

Mr. Reid, of Espartillar, who came out in the Southampton mail packet, has imported some brood mares and thoroughbred horses, which were landed yesterday.

PRES. SARMIENTO'S SPEECHES.

We give below some of the speeches pronounced by President Sarmiento, in the Government house, on the day he came into office:—

SPEECH TO GENERAL MITRE. Although divested of the insignia of power, my lips can scarcely avoid calling you still 'President'; I must, however, revert to our former custom and call you 'General'; and even in terms of affection, 'Colonel Mitre.'

kind words with which your reverence greets my advent to the Government. Such manifestations from the Fathers of the Church are the blessing sent from Heaven upon the powers of earth who seek to be guided by justice and wisdom.

I feel honored in remembering that I have received special marks of distinction from the Head of this Church, the eldest son of the church. As its patron he is its defender; as the ruler of a free State, he guarantees its liberty.

THE NEW LINE OF STEAMERS. The fourth of the ships constructed for the London, Belgian, Brazil, and River Plate Royal Mail Steamship Company was inaugurated at the Victoria Docks.

The vicissitudes through which the Republic has passed, and the difficulties which necessarily accompany the practice of a federal system, have created an anomalous state of things, among other the accumulation of distinct powers in a great city.

I make these remarks in order to express how much your professions of adhesion and the conformity of our views and purposes are, for me, a subject of sincere congratulation.

ing the superheating process, with a consumption of coal on the passage round from Glasgow of about 16 tons per 24 hours, and a speed of 12 knots. The City of Rio de Janeiro is now loading at No. 1 Jetty, Victoria Dock Basin, and will sail for Antwerp on the 12th instant.

THE SOUTH AMERICAN MONTHLY. Literature, education, and religion have at last found an organ in Rosario, in the 'South American Monthly' a neatly edited magazine, published by the Rev. Thomas Carter, A. M. Editor, for the very reasonable subscription of five patacons a year, in advance.

The style, the paper, the type and general finish of this monthly are peculiar, and as gathered from the first paragraph in the prospectus, we suppose, adaptable to the English speaking community of Rosario, where, since the demise of that very well edited bi-monthly publication the 'Argentine Citizen,' something which shall represent our language in the department of general literature was sadly wanted.

The true aim and object of this new periodical cannot better be expressed than in the words of the author who, it is much to be regretted, has promised in his prospectus more than the literary elements at his disposal have permitted him to perform.
