At present in this harbour, and notwithstanding signals were flying from various ships in the offing to send a life-boat, scandalous to relate not one of the brave (?) defenders of the various nations made the slightest offer to send a boat to the assistance of the sufferers.

By giving this publicity in your wide spread journal you will confer a great favor on the seafaring community, who had the conduct of Captain Smalle, (himself the first volunteer) and cry shame on the imbecility shown by eunuated men!

As one of the many interested parties in the race to come off next week between 'Gauchito' and 'Colfax,' I should feel obliged to the prophetic writer in today's Editor's Table, if he would, like all good prophets, give his reasons for placing 'Gauchito' second in the approaching race.

Why is it that you do not publish the pedigrees of those two flyers and their performances.
