population of the city increase, we find that the old South American institutions become awkward and unsuited to times. When Buenos Ayres boasted of only 100,000 inhabitants, the present force worked well enough; but then they were comparatively speaking, unknown, and iron gates and window 'rejas' supplied the place of policemen.

Again the prison system in this city is becoming a social evil, scarcely a week passes that prisoners do not escape; the buildings are old fashioned, insecure, and out of repair, and the fifth of the interior of these establishments is a nuisance to the whole neighbourhood.

THE ATTEMPTED ROBBERY AT THE HOUSE OF MESSRS. PROUDFOOT, HALL & CO.'s the other night shows that, with a little precaution, the robbers may be foiled; the manager prudently remained in the office all night, in consequence of having a large amount in gold in the safe.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE should take some measures to improve his force. At present it is but a mockery and a farce. NEW MODE OF MAKING CHRISTIANS. How to turn a pagan into a Christian. First catch your man, then give him his choice of three or four forms of Christianity.

THE POLICE. The inefficiency of the police is becoming so apparent that the attention of the Legislature is about to be called to the matter. Robberies on the most wholesale scale are perpetrated in broad day light in the most central parts of the city.

pagation! Where were the archbishops and bishops, not to mention the thousands of Protestant parsons who abound in Ireland, that the task of converting a pagan should devolve upon the prison official? The Irish parsons, as every one knows, have little or nothing to do in the way of ministering to the spiritual wants of Protestant congregations; for the simple reason that, in the majority of instances, there are no Protestant congregations to be ministered to.
