The Doctor who attended this child states that when he was called in, on Saturday morning she was unconscious, rolling and tossing about speechless.

This is the verdict and opinion of an experienced physician of this city, whose judgment should command respect.

What is murder in Buenos Ayres, we ask our readers? Does not the case of this poor little child cry for vengeance, and whilst the weeping mother kneels to-day in the depth of her maternal affliction on the grave of her poisoned child.

The banquet given on the evening of the 19th by the natives and foreigners of Rosario, to the President of the Republic, was a brilliant affair.

Argentina from Corrientes, reporting a row or battle between Caseres and Reguera, we have made every enquiry and learn that our colleague made a slight mistake in stating that the news came from Corrientes by letter; it came from Concordia, Entre Rios, where other equally alarming is also current about the state of things on the Corrientes frontier.

Some valuable machinery and part of the iron bridge for the Rio Segundo, we regret to say, has been lost on board the Reflex; this will prove a great loss to the Argentine Central Railway.

We salute the American admiral on his return to Buenos Ayres, and hope he will make his headquarters at this port. It is rather unfortunate we cannot keep any of the foreign admirals here, they all stop down at Montevideo.

Governor Oroño has had the public land laws of Santa Fe published in French, English, and German. We think Governor Alsina ought to do the same with regard to the land laws of this province.

We have to thank our colleague the Republica for publishing on Sunday a case in point, touching our row with the Municipality. The case of Gen. Urquiza versus Carriego, decided in the courts of Buenos Ayres only the other day, established the law that in all press prosecutions, where charges are made against public functionaries, the case must go before a jury.

Mr. Ponce Monetto's report on his surveys through the Interior, as Engineer for the Central Railway, will shortly be published by Mr. Wheelwright. We understand that it is highly interesting, and accompanied with a map.

Irish sheep farmers are now flocking fast to Santa Fe. Scarcely a week passes that some of our subscribers are not crossing the Arroyo Medio, some driving their flocks, others merely to look for camp.

It is rather a melancholy sign of the times that the Plaza Once de Septiembre Diligence Company has burst up, and all the tickets sold by the Company worthless.

Mr. Krell's estancia in Santa Fe, is now on the way out, and expected shortly to arrive. This will be a great stimulus for Santa Fe, and very possibly attract an important immigration from the Fatherland.

LATEST FROM FRAY BENTOS.

Our latest advices from Fray Bentos bring the melancholy tidings of a fatal accident which befell the steward of the bark Don Diego, loading at the port.

The revolution in the Provinces is showing the most serious consequences on trade in Rosario; nothing now comes down or goes up, and as a matter of course the merchants complain bitterly.

Every copy of Mr. Latham's treatise on the River Plate has been disposed of in England, and we hear a second edition talked of.

There are now no less than three regular steamers plying between Rosario and Itapiru, engaged in nothing else but the hay and maize trade.

Our little cemetery is very neat and well kept, and reflects great credit on the residents, all of whom have friends or relations there.
