THE MORON FAIR. Are we better than our ancestors? that's the question. The old stage coach is gone, the fly-boat on the canals is forgotten, even our May poles green is cut up and sold for building tious. You refer to the interviews that led to the arrest of Varela and his lots. We live in an unreverential epoch. Antiquity no longer lends a remember old customs the more qualipresent age; but notwithstanding all ed Peru.

Here we are in the middle of the blessed 19th century trying to estabish an agricultural fair, with the elect task. The new fair green of Moron is gills (agallas), just the kind for the work, indeed a sharp lesson to us all, it and that I might count on the same ment we are dependent on our foreantiquity.

Since the memorable Palermo fair which was held under the sunny ausour estimable Post-master general Sr. blic. Posadas, we have had no attempt at a public fair in this country until the purely pastoral and agricultural character of the country is really extraordinary.

Public fairs have been in vogue since the earliest period. The greatest and most celebrated fair in Old Engal the twelfth century. It had the privilege of annually holding a fair for three days, and so important did this fair become, that the gathering of tumblers and mountebanks was forgotten in the great assemblage of business men and the great beauties of the day. There were long rows of booths ranged along the green sward, on which were displayed the beautiful silk fabrics and embroideries of the middle ages, and the delicate filigree of the London goldsmiths; and this renowned fair attracted the attention of all Europe, until the close of the reign of Eliza« both. The English fairs in those days were the great centres of wit, fashion, and beauty. We read of a celebrated merry Andrew, at the Smithfield fair, showing his contempt of the solvency of the Government, by pretending to singe a pig with exchequer notes, and sorted to this mode of attack, and yet ed my indignation at your proposal,

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The latest intelligence from Montevideo represents the state of affairs in the Oriental Republic as st ill pretty much the same. The greatest anxiety and alarm pervades the respectable portion of the community, and an outbreak is looked forward to as almost certain. The severe measures of repression adopted by Sr. Bustamante give his political opponents ground for accusing him of a desire to become Chief Magistrate, if not Dics tator, of the Republic; and it is said that the report that Suarez and Silveira had already displayed the revolationary banner in the rural districts originated with his partizans. It is idle to bazard opinions on the probable result of the present situation, but everything points to a renewed term of anarchy and bloodshed.

The French mail steamer Blanche leaves to-day for Havre. Letters and papers can be posted at the Port Captains up to 12 o'clock.

The Athletic Sports meeting comes off to-morrow at Palermo, and promises to be one of the most successful that has ever taken place in the Plate. The prizes, an account of which we published some days ago, are of unusa ual beauty and value; and there seems to be a kind of "do or die" spirit pervading the intending competitors that promises well for the success of the day's proceedings. The Northern Railway Company have made ample arrangements for the conveyance of the expected crowds to and from Palermo, and there need be no anxiety whatever on the score of getting there and back. The "road" will no doubt offer an enlivening spectacle, ing away of the 'vasura' of the city, and will probably be the route in favor with the ' haut ton.'

The fair at Moron to-day will certainly attract a large crowd to this rising locality should the weather prove favourable. The program is most interesting, and turfites will no doubt give the preference to the quadrupeds over other attractions both having experienced head winds and to-day and to-morrow; nevertheless, there are quite enough lovers of inno cent amusement in Buenos Ayres to render both the fair at Moron and the sports at Palermo complete suc—

The Athletic Sports Meeting promise to be better attended on to-morrow than any previous occasion. Olympic games, though of recent establishment in this country, have already attained much deserved favor, both among na tives and foreigners; and if, as our barometer indicates, the weather holds up, we may expect a grand display of youth and beauty at Palermo. REPORT.

Your Committee in retiring from office, beg to lay before you the following statement of their management during the past year, and in doing so they have reason to congratulate you A fire broke out yesterday morning on the success which has attended their efforts in maintaining the institution in its efficiency. Two hundred and eighteen volumes have been added of your committee. Of this number ninety volumes of the best and latest works of fiction, reprinted in the United States were purchased from Messrs. Mackern Bros. at less cost than the binding alone of the same books would bave amounted to had they been supcessful, and from the growing taste of this class of literature evinced by the majority of subscribers, your Committee thinks that their successors might with safety make similar investments from time to time.

During the year twenty-nine new subscribers have been secured, including His Excellency President Sarmiento, while on the other hand the same number of old members have retired; seven or eight of the latter have left he country, others have retired, and with great reason, in consequence of bad times, &c., but with much regret your Committee cannot overlook the fact that amongst those who have refused to continue their subscriptions, the names of some of our leading, wealthy British merchants prominently

Mr. Smith, in moving the adoption of the report, spoke in flattering terms of the manner in which the retiring committee had discharged the withstanding the unusual difficulties which they had to encounter in keeping up the number of subscribers, but expressed his deep regret at the fact that some of the rich merchants should see the necessity of withdrawing their support from such a deserving institution. Mr. McCrindle seconded the motion, which was carried unanimous-

The following gentlemen were then elected to form the committee for the ensuing year. Messrs. Wm. Duguid. J. F, Stanfield, G. Ramsay, Gatliff, G McCrindle, with Messrs. M. G. Mulhall, W.-Heald, and J. L. Macrae, for

'suplentes,' The Rev. Mr. Smith proposed, and Mr. T. Hogg seconded a vote of thanks to the editors of the "Standard" for their gratuitous services.

Mr. Gatliff proposed and Mr. Mc Crindle seconded a vote of thanks to the retiring committee, coupling with it, in flattering terms the name of Mr.

A unanimous vote of thanks to the chairman having been passed for the able manner in which he had discharged the duties of the chair, the proceedings were brought to a close by Mr. Mulhall selling of by auction sundry periodicals and magazines which fetched fair prices.

tumbled like a house of cards, and bona fide out-siders who had advanced large sums on bonds siders who had advanced large sums on bonds began to feel nervous, less their margins would prove insufficient. A meeting of the Camara Sindical was instantly called, at the instance of some of the principal brokers; first to consider what steps should be taken regarding the defaulting Sichels—second, whether Sr. Dominguez, who was generally supposed to be a partner of Mr. Sichels, should also be held liable, and third, as regar dis a postnonement of the liquidation. After a short postponement of the liquidation. After a short discussion the Camara Sindical determined to have nothing whatever to do with the matter, until first adjudicated upon by the Comision del Interior, and thus the matter stood. Meanwhile

Interior, and thus the matter stood. Meanwhile owing to the stupendous character of the general, month's liquidations, and the impossibility to arrange differences, it was almost unanimously determined to postpone the month's liquidations until Tuosday, which was accordingly done.

For the last few days the prize of Bonds have been purely fictitious, and to-day 60,000 were marked dawn as sold for each at 59, but none attached any importance to this, and quotations tached any importance to this, and quotations for Bonds to-day were altogether out of the question. Many parties were of opinion that it would have been better to liquidate the accounts this afternoon, and thus finish the business; but as a atternoon, and thus finish the business; but as a very large amount of Bonds must be thrown on the market, in consequence of the inability of the previous buyers to take them up, and, in fact, a fresh investing public has to be found, it was resolved not to push the market too much, but rather to help the holders by postponing the liquidation.

The Bond market, in fact the whole Bolsa, the end will be the gainers by this present crisis, us.it will free it of the reckless speculators who so long held sway round the ring. It is evident that the price of Bonds must give way, until a 'bona fide' investing public is found, and the busi-ness henceforward done in these securities must, as a matter of course, be of a much more limited haracter.

Several lots of new wool have arrived in both Several lots of new wool have arrived in both markets, but owing to the rain nothing much was done in either pluza. About 20.000 ar. in all, in good wool, in prime condition, sells easily at 55, but it must be really good wool to obtain this price. Some good lots are expected in the South Pluza on Tuesday.

Money was in active demand to-day, and collections through town by no means up to the mark, some large sums were taken up to the pluzas to pay for produce,

There was nothing of importance from Montevideo, and the suziety about the revolution has
