Saturday night there was another Legislative meeting to arrange about Governor. Mr. Alsina, it seems, has gained two more votes—one is Agrelo. We believe there is very little doubt now as to the new Governor—Alsina has 34 votes all sworn to support him; Fernandez Blanco is completely in the background; Gainza is talked of, but we believe has very little chance.

Mr. J. W. Smith, the Argentine Consul at Stockholm has been taking the part of this country in the Swedish newspapers, and explaining to the Swedes the real nature of the row, the objects for which the allies are fighting, and the rather tempting elyseums to be found in the pampas of Buenos Ayres. His object is, no doubt, to flood the country with Swedes, a very industrious population.

Santa Fé is now eclipsing Buenos Ayres; will our readers believe that nearly all the passengers that came out in the Cordova are bound for Rosario. One gentleman who came out in this steamer has already purchased, while in England, three leagues of land in Santa Fé. He leaves on Thursday for Rosario, along with most of the other passengers.

The vessel which was scuttled on Sunday in the outer roads went down at her anchorage, effectually blocking up the canal. We call the attention of the Government and Captain of the Port to this scandalous business. At the rate we are going on soon there will be no getting into the outer roads, as the channel is now so crowded with wrecks, which at high water cannot be seen, that the pilots can hardly see their way. In no other country in the world would such a thing be allowed. A ship takes fire, and instead of weighing anchor and letting her drift out of the port, she is scuttled in the very spot where she anchors. We hope the Government will take notice of this matter; the port captain seems to be asleep.

In the beef and vegetable market in this city the green-grocers make about 500 per cent. out of the public in selling zapallos. We notify our readers that enormous zapallos are selling at the Boca at from $3 to $4 each, they are the largest we have ever seen; one is enough for a large family for a week.

The Captain of the Port has explained about the hoisting of the Brazilian flag the other day; it seems that he allowed it merely to accommodate the Brazilian commander, who wanted to signalise to the 'Recife' to get up steam.

The steamer 'Castor' is hourly expected to arrive from Corrientes: she should have been here before this, but it is thought that as she is very little draught of water Tamandaré engaged her for a few days in passing over the troops.

Our French colleague has got into a great row with the Germans in consequence of some ill-timed remarks about their festivities. The Chamber of Deputies has met to scrutinize the camp elections. It is very easy to see how the wind blows; all those in favor of Mr. Aldna are at once ratified; but Condo candidates have no chance. We believe the election of Dr. Zavalis has been disapproved. This seems to us most unfair, and throws ridicule on one of the most precious of Republican institutions, the 'ballot.'

An English gentleman who resides in the northern suburbs has called our attention to the fact that, according to the new time-table of the Northern Railway, there is no train leaving town on a holiday from 2 to 6, which is a great inconvenience. We mention the matter, so that the diligent manager may take the subject under his consideration.

'On dit,' the command of a privateer under Peruvian colors has been offered to our gallant friend, Lieut. Lowry; but we believe as he has been only the other day married, he will decline to spend his honeymoon on board of a privateer. We should like to see some of our steam-boat agents give him the command of one of the river steamers, as he has so much experience in the Paraná, that he is a first-class pilot.

Another Brazilian transport steamer with troops has arrived at Montevideo; she proceeds at once up the river. The Southern Railway brought in on Saturday the following country produce:

- 555 dry cow hides.
41 calf do
35 horse do
3108 sheepskins.
5345 arr. wool.
106 arr. tallow.
14 arr. grease.

Hurray for the Southern Railway. We regret to record a very sad accident which occurred at the Tigre last week. A little boy aged 3 years, son of Sor Muñoz, was drowned. He had been with his elder brother fishing, they caught a fish and the elder brother ran up to the house with it, leaving the poor little fellow: attempting proudly to throw out the line, he fell in and was drowned. He was found with the fishing-rod in his hand.

On the 2nd of May the time for paying the Contribucion Directa expired. Property holders should take timely notice.

The artillerymen at Martin Garcia and the 11 Setiembre battery have got so tired waiting for the arrival of the steamer that now it is probable when she does come there will be no salute at all. All sorts of rumors are current. On Sunday night it was reported at the Colon Theatre that news to the Government had arrived. There had been a terrible battle; 8,000 Paraguayans killed and a like number of Brazilians; Rivas landed and found the place so strong that he at once retired. We believe all these to be 'bolas' and only mention them for the purpose of contradicting them. No news whatever has arrived and our readers must wait until the Espigador comes in.

Minister Sarmiento, in his letter which has been published in the papers, says that on the arrival of the Argentine mails the first paper looked for is the 'Standard,' which is read with great attention by all who are connected with the River Plate. The American Admiral, when he arrived at the Tigre, found the country all flooded, he therefore left for Higuera, where he is actively engaged in a shooting excursion. Our correspondent there will no doubt send us some amusing particulars.

From the Capilla del Senor we have received advices. Camps good and first lambing nearly over. Our correspondent sealed 560 lambs in a flock of 2,250, which we regard as very superior, and hope all our subscribers have done as well.

GRAND ORIENTAL RACES.

At Montevideo, April 19th, 1866. The races on last Thursday were a great success. The day was remarkably fine, and as it was made a holiday, in celebration of the 3rd anniversary of the Flores expedition from Buenos Ayres, crowds of citizens flocked out to the race-ground; the number present could not be less than 4000 persons. There was a good deal of betting, and the Englishmen present were very glad to see Mr. Robert Wilson win two races. The Libertad band played select airs at intervals, and everything passed off first-rate. Some alterations were made in the programme: the horses Liberal, Avestrus, and Tacuarembó were scratched in the 2nd race, as No-te-descurides was considered more than a match for them, and four other horses were then entered to run for the Ladies' Cup. The Great National Stakes, 2 rounds, did not come off, and the Government prize of $200 was distributed among some improvised matches.

1st Race, half-round, entrance $20, with $100 added: three horses ran. Mr. Wilson's Busca-pie (oscuro) was the winner, with Sr. Victoria's Relampago (maro) 2nd, and Sr. Carrasco's Casualdad (tordillo) last.

2nd Race, 1 round, entrance $30, Ladies' Gold Cup and Watch; the previous entries being withdrawn four other horses ran. Sr. Navia's Veremos (doradillo) won, and this gentleman generously presented the prize to Gen. Borjes, Sr. Irigoyen's Guerrilla [malacara] was 2nd, and Sr. Victoria's Feo [bayo] and Sr. Muñoz's Resbaloso [colorado] were nowhere.

3rd Race, 1 round, entrance $10, with $60 added: five horses ran. This race was also won by one of Mr. Wilson's stud; his Tacuarembó [oscuro] came in first, followed by Sr. Victoria's Avestruz [dorado], the others were Mr. Tomkinson's Perdido [zabruno], Sr. Labandera's Coquimbo [saino], and the Liberal [bayo] of Sr. Los Santos.

4th Race, half-round, by amateurs. The Oriental [overo] of Sr. Tavares won, followed by Sr. Mendez's Uruguay [oscuro], the other horses were Sr. Herrera's Sandú [tordillo], Sr. Martinez's Lista-tuerca [saino], and Sr. Mendez's Paraguayo [tordillo].

5th Race, one round, entrance $20, with $100 added: six horses ran. The winner was Sor Victoria's Tortuga [tostado], 2nd Aguiar's Boticario (bayo): the other horses were Mr. Allen's Lincoln (tordillo), Sor Castro's Tabonoro [saino], Sor Aguirre's Esperanza (ruano), Sor Muñoz's Piedras (saino).

6th Race, 2 rounds, Government prize $200. The entries for this race were, Veremos [zabruno], Tabano [tordillo], and Tortuga [malacara], but for some reason or other the race did not come off, and a match was got up instead, between Mr. Gowlan's Petulante (tordillo), and the saino Adios of Mr. Tomkinson, both gentlemen riding their own horses, the latter coming in winner. Some other matches followed and were run with great spirit.

The citizens returned to town highly delighted with the day's sports, and we are glad to learn that another meeting is spoken of. It will not be a trifling laurel for Englishmen if they succeed in making their national sport such a favorite in Montevideo as to make the people forget the barbarous diversion of bull-fighting.

THE ENGLISH THEATRICALS.

We find the performance of the 'Wonderful Woman' has been postponed, and the plays chosen are the 'Thumping Legacy,' an amusing Cornish scene, and the famous 'Cool as a Cucumber,' known to the French as the 'Anglais Timide.' There will also be a musical entertainment between the plays, in which part will be taken by a gentleman whose talents as a comic vocalist are unrivalled, and he will accompany himself on an instrument never yet heard in public in this country. We wonder the secretary does not send us the advertisement with all details; of course, as in all such cases, we place our columns at his disposal gratis.

ON CHANGE.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. April 23, 1866. Paper price of ounces, 8418; Do. Sovereigns, 127; First price of patecons, 26 10; Last, 26 15; Cash sales, 52,034.

of war has caused an apprehension that things have gone wrong up the river, and that we are on the eve of unfavorable tidings. Some brokers asserted that positive advices were in town that the passage of the river had only been commenced on the 20th inst., but nothing certain is known. Paper money, which every one says is scarce, was to-day found rather easy, which shows clearly that the currency is held up by certain parties, and the moment there is a let-up in the specie market currency will be found almost as plentiful as ever.

The time sales of specie were as follows: For Monday, 25,000 at 28 20; Saturday, 13,000 26 15; May 31st, 20,000 26 60; Aug. 31st, 10,000 37 -; July 3rd, 14,000 26 80; June 30th, 22,000 26 80; May 16th, 28,500 26 46.

The arrival of a new steamer, for the river traffic, from Ireland, caused much notice. Capt. Hunter is so well and favorably known in the river, and the new steamer is so admirably fitted up that we have no doubt she will do an excellent business. Her name is the Guarani, and she left Belfast on the 28th February, having made a splendid trip.

There is possibly some truth in the rumored sale of the Western Railway: To-day a special train took out Mr. Crawford, the agent of Messrs. Peto & Fets, and Mr. Cogblano and Mr. Van Arnum, to inspect the new line from Mercedes and Chivilcoy. It is more than probable on Mr. Crawford's return to England, Messrs. Peto & Fets will make an offer for the road.

In Exchange there was a good deal done at 62, 63, and even 64. The banks seem not to be drawing this packet, as the managers dislike these high rates: about $20,000 passed to-day. Rates on France and Belgium at 540, and 645—very few takers.

In National Bonds nothing done. The disputed question as to the new Governor seems now to have some influence on these securities, as if the capital should be disturbed the bonds, it is thought, will depreciate.

The Galileo will be the next steamer of the astronomical line; she may be expected in about a week. We hear she has many passengers already engaged.

Ch. P. Bagley. NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

My fears and suspicions, as mentioned in the 2nd edition of my Prospectus of Hesperidia, have been realized. SPURIOUS IMITATIONS OF HESPERIDIA. have appeared in this city and Montevideo, manufactured by liquor-vendors, and it is sufficient to taste these beverages which fill some of our auction-marts, to judge of the difference between my bitters and this spurious Hesperidia which is wholly destitute of the tonic qualities that constitute the chief medicinal element of my well-known Hesperidia. What do imitators care whether their imitations have this or that unwholesome or deleterious substance, so long as people drink them? Their grand point is to sell, and as the genuine article is in great and increasing demand they seize on it for a fraudulent purpose. They are ready to imitate it at low prices as far as possible and get an unscrupulous photographer to aid their designs by copying the label of the Hesperidia: their business is then complete. The mixture of the spurious 'Hesperidia' is after this manner: aguardiente, sugar, essence and some unwholesome drugs, all these articles being of the cheapest and commonest kind, in order to have a ready sale at low prices to the fools who buy. 'Everything they say, can be disposed of at the auction-marts,' and it matters little to them if the poor people who drink such stuff be soon laid up on a bed of sickness.

Fortunately, I am not afraid that people will try more than once such beverages, and in reality my Hesperidia gains the chief element of its popularity for only the best articles are sold. But, for the public welfare, I must protest against such attempts, and bring before the tribunals the daring imitators and their accomplices. Pondering their punishment, the public must be on its guard, and see that the genuine article is known by the following marks:— 1st. All bottles must have labels like the above heading with my name and signature at foot. 2nd. They must be sold at some of the respectable Hesperidia agencies, as mentioned in the lists published in the city journals. 3rd. The price cannot be under $300 per dozen, or $30 a bottle, as anything cheaper must be a spurious imitation. 4th. The genuine article has never been sold, and never will be sold, at the auction-marts.

Ch. P. Bagley. EDUCATION.

ADDRESS to the IRISH RESIDENTS of MERCEDES. Mercedes, March 12th 1866.

Animated with the desire of giving a greater impulse to popular education as well as earning for myself a respectable livelihood, by supplying a want long felt in this 'partido,' I have resolved on establishing an English College in Mercedes, with all the necessary elements for imparting a sound system of general, commercial and scientific instruction. So much have the Irish residents felt the necessity of such an institution, that I understand, several of this wealthy and influential community proposed subscribing among themselves to establish one for the education of their children. This has encouraged me to carry out my idea, which, I have the honest conviction, will be productive of much benefit to the parents of the neighborhood.

Which of the Irish farmers would not rather have his sons educated in Mercedes under his own eye and within reach of his attentive care, who can see them in the school, than placing them in Buenos Ayres with none of these advantages? What Irish parent will not lend his protection to the establishment I propose founding, when it will tend to the progress and advancement of the district in which their fortunes are situated, and at the same time place within their reach an element of importance for the improvement of their children, the rising generation of the country? For these reasons, and counting already on the protection of some influential Irish residents who have done me the honor to promise me their aid, I have resolved.

1st. To establish in Mercedes a college for the Irish community of the neighborhood, in which I will receive up to 50 boarders, in which I intend to provide the most complete and necessary elements for a literary and scientific education. 2nd. To open the said college on the 1st of May of the current year, under the title of '... for the fulfilment of my purpose, I have fitted up a first-class house, which contains all the requirements of comfort and ventilation, having large 'patios,' algarbe, &c., and situate in the centre of the town. The monthly charge for boarders will be 600f mtc per month. I have to beg of those parents who may resolve on entrusting their sons to my care to call on me at the Colegio San Luis, of which I am Director, or at the house of Messrs. Torroba, where boys can be entered on the books till April 15th; and in case the number of children so entered will encourage me to undertake the heavy expenses called for by an establishment of the kind, I will positively inaugurate the same on the 1st of May.

Irish parents will please bear in mind that this college will have no connexion whatever with the present 'Colegio San Luis.' I have the honor to salute the Irish residents of Mercedes with the assurance of my highest esteem. m14 l6p. LOUIS VICTOR DESPAUX.
