Attention is called to the rising importance of the Harbour and City of Colonia. Possessing the nly natural Port in the River La Platte, with safe anchorage, and with sufficient water to accommodate largo vessels and fleets, this place i destined to become the great 'entrepot' of the commerce of the Parana and Uruqua Rivers. Structed at the regist of the Band Rivers. Situated at the point of the Band Oriental, nearest to Buenos Ayres, it is at n distant period certain to be in communication with that City by first-class Steam Vessels, and by

To Colonists from the great fertility and beauty of Camp in its immediate vicinity and to its central position, being intermediate between the two great markets of Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, and directly on the route and near the mouth of the great Rivers beyond. Quintas are now being measured and platted by Government, and to Colonists who wish to improve ment, and to Colonists who wish to improve land, possession is given free.

To Tradesmen, nothing more need be said than that the fast-growing population of the Department must be directly supplied.

To the Public generally, it is sufficient to say that the climate is unsurpassed in salul rity, and it will soon become the refuge of people flying from hot and cholera-stricken cities.

To those interested in Steum Navigation, and conversant with the creat delay and expense atconversant with the great delay and expense at-tendant upon Coaling in Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, it will become at once apparent that this favored spot must soon become the Coaling Station of the La Platte.

Station of the La Platte.

In addition to the above the South American Navigation and Marine Railway Company's Works are now in a forward state of completion, and during the month of June will be ready to take vessels from the water for repairs. This enterprise, constructed at great expense, will now be able, in a measure, to relieve the one million tone of whiteins the vessels with the state of the construction to the con lion tons of shipping the t yearly visit the La Platte, from the necessity of seeking other Ports for relief. Vessels will no longer be condemned or abandoned, because of their inability to proceed to Rio de Janeiro or Europe for repairs.

A good, light, and fine channel leads to the Harbour, well-known to the pilots of the River.

All persons interested are invited to visit the place of the linear tite of the results. All persons interested and place and inspect its advantages.
