MIXED MARRIAGES.

THE secret of human happiness is wed lock. Disguise it as we may, marriage has a charm for us all; wby, therefore, it will be asked, are there so many old maids and old bachelors in the world? This we cannot answer. Every man stands on his own legs as best he can, and believes in a heart or pocket religion of his own. Matrimony is a kind of atmosphere which we all, at one stage or another of life, breathe. Celibacy is mere smoke and cloud, unestimate the true value of marriage, it is only necessary to ask, what would 12$800.

YORKdiversity of religious opinions is probably greater to-day than at any pres vious epoch in the history of mankind; the different shades and variances of religious character are altogether numberless, but we all believe in marriage.

> With what gushing joy, therefore, will not the fair Portenas read Mr. Adolfo E. Carranza's letter to Presi dent Sarmiento, announcing that the Bishop of Cuyo has obtained from His Holiness the Pope the fullest liberty for mixed marriages in the Argentine Republic. We all are aware of the difficulties which hitherto existed in this as in most Catholic countries, in the case of a Protestant marrying a Catholic: both Church and State seemed so opposed to such a union, that not unfrequently, like duellists, a society composed of such cosmopolitan members as ours, where threemarriageable bachelors are Protess tants, and nearly all the girls are Ca

The Civil Marriage Bill with all its pompous preamble has proved a dead letter. Neither is there anything novel or extraordinary in al this. Women in such matters, and in fact, in all that concerns their own and their children's interests, have an iutuitive perception—a most unerring judgment. To rob the marriage contract of the imposing ceremonies which woman.

The precise day in the summer cantured the plan of their campaign, haps the most famous man in the U. entered upon its covert but vigorous States, was there, giving enormous prosecution. The time was, however somewhere in the month of August. Gold was then tolerably steady at about 132 or 133 per cent. The clique began to buy largely at this figure; and not only did they buy gold itself, but they took the contracts of brokers who were willing to agree to sell gold at the carrent market rates for deliveiv at a future day. It was in the week ending September

18th that the crisis began to draw near So much gold had been bought, so many contracts had been taken, the bride and bridegroom had to fly that the market could no longer be the land to tie the happy knot. This kept in apparent quietude. EDITOR'S TABLE. The America arrived up from Mons tevideo yesterday. The members of those firms to whom the Pinance Minister sent the circular alluded to in our last issue, met on Thursday in public, and after some conversation adjourned the meeting till yesterday. The object of the meeting is to consider the establishing of a new bank with $f.6,000,000, capital which will undertake the conversion of the naper money at present in circulation. The notes of the new bank will be declared blow to the bulls. TMMIGRANTS' HOUSE

The Sisters of Mercy desire to express their gratitude to the generous subscrib their "Immigrant House," No. 248 No. 248 Callo Chaabuco. The amount already collected will enwhile them to commence the building they propose, but it will not suffice to finish it. The facility such establishments afford, both at home and abroad; for obtaining persons of respectable character, and likewise efficient for do nestic service, sufficiently recommends them, to the public, without at all taking into considera-tion, the amount of misery it precludes. The Sisters therefore confidently hope that, a call from them for furthes assistance will not be in from them for furthes assistance will not be in vain. They also take advantage of this opportunity to remark they invariably give a note to any one that they recommend to a situation, and that all subscription, not entered by the doner, in the collecting book, kept in the Convent, will be published in the Standard' every month.

Let the Sheep infected with this disease in the feet be put into a dry place; after remaining an hour, take a brush and clean the dirt from between the claws, then shaking the bottle well, dip a stick or feather into the liquid, and annoint the diseased part all over, after which let them stand dry for an hour. If properly applied, one application is generally sufficient.

To destroy maggots it may be used in the same manner, but sometimes it requires to be applied three times; it also cures all sorts of ulcers arrising from them, and may be applied to any cut to prevent the flics from forming maggots.

Experience has proved it to be the best preventive that can be applied after castrating stallions, and one application of the liquid may save a valuable life.
