SPECIAL TELEGRAM FOR "STANDARD".

THE ORIENTAL REVOLUTION. Montevideo, Wednesday, 6.30 p.m.

THE SAN JUAN QUESTION. MINISTERIAL VICTORY. As we fully anticipated, the Opposition in Congress has been defeated on the much-vexed San Juan question.

ECONOMY MISUNDERSTOOD. Our attention has been called to a matter of far more pressing importance than the San Juan question.

THE SEAT OF WAR. The news brought per Goya from the theatre of operations in Paraguay is of much the same tenor as per last advices.

EUROPEAN NEWS. LATEST TELEGRAMS. Paris, May 22, Evening. The "Patrie" of this evening publishes extracts from a pamphlet issued in Brussels on the 30th April by M. Royard.

THE SEAT OF WAR. There is nothing whatever said about a movement on the flanks or rear of the enemy.

EUROPEAN NEWS. LATEST TELEGRAMS. Paris, May 22, 3.30 p.m. The Bourse has been unsteady.

EUROPEAN NEWS. LATEST TELEGRAMS. Madrid, May 22. At the sitting of the Cortes to-day Marshal Serrano will announce the resignation of Sr. Ayala.

EUROPEAN NEWS. LATEST TELEGRAMS. Berlin, May 22. The "New Prussian Cross Gazette" of this evening says: "We hear that it is the intention of the Government to convoke the Prussian Diet for the 15th of June."

the export tax does on the wool-growers. It is necessary for Governor Castro to be convinced that the greater, or lesser profits of the Western Railway are as nothing compared to the importance of the development of the growing in the "campagna".

The Western Railway is admirably managed, with all the punctuality and attention to business in every detail that could be looked for in an English railway.

When the mines of California began to run short of precious metal, that country found a new and equally prosperous staple in the growth of wheat.

It is doubly important that the Western Railway should initiate a system of liberality towards "chaceros", as we shall then be able to call on the Southern Railway, the Central Argentine, and all others to imitate the wise policy of Governor Castro in this particular.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Paris, May 22, Evening. The "Patrie" of this evening publishes extracts from a pamphlet issued in Brussels on the 30th April by M. Royard, inciting French electors to resist the Government by revolutionary means.

Paris, May 22, 3.30 p.m. The Bourse has been unsteady. The "Independence Belge" hears from Paris that the French Government have no confirmation of the statement in a telegram published in London a day or two since that the French Ambassador at Peking had had his face slapped by a Chinese official.

Madrid, May 22. At the sitting of the Cortes to-day Marshal Serrano will announce the resignation of Sr. Ayala, Minister of the Colonies, and that Admiral Topete, Minister of Marine, has been appointed Minister of the Colonies and interim.

Bremen, May 22. An official telegram has been received here from Berlin, announcing for certain that the King of Prussia will arrive in this city on the 1st June.

Berlin, May 22. The "New Prussian Cross Gazette" of this evening says: "We hear that it is the intention of the Government to convoke the Prussian Diet for the 15th of June."

among the things of the past, which cannot be reversed or remedied, and which no amount of discussion can make any better. When we actually read ready for war with England, this may serve to swell the tide of national hostility out of which such a war may grow.

The news brought per Goya from the theatre of operations in Paraguay is of much the same tenor as per last advices, the only novelty being the somewhat alarming intelligence that the small pox has broken out amongst the rank and file of the Brazilian army.

For some days that kind of instinctive foreboding of something being about to happen, which generally permeates through the ranks of a large army on the eve of decisive action, has been manifest in the Allied lines.

The Villa del Salto arrived here yesterday from Montevideo. This steamer is now doing duty as a transport ship for the Oriental Government.

U. E. President Sarmiento was on yesterday presented through the hands of a special messenger from General Urquiza with a valuable and curious present from the Captain General.

The "Imparcial" of Cordoba states that the Central Argentine Railway is now completed in every respect within twenty leagues of the city of Cordoba.

The accounts of the revolution in Montevideo continue unreliable and confused. The President at the head of what is called the Government army appears to confine himself to the inditing of lengthy despatches to his first Minister Bustamante.

The Commander-in-Chief has just availed himself of an opportunity lately presented for adding to the great popularity he already enjoys. A deserter, taken in the act, was condemned to die in the usual way on the 24th ult.

EDITOR'S TABLE. The Annis arrived in this port yesterday morning, having been detained for three days in quarantine at Montevideo. The mails were delivered at about 4 p.m.

The auction of Mr. Latham's half and three-quarter bred horses came off yesterday afternoon in the Plaza 25 de Mayo. The following are the prices realized:—

We regret to learn that another of the unfortunate men who fell from the scaffolding in the College Church on Wednesday has since expired from the injuries he received.

that we have never seen the specimens in question surpassed, and but seldom equalled in reference to the qualities referred to. It appears there is an obstacle in the way of Mme. Ristori's being engaged in Montevideo as we announced on yesterday.

We publish to-day the prospectus of the Credito Mobiliario del Rio de la Plata. The names on the directory comprise those of many of our leading men, and there can be little doubt of the success of the institution if wisely managed.

We offer to the new American Envoy to the Argentine Confederation, the Hon. Mr. Kirk, our congratulations on his safe arrival in the River Plate, and cordially welcome him back to our shores.

Notwithstanding the revolution, I have to report all serene in this neighborhood. In fact, were it not for the "Standard," we would know very little of what horrible things are taking place in the province.

The present revolution has not gained the sympathies of the gaucho: for, owing to his daily contact with the foreigner, he is becoming better informed, and one and all view the war as a "curso forzoso" struggle.

I have seen a gentleman who has just returned from Colonia and he says there is no fear of the rebels taking that town, it is so well provided for. Colonel Solsona is actively alive to the responsibility of his position, and is on the alert day and night.

With regard to the sheep business, matters are very gloomy indeed. At the latest moment, I am told, that a neighboring estanciero is about to slaughter a flock just for the skins. He is not insane, nor has the war given him any bloodthirsty notions.

When the Hipparchus came to her moorings on Friday in front of Montevideo, the wind had increased to a gale, and, as is the case in that port, when blowing hard from the southwest, no communication could be held with shore.

Montevideo, in spite of revolutions, monetary crisis, and general stagnation of business, is still a delightful spot, and to the traveller offers undoubtedly far greater attractions than Buenos Ayres itself.

Next to the spacious hall of the Oriental, the most fashionable lounge in Montevideo is Mr. Cailly's new store in Calle Ituzaingó.

The fight of Borjes to Entre Rios shows how completely the rebels are done up. If Carballo cross the Rio Negro his force will then entirely break up and disperse.

'corps de ballet' stronger even than what is found in the principal theatres of continental Europe, is an unanswerable proof of it, to say nothing of that of the Africaine, with artists of such extraordinary merits as Carozzi and Irre.

The remembrance of the stupendous ovation made to Carozzi on the previous Tuesday was still the talk of the whole town. The opera she gave on the occasion was Norma, and she was interrupted at every moment by the applause of an audience carried to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

On Sunday I drove out to the Union and witnessed the performances of the Chiarini company in the Plaza de Toros, which, notwithstanding the distance, and the high price of entrance charged, attracted a sufficient number of spectators.

With regard to the revolution, no apparent signs of it are to be seen anywhere, nor are the news as to the exact state of things outside the town known or cared for.

We do not ask for costly school houses, nor for the costly instruction of the profusely educated; let any respectable schoolmaster be school-master, and his pupils the school-boys, so the work be commenced.

The means of self-improvement is a sacred and inalienable right, and when demanded of the governing by the governed, may not lightly be treated with indifference.

Will it be argued that the right of parents to educate their children has never been questioned?

I answer that I am not now speaking of private but popular education; not of a private but a national want, which cannot be supplied by individuals, but by Government, and only by it.

I will only add that it is not my object to propose a scheme, but simply to advocate the affirmative of a great question, and to have camp schools; and that the camp be continued until the camp be converted into an institution, for which, in the name of God and civilization, it has so long asked.

A. HAMMUR.

VERY LATEST.

Montevideo, June 30, 7 p.m. The French packet Amis leaves this evening for Buenos Ayres.

Nothing particularly fresh. Urquiza is said to have denounced the revolution.

News from the camp considered very favorable, so much so that paper has recovered slightly, and closes firm at 1 1/2 discount.

Rather more doing to-day. Severe cold weather continues.

TEMPERATURE.

DANGER MENACES! DEFEY IT!

Nothing that was ever written or spoken is more absolutely true, than that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters put the system and constitution in a condition to ward off disease.

It is a stimulant—the purest that human skill can prepare; a tonic, charged with extracts of the rarest vegetable invigorants; a corrective, that dissolves and disperses all unhealthy humors that tend to disease; an alternative, that changes the habit of body, to suit any change of climate; a balsamic cordial, that tranquillises the nerves; a constitutional medicine, that increases the power of endurance, the capacity to labor, and the ability to resist the influence of miasmatic poisons in the air; and a pleasant and exhilarating tonic, that invigorates the system, and restores the vitality of the system.

There is much inquiry about the new brought by the Government, which little is known that another revolution has occurred in the north of Spain, and it is the Prince of Asturias to be declared King, under Marshal Serrano as Regent, and from an President of Council of course, Queen Isabel will remain in exile.

The news as regards produce continues unfavorable, and we hear that it has reached everything in Montevideo.

Imports of American flour continue. The Albert has arrived in Montevideo from San Francisco with 8,000 bushels of flour.

We expect to-morrow to be involved with report of the proceedings. Messrs Mackern were despatching to-day to Mr Billinghurst's auction mart the collection of 1200 first-class English books, which are to be put up for sale next Monday evening.

Respecting camp matters we learn that the recent heavy frosts have considerably augmented the fattening properties of the camp, especially those which were heavily stocked with fat sheep. Sheep are improving very much and it is confidently expected that in the month of August, September and October we shall have to report immense sales of fat sheep, as farmers are now convinced that anything up to 14 lbs. grease must be cleared off, since the prospects for wool are every day worse.

From Parma we learn that Messrs. Suarez are intent on making the tramway from the town to the port, with a landing-pier, and the contractor Mr. Peter Burs of Montevideo.

The project of colonizing 100 square leagues of camp beyond the river San Javier, in the Gran Camp, is to be by a joint-stock company, with a capital of £200,000, in shares of £20 each. The funds in question will lie between the Parana, Salado, and San Javier rivers.

The new joint-stock company, 'Credito Mobiliario del Rio de la Plata,' commences operations to-morrow, July 1st, at its offices, 118 Calle Florida (alt.), under the direction of Messrs. Humeo del Valle, Francisco F. Moreno, and Pedro S. Lamas. The board of administration comprises many of our leading men, and the company is likely to do a remunerative business both in mortgages and in emission of Titulos, for sums of 25, 50, and 100 hundred dollars. We shall give the new advertisement and tariff to-morrow.
