

THIEVES AND BURGULARS.

There is a well-organized band of clever burglars at present carrying on nightly depredations in this city...

The Police, we understand, have a list of 123 thieves whom they continually keep an eye over...

This reminds us of the sequel of the horrible Ibañez murder which occurred at Encarnada a few months ago...

We published yesterday another horrible murder at Navarro, and again advise our camp friends to imitate the settlers in Banda Oriental...

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

THE LATE MINISTRY.

Changes of ministry are ever to be greatly deplored, however imperious the demands for alteration...

The ministry which so lately surrendered the reins of power encountered during the period of its existence difficulties of no common nature.

Finance and war were the great stumbling blocks, the reefs upon which the ministerial ship was destined to wreck. A great war was to be carried on in the interior of the continent...

The question of finance, however, was more than all the rock where danger lay in greatest menace, against which the breakers ever urged the storm-tormented bark...

PRIVATE THEATRICALS.

The crew of H.B.M.'s ship Egmont gave a private performance on board that vessel on the evening of the 2nd August...

The guests, also of the evening received from the officers a courteous and warm reception, and on the conclusion of the performance sat down to the fine supper furnished by the Captain...

FEARFUL ACCIDENT in calle BRAZIL.

A MAN SMOTHERED IN THE MUD.

SCANDALOUS MUNICIPAL NEGLECT.

Yesterday the neighborhood of the South Plaza was thrown into the greatest excitement by the discovery of the body of an old nigger named Goyena...

There is no Municipality in Buenos Ayres. If this sad case occurred at home, the Coroner's jury would make short work of Mr. Juan B Peña...

Why does not Mr. Peña at once resign? The state of the streets is truly awful.

TEATRO COLON.

UN BALLO IN MASCHERA.

The charms of music are so overpowering that there are few indeed who can listen to Verdi's operatic strains without being more or less affected...

This beautiful production of Verdi's was listened to on Wednesday night by a fair house, and all being evidently pleased.

BATON.

THE GILES TRAGEDY.

August 11th, 1866.

Gentlemen, Your exertions in calling the attention of the administration to the numerous and barbarous murders committed in the camp induce me to require a space in the columns of your journal.

Your correspondent Telomachus was misinformed about this awful deed being committed on Sr. Achaval's camp: it is a crime which has stained the estancia of Don Pedro Salis.

Mr. Bennett, the Inspector appointed by the British Postmaster-General, has arrived. It is to be hoped that at no very distant period the English postage on letters will be reduced...

Yours, &c.

ERINAGH.

GREAT NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

GRAND BALL AT VIAMONT.

DANCING &c.

From the letters of your general correspondent in the south, the public of Buenos Ayres are led to believe that the sheepfarmers here are all poor hardworking men...

I remain, Sir,

Yours respectfully,

J. CHRISTIAN.

FINE SHEEP.

To the Editors of the 'Standard' Gentlemen,

Although an enemy to discussions in the press especially with an anonymous antagonist, I cannot let pass a communicated article signed 'Negretti' in the 'Standard' of the 15th...

I consider myself directly alluded to, as the only lot of native-born Negretti rams announced for sale is that from my establishment to be sold by Mr. Billinghurst.

I appeal to the editors of the 'Tribuna' as gentlemen and men of honor to testify that I have never, directly or indirectly, written a line in their popular journal about sheep or rams.

I regret that a speculator who keeps his name in the back-ground should force me to give this explanation to the public. I shall not trouble myself with replying to his baseless sophisms...

We heard on 'Change to-day that the contract for supplying the Brazilian army has changed hands from Messrs. Cabal and Benitz to Sr. Lanuz, the present contractor for the Argentine army.
