SPECIAL TELEGRAM FOR "STANDARD."

Montevideo, Feb. 19, 1869, 12.20 a.m. Holiday day. Flags half-masted. Grand funeral service for General Flores.

IMPORTANT QUESTION.

A very serious question has arisen in our wool market respecting the liabilities of brokers, their relations with their principals, and with purchasers, which in the interest of trade, should be ventilated.

the ermine can be dragged before the public as effectually as the humblest police officer, and there is hope for improvement so long as the Judge on his Bench knows that his conduct is amenable to the severe and discriminating criticism of his contemporaries...

A wool broker, in one of our wool plazas receives a lot of wool from one of his customers for sale. After exposing it for sale in open market, he finally sold it to a well-known barruquero firm in this plaza.

We apprehend that the law could not be more clearly expressed or laid down, and the courts in this country are bound to accept this well-established principle of law, coming from such a respectable authority as Story.

IRON IN THE CHACO.

IRON IN THE CHACO. PROVINCE OF SANTIAGO. In the second report of Lieutenant Rubin de Celis, published when he returned from Spain, and given to the Royal Society in London, under date 2nd June 1788, in reference to the geographical situation of this strata of iron, he says as follows:—

I constructed two blast furnaces, and examined with great care the earth taken from a great depth, I found it in every respect the same as that above.

LATEST FROM FRAYLE MUERTO. February 14, 1869. The locusts have all gone. Threshing proceeds vigorously. Wheat buyers keep crowding up.

At the Governor's house, the following gentlemen were named to form the first Governors of this rising district:—Augusto Vianco, Bartolo Silva, Ponciano Peryra, Ramon Vianco, and the Priest, Camilo Leon.

AN ENGLISHMAN'S TRIP TO MATTO GROSSO LAST YEAR.

I will commence with the bow; for, after saying that its length is about seven feet, bound tightly round with the thin bark of sipó, and has a string made from a wild kind of hemp abounding everywhere in the woods...

den twinkle of their eyes as they quickly closed them when they caught me looking in their direction. The conversation was carried on by fits and starts, but the tone of the language was always beautifully sweet and soft, and never carried on in a high tone.

EDITOR'S TABLE. Yesterday there was a gloom thrown over the city by a fatal accident, which occurred at 2 o'clock p.m. in Calle Florida, an accident which is solely attributable to the culpable neglect of the builder, who indeed should be made a public example of.

The Chief of Police of the Municipality is about to order a general whitewashing of the city, the owners of the houses, and not the tenants, to be at the expense of the work.
