Buenes Ayres; June 22, 1869.

Dear Sir,
I have much pleasure in testifying to the efficacy of your 'Alleviator,' having used it in India, where you first brought it ont, and also in the country. Since curing myself I have oftentimes prescribed it to suffering friends, who have a yet in a instance over found it to have as yet, in no instance, ever found it to fail. I could furnish you with numerous proofs of cures effected by its administration, shoud you at any time require them. Believe me, Yours faithfully, THOS. M'PHERSON.

Facts are more conclusive than arguments, racts are more conclusive than arguments, and to comment upon such facts as the above would be superfluous. The extraordinary demand I have received from private friends for my "All-viator," has induced me to place it before the Public. At the undermentioned address it can be procured, with full directions for its use on each bottle.

There is a disease lo which the doctors give many names, but which few of them understand. There is a disease lo which few of Julio 35 them understand. It is simply weakness-a breaking down of the vital forces. Whatever its causes (and they are innumerable) the symptoms are in the main the same. Among the most prominent are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, and great mental depression. Indigestion and a mental depression. Indigestion and a stomach cough are also frequently concomitants of this distressing state of body and of mind. The common remark in relation to persons in such a condition is, that they are consumptive. Now, what these unfortunates tive.
