THE WAR IN THE NORTH. [FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT]

Corrientes, Jan. 21.

Gentlemen, Affairs at the North are in state On the 16th a Paraguayan magazine was blown up by the Brazilians at Tuyu-Cué, much powder exploded: however the cannonade continues nevertheless. Per contra, two Brazilian officers (subalterns) and two vivanderos with a small escort were waylaid on the road from Tuyuty to Tuvucue by the Paraguayans by whom they were all butchered and stripped with impunity.

In spite of extra exertions, this is all the war news obtainable up to a late hour.

It is evident the war partakes more to pilfer the Brazilian treasury than it does to accomplish an enterprise

There is a tide in the affairs of men. IMPORTANT FROM SAN ANTONIO DE ARECO.

STATE OF THE TOWN.

Areco; Jan. 26, 1868. Cholera has existed here for the last three weeks, during which time the average number of cases did not exceed one perday. For the last week until yesterday the town was perfeetly healthy, but this day there have been two more cases, one of which proved fatal; the disease as yet is confined to the very poorest classes, chiefly coloured people. I would not be astonished at mortality five times greater, as people take no precautions. If filth, green fruit, and bad meat propagate cholera, San Antonio stands a bad chance. As it is, we may thank God that this is the safest town in the province - the sickness scarcely causes any person a thought. I trust it may continue so.

AFFLICTING STATE OF THE TOWN. The enormous advantages entrusted with the Department of the reaped can alone be computed by taking into consideration the effect of steam communication between two countries. A thousand new enterprises spring into active existence as soon as a new line is established. A quick and certain passage to a foreign port induces the business men of the country to send out agents to report upon opportunities for profitable investment of capital. The advantages accruing to them are best shown by the fact that the English control the greater part of the trade of Chile, Bolivia, Peru and New Granada. So profitable has this steamship policy shown itself in indirect benefits, as well as direct, that a new line is now started from Valparaiso to England via the Straits of Magellan and Rio Janeiro.

The east coast of South America presents a scarcely different picture from the west coast, so far as Ameriean steamships are concerned. We have there, as elsewhere, let the vast and growing trade pour its wealth into European coffers, scarcely attempting to divert it into its more natural channel, the United States. The great difficulty heretofore has been to procure an article reliable as to purity. The demand in Europe and America exceeding by many thousands of gallons the entire product of all'the Cod Fisheries, in consequence of which unprincipled persons have ficoded the markets with Land Oil, Cotton Seed Oil, Linseed Oil, &c., imposing it upon the Public as genuine Cod Liver Oil, greatly to the detriment of health. Our PURE, SWEET, COD LIVER OIL Is by special agreement shipped to us by our own Agents, direct from the Fisheries at Newfoundland, and delivered to us under Seal in our

 \mathbf{E} Many people suffer from they know not what. They are not sick—they are not well. There is no name for it. It is simply weakness—a breaking down of the vital forces. Whatever its causes (and they are innumerable) its symptoms are in the main these same. Among the most prominent are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, and great mental depression; indigestion and a stomach cough are also frequently concomitants of this distressing state of body and mind. Now, what these unfortunates really want is vigor and vital strength, and, as sure as dawn succeeds darkness, they can recuperate their systems and regain health by resorting to

It is as clear that a life-reviving tonic is required in such cases, as biast the dying flame of an active lamp requires to be revived with a new supply of oil. Perfectly pure and innocuous (its basis being the Bitter Orange), and combining the three grand elements of a stomachic, an alterative, and a genial invigorant, BAGLEY'S HESPERIDINA is suitable to all constitutions, and is as applicable to the diseases and disabilities of the feebler sex as to those of men.
