

I have no doubt in a few days a new paper will come out in Parana, edited by the late Eos of Entre Rios. When it is published I will send it to you.

It has rained without intermission for nearly fifty hours. There is a very abundant crop of wheat and corn expected this year.

On Tuesday the Paysandú left here with horses, hay, corn, &c., for the Brazilian army. On the same day the Proceedor for Corrientes.

Several steamers passed up, but could not be distinguished to name them. I remain, Gentlemen, Yours respectfully, L. M.

THE LONDON AND RIVER PLATE BANK. B. Ayres, Nov. 5th, 1866. To the Editors of the Tribuna.

I have just read in yesterday's Tribuna a communication signed 'a Depositor,' wherein it is stated as a general rumor that the London Bank is speculating for a fall in specie, and the writer advises me to publish a balance-sheet as the Maná Bank always does.

I will not enter into the motives of the letter, but leave to its author the honor or discredit it merits. I can, however, assert with all sincerity that the imputation against me as manager of the London and River Plate Bank is wholly destitute of foundation.
