The stranger in a foreign land who reads the sad tale at foot hereof will naturally ask-Can such things be with a Sarmiento as supreme ruler Where are all the vannted advantages of the River Plate for European emis the country is impotent to protect them? The matter has assumed a most serious importance—serious for the National Government, that labours honorably to maintain its credit abroad,-serious for the British and American Ministers, whose duty it is to demand redress and protection for English and American subjects in this country; and doubly serious for every industrious foreigner in the land, who must see that if things are allowed to go on as they are going, the lives of foreigners in the camps of Santa Fé will not be worth an hour's pur-

The following are the facts as given by our colleague :-

· Santa Fé, Nov. 27, 1869. When I assured you in my last of the grave error committed by the Government in not removing at once all the soldiers, &c. from the Sauce and Ramada to the furthermost frontier line, I had little idea that events would so soon occur to prove the correctness of my statement; but unfortunately we have this moment received the The Board of Trade Returns for news of fresh murders. The victims vers, a North American, a native of Alabama, and partner of Corcoran, about to bring his family out.

The colony of Grutli is quite a new colony, and boasting only of eight or nine families. The day before yesterday nearly all the colonists went to see Governor Cabal, at San Carlos, to explain to him their very unprotected themselves of the absence of the colonists, attacked the place, killed the only two colonists there, and stole all the horses of the colony. Foreigners by their industry have given great value to the lands about there; the vagrant gauchos feel this, and, therefore, hate the 'gringos,' and hence these repeated assassinations.

The assassins ridicule the idea of punishment; they know full well that nothing will be done to them. Only the other day twenty-five villains, the very worst in the province, amongst them a murderer only convicted the this means. In a few months they will all make their escape, and be at large What a shocking state of agaiu:

Between the mainland and Point Santiago is a shallow passage that offers every facility for being converted into a canal: sometimes at low water it may be crossed on horseback; the soil is 'tosca' and wet clay, and if a canal were cut for a length of 300 or 400 yards, it would constitute an excellent harbor or natural dock that and a British Minister in our midst? might be extended to any area, so as to admit up to 1,000 ships. The current at Ensenada runs four to six grants when the very government of knots, and once the canal opened through communication, this current would obviate the necessity of dredging, and keep a constant harbor of leep water, besides carrying away the bar at the N. entrance.

As there is at present but one enrance, namely, the N. one, it happens that the same wind which favors a ship coming in would prevent another from going out. If, however, the caual were made, there would be then both a North and a South entrance, available for ships entering or leaving with any wind. ON 'CHANGE. Nov. 30, 1869. 400 Ounces 1221 Sovereigne 25 Patacons National Bonds

National Bonds fell off to-day, and the market closed weak. The cash sales amounted to 74,700 which for the end of the month is most insignificant, and proves the little speculation that has been going on during the month. The differ ences to be paid are most trifling; the bulls however, as a rule, have made money during the month. The Sisters of Mercy desire to express their gratitude to the generous subscribers towards their "Immigrant House," No. 248 Calle Chacabuco. The amount already collected will enable them to cominence the building they propose, but it will not suffice to finish it.

The facility such establishments afford, both at home and abroad, for obtaining persons of respectable character, and likewise efficient for domestic service, sufficiently recommends them, to the public, without at all taking into consideration, the amount of misery it precludes. The Sisters therefore confidently hope that, a call from them for furthes assistance will not be in vain. They also take advantage of this opportufrom them for furthes assistance will not be in vain. They also take advantage of this opportunity to remark they invariably give a note to any one that they recommend to a situation, and that all subscription, not entered by the doner, in the collecting book, kept in the Convent, will be published in the 'Standard' every month.
