organisation. While on the one hand he had to prepare everything for the war which was his great aim, he had on the other to bear the hatred of the Chamber and the nation, and to deceive the world, not only by the secrecy of diplomatic reserve, but far more by the openness and truth with which he everywhere expressed his ideas. Then came the war, which began by attempt on his life that he escaped almost by a miracle. He shared with the King the dangers of the campaign, and on the 3rd of July he saw the fate of Prussia hanging for nearly an hour on the brink of a precipice before the Crown Prince's army came up. 'In that fearful hour,' said he a short time after the battle, 'I was only consoled by the unshakable calmness of Moltke' (the chief of the staff). 'I rode up to him, offered him my cigar-case, and he had presence of mind enough to select the best cigar that was in it.' On the night after the battle he slept, surrounded in his cloak, on the wet pavement of an adjoining village. A further trial awaited him at Nikolsburg, where M. Benedetti, the French Ambassador, brought proposals suggestive of French intervention. Count Bismark abruptly rejected them, threatening to make peace directly with Austria, and hinted at the combined forces of Germany being used against France. When at length all was settled, and the objections of France and Austria to the Prussian annexations were over-ruled by the maintenance of the integrity of Saxony, the strain on the mind of the overworked Minister was relaxed, and he became irritable, sleepless, and totally unfit for work. He is now considerably better, but some time must yet elapse before he can recover. His anxieties, however, are by no means yet over. Abroad, many difficulties yet loom on the horizon, and even at home he is by no means sure of the support of the Chamber."

THE BANK EXCHANGE-OFFICE.

MANIFESTO OF THE BOLSA.

REPLY OF THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT.

Bolsa de Comercio, Buenos Ayres, January 18th.

Dr. Mariano Varela, Provincial Finance-minister.

The newly-elected Syndical Chamber of the Bolsa feels bound to manifest to Your Excellency the general satisfaction caused to the members of this corporation by the establishment of the Bank Exchange-office, which has made effective the fixed value of our paper-currency as prescribed by previous laws, and thus cut short the interminable fluctuations that caused so much injury to all legitimate trading operations. This important measure has satisfied one of the primary exigencies of the community, by restoring confidence among all classes and giving a secure basis to mercantile transactions, thus tending in an efficacious manner to the development of our industry, hitherto paralyzed by the great fluctuations of the paper-money.

The new Syndical Chamber, in accord with the ideas of its predecessor as expressed in their annual report to the shareholders and members of the Bolsa, begs to interpret the sentiments of the commercial public in this manifestation, and expresses the liveliest hopes of the efficacy and stability of a measure that rests on the firm basis of public convenience.

Animated with these convictions we fulfil the agreeable task of begging Your Excellency to convey to Governor Alsina our vote of thanks for the part he has taken in so salutary a measure; and we avail ourselves of this occasion to assure you, Mr. Minister, of our highest esteem.

ANTONIO TERRERO, Syndic.

LUIS F. ARGERICH, Secretary.

Government-house, Buenos Ayres, January 19th.

To the Syndical Chamber of the Bolsa de Comercio,

I have had the pleasure of receiving the note of the Syndical Chamber of the Bolsa congratulating the Government for the part we have taken towards establishment of the Bank Exchange-office.

The Governor on receiving your communication desired me to thank you for such flattering assurances, and to say that, in the firm intention of solving once for all the question of our paper-currency, he trusts that your corporation and the commercial public in general will lend their co-operation to the measures he has in view, so that the important and beneficial results of the Exchange-office may be permanent and beyond the danger of any future fluctuation in the currency.

With this motive I am happy to assure you of my special consideration.

MARIANO VARELA.

TEMPERATURE—Buenos Ayres, 2 p.m. Wednesday 80

ON CHANGE.

Table with columns for item, date, and price. Includes items like Paper price of Quines, For June 30, Sovereigns, etc.

A slight change took place in the specie market today, most foreign merchants having given orders to receive gold on time at 15 to 25 cents difference. The following sales were noted on the board:

Table with columns for date, quantity, and price. Includes items like March 31st, April 30th, etc.

Although several other private transactions were effected at reserved rates, many merchants consider that so long as the difference is so slight, it is much safer to secure; thus there are several buyers at the above prices.

Yesterday the balance of specie at the Exchange-office was, in round numbers, one million seven hundred thousand patagons, the highest amount it has yet reached. To-day several sums of gold were withdrawn, and it is anticipated that on Saturday the demand for gold will be much larger, in order to pay for Exchange on Europe.

Exchange on England as before—not much done. On France 5.38.

National Bonds weak: one sale, cash, of 2,000 at 41, and 10,000 for 31st inst. at same price, also 40,000 for end of March at 42, sellers.

We must say we are surprised that so shrewd an adviser as Minister Gonzalez does not follow the advice we have so often given, as to allowing the interest to be paid on presentation of the coupon only, enabling the owner to keep possession of the bond in whatever country he may be, when such a simple arrangement would increase the value of these securities, as we have so repeatedly pointed out; we repeat, we are surprised at its not being availed of.

In the Wool Markets no animation; buyers hang back afraid of not being able to get holders.

Sales in the Once: 2,000, at 573; 4,600, at 70; 500, very superior, 83.

In jerked beef, 9,500, at 14rs, 60 days, 9,000, at 13rs, cash.

The Wheat Market is flat; $205 asked for good Patagons. The late heavy arrivals have affected the price, yet, thanks to the Exchange-office, we shall not see any fall similar to last year, when in February the price fell to 130, merely from the scarcity of paper, now, with cheap money, the millers can afford to hold over large quantities until the winter.

CHARTERS.
