Dr. Mahony sent to Carmelo by Government. 4 p.m.

Stiff wind from off the sea blowing all night.

Not quite so much mortality to-day, which causes a better tone, and the greatly-diminished number of deaths reported as having taken place in Buenos Ayres assists in the improvement.

In the city of Colonia no new cases, but the same cannot be said of the outskirts.

Rosario and San José continue in a good state. Political, nothing new.

THE HEALTH OF THE CITY.

It is with unfeigned pleasure that we announce to our readers the fact that during the past week the health of the city shows a decided improvement.

It has now disappeared. It is right to remark that this great sanitary improvement is due less to the measures adopted and precautions taken than to an apparent interposition of Divine Providence.

At Almagro, for instance, factories of the most dangerous characters still keep working. We are not even sure if the pig-breeding establishments in that locality are not still to the good.

One of our colleagues, in a long article yesterday, makes some gratuitous comments respecting foreign opinion. We feel to-day in no disposition to answer the article, but the less said about this the better.

The Archbishop of Buenos Ayres has not responded to our appeal for a day of general fast and prayer. Yesterday the matter was again brought under his notice, and we trust that he will adopt our views.

Carlow and Queen's County.—The Abbey of Killeslin.—A River Plate Friend at Ballickmoyler—Castledermot Abbey and Round Tower—Fair, and Petty Sessions.

There are few towns in Ireland that surpass Carlow in the beauty of its situation, the smiling and fertile aspect of the adjacent country, and the variety of charming drives over hill and dale, interspersed with wood and water, and here there is a venerable ruin of ivy-wreathed abbey or old baronial castle of the middle ages.

On Monday, I took one of those national vehicles called "jaunting cars," and, accompanied by some friends, drove to Killeslin, in the Queen's County.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The meeting to-day at Martinez's barraca, Plaza Monserrat, is the great topic of the hour. So nervous is our friend, the Nation, that he calls for a counter-meeting in front of Mitre's house.

our observations on that bubble blowing—all the schemes have gone to that historic spot called Mr. David Jones's locker, and the money voted for surveys of the Pampa, &c., how much better to have spent it on paving the streets.

The Gaucha left yesterday, taking up passengers and mails for Fray Bentos and Gualeguaychí—the ports, however, along the river will be open.

We heard yesterday that our friend Mr. Dowse is about to run the splendid steamer Edward Everett to Montevideo. We believe she leaves to-morrow—finest boat in the river.

Dr. Mahony, of Colonia, is the party who rescued the unfortunate man at the Paso Molina and saved him from being buried alive; the escape was something incredible—five minutes later and the poor fellow would have sufficed for ever.

A piece of good news for our readers. A wealthy Scotch Irishman, Mr. Cannon, who has a monster house in Dublin of dry goods, may be looked for in April.

The greatest trade going at present is in ballast, some thirty vessels at present in port loading ballast. This may be taken as a genuine sign of the times.

To-day, at eleven o'clock, the Rev. Canon Paly offers up High Mass at the Merced Church for the cholera victims in the camp.

We received yesterday, thanks to a friend in London, the Times of 24th December. The only item of general interest is a long correspondence from Abyssinia.

Two young gentlemen are about to start a general registry office and agency. We hope they will meet with success, as the office can prove of high utility.

As a most unequivocal sign of the times, we may state that the grand kitchen market in Calle Florida, belonging to Sr. Madero, is being metamorphosed into a large Custom-house deposit for surplus cargoes.

We hear nothing whatever about the gas dividend. It is about time now to give the shareholders interest on their money, as the cash is lying in the bank.

We have unavoidably been prevented from noticing before, the second delivery of the first volume of "Ambas Americas," a publication published in New York, under the auspices of Sr. Sarmento, which we received a few days ago.

The Provincial Government has decreed that all its offices shall be closed to-morrow, the anniversary of the fall of Rosas.

A duel took place in Chivilcoy last week, between the acting Juez de Paz and a neighboring estanciero. It would appear that the former, in the heat of a discussion, slapped the face of the latter, who returned the compliment by a kick, and a compulsory ejection from the Juzgado.

A splendid, new locomotive engine of El Salado, for the service of the Southern Railway, made its first and second trial run on Friday and Saturday as far as the Lomas de Zamora, and we are glad to say it worked admirably, and to the entire satisfaction of intelligent people who were witnesses.

It would appear that we are to have two rival meetings to-day, and while the Club Libertad will be discussing the merits of the various Liberal candidates, in the Plaza Monserrat an opposition meeting of gauchos, patronised by General Hornos, will be discussing "carne con cuero" in the vicinity of the Hueco de los Saucos. So many meetings at the same hour and on the same day is rather perplexing for our Special Reporters.

Our excellent friend, Don Mariano Billinghurst, has, notwithstanding the earnest entreaties of many influential parties, resigned his seat at the Board of Health.

Arroyo Negro.—Cholera passing away, 80 or 90 cases, deaths 46, mostly women and children, peons returning, saladeros working slowly.

Casa Blanca.—Cholera declining, deaths 8 to 10, saladeros working, but short handed.

Saera.—Cholera disappearing, deaths 30, saladero about to resume work.

Payсандú.—The epidemic decreasing, and people returning from the camp, &c. In these last two weeks it was very severe, as many as 30 to 40 deaths on some days.

Concepcion del Uruguay.—The mails for Concordia were refused by the quarantine officers, but were subsequently left at the quarantine station, Paysandú, with the Salto mails. In this town the cholera has been raging, but has notably decreased during these last few days.

THE CALIFORNIA COLONY.

Highly Important Details. To the Editors of the "Standard." San Xavier, Province of Santa Fe, January 14, 1868.

Gentlemen, Your esteemed favor of November 15th was received a few days ago, having been a length of time on the road.

The cholera at Santa Fe, and the revolution there also, have interrupted communications. I send this letter by a friend, who is going across the river, and will have it mailed at La Paz, in Entre Rios, a town in front of us, though eighteen miles distant.

You state that you have made many inquiries as to the success of the colony, the price of land, &c., and would like some information. The California Colony has proved a perfect success so far.

The live stock is equally successful. Cattle, horses, and hogs have done, and are doing, well. The colony has never been disturbed by the Indians, and every family which arrives lessens the probability of its being so.

As for land, there is certainly plenty of it. From this colony northward there is not a house for twelve hundred miles, and the vacant public domain stretches away for hundreds of leagues north and west.

present; but the colonists expect to bring large droves next spring. The colony is very much in need of a blacksmith's shop. A good smith, equipped for farm-work, is a desideratum, particularly an American, or one who has worked in North America.

Persons moving up to the colony at present, should come to the town of La Paz, in Entre Rios, which is on the Parana River, and there charter a boat to San Xavier.

I fear that my letter is growing too long, but upon reading it over, I find that I have omitted to mention that the mosquitoes are bad at present, though there has been none this summer until lately.

I deem it superfluous to mention that we have game in abundance, and fish in fabulous quantities. Cotton grows well, and also hemp and tobacco.

Please forward any letters which may arrive for me to the same address: "Colonia California, San Xavier, Santa Fe." I am expecting a large number.

Should you feel inclined to tear yourself from your editorial duties for a few days, take a run down here, bring your gun and fishing-rod, and we will endeavor to make you comfortable.

I remain, Gentlemen, Yours truly, M. K.
