

It is with much pleasure we learn that Dr. Don Roque Perez will be the new judge in the Supreme Federal Court. Dr. Perez is one of our most distinguished lawyers...

Yesterday was a very busy day in the National Government House; new brooms in every department, and a general cleaning out. Pres't. Mitre has delivered up the establishment in good order...

The Arno arrived in Montevideo late on Sunday night, but no news of her arrival was received in this city until 9 o'clock yesterday morning...

From the Banda Oriental we hear that shearing commences in good earnest out there this week. A large gang of shearers for the magnificent Drabble establishment has been shipped from Montevideo...

The difference between an American river steamer, such as the old Mississippi, and the common steamers, with cabins under the main deck, is in point of comfort and material progress...

As soon as the President arrived at the table, Mr. Zumarán read an address thanking His Excellency for honoring the proceedings with his attendance, &c. &c. I did not gather much of the address, nor of the President's reply...

and other maguafes. What occurred afterwards, it might be uninteresting to relate; but I am sure the republican and really-important festival closed creditably.

The chambers have just voted a concession to Mr. de Marcoratu, for a railway from Salto to Santa Rosa, the frontier town in the Banda Oriental on the River Uruguay.

The Plaza Parque on Sunday was greatly crowded, and the band having adopted the summer arrangements, commenced to play about four o'clock...
