serable life of it. This was news indeed and next morning at daybreak, a party was sent to seize the horses, another posted across the mouth of the river to prevent the escape of Indians from the toldas, and Limonao, summoned to give an account of himself...

cession of about two hundred men walking in array. Each wore a green necktie, and some had green leaves in their hats. One hundred vehicles followed, with women and children decorated in green, many carrying branches of laurel. At the graveyard the people fell on their knees unanimously, and prayers were said, but not by a clergyman. The crowd then visited the "memorial crosses of the Manchester martyrs."

The solicitors to Lady Byron's family, Messrs. Wharton and Fords, of Lincoln's Inn-fields, have written a letter to the papers, protesting against the publication of Mrs. Beecher Stowe's "True Story." The solicitors say that the article is not a "complete" or "authentic statement" of the facts connected with the separation, that it cannot be regarded as Lady Byron's own statement, and that it does not involve any direct evidence on Lady Byron's history. Messrs. Wharton and Fords further object that the publication of the narrative as to the truth of which, so far as it goes, they say nothing, is a gross breach of trust: a step inconsistent with Mrs. Stowe's own advice to Lady Byron.

During a recent storm at Strasburg three soldiers were sitting on a bench under the shelter of a tree, when the lightning struck them, killing one instantly, his shako and necktie being strewn about in minute fragments. The second was struck on the back of the neck, and only lived a few minutes. The third had his legs burned, but received no injury. His watch was, however, broken into a great number of pieces.

GOVERNOR CASTRO IS SAID TO BE A VERY JUST MAN; if he has any desire to maintain his fame for stern justice he should cast his eye over his rept rolls and pass at the official valuation of estancia lands. If his conscience does not smite him when his eye falls on the figures that tell of absurdly high valuations, I pronounce him not one iota more just than a broken down Galway landlord.

THE TONIC MONTEVIDEANO FOR THE HAIR. The Tonic Montevideo is a most marvelous preparation for cleaning, beautifying, preserving, and restoring the hair, and is especially adapted for the cure of skin diseases, and especially adapted for hot climates.

PROPERTY TAX. The Arno is expected in Montevideo by Sunday; she will bring among her passengers Sr. Riestra, whose name is spoken in the event of the Finance Minister persisting in his retirement. The Humboldt will be expected here on Tuesday or Wednesday. The Flamingo leaves on Saturday with mails for England. We were yesterday in support of the Franco Premier and Blanche were the same steamer, although both belong to the Havre line; the first named was formerly one of the Havre sailing packets, and is a fine vessel.
