7. The only exception of the foregoing article is in favour of the President.

8. Each and every of the members of the Seamen's Union are compromised not to ship, for less than $4 1/2 (four pounds ten shillings sterling) per month, to any other vessel, and all the ports of the West Coast of America.
9. The wages are for able seamen. Those for ordinary seamen, in the proportion of three to four for boys and boys of the Fleet, and all the ports of the West Coast of America, the Atlantic coast of the United States of North America, and the West Indies.

10. Steamships will pay the same wages as before.
11. The different cash-boxes of the Seamen's Union will be opened every six months, in presence of the President, Vice-President, and two Trustees, and its contents shall be distributed as follows:—
One-third to the German Poor House.
One-third to all the Hospitals.
One-third being set aside as a Reserved Fund.
In case the Reserved Fund should exceed the amount of $5,000 (five thousand pounds sterling), the Trustees may dispose of same for the members of the Association present at that time in Buenos Ayres.

12. The Committee of the Society is formed, besides the Foreign Consuls, who represent President and Treasurer of their respective nations, by six members, viz:—
A Vice-President and Representative, and two Trustees and Representatives as Honorary Members, without salary, for their services, besides a Clerk for the Central Office, whose salary will be fixed by the Commission, and whose duty it is to be at the Office from ten a.m. until three p.m., to receive and book in the respective books the orders of captains as well as of men, which books he is obliged to show to any Boarding Master who, as a member, has the right to inspect them, in order to have him present at the Central Office, his respective men, who are wanted.
ELECTION OF TRUSTEES.
13. The Trustees of the Seamen's Union are elected every second year, by the absolute majority of votes of the members of the Society at an election. Should a Trustee withdraw before his time, the member of the Society who, in the preceding election received the next majority of votes, will retain his place until the next election takes place.

It is our melancholy duty to announce the death of Mr Philip Pezzi, which took place yesterday morning.

The horses of a hackney carriage ran away the other day along the beach. The driver fell under the wheels, and was killed on the spot.

There is an 'ou dit' flying about that the distinguished financier, Sr. Don Norberto de la Riestra will soon return to Europe.

A distinguished French engineer, M. Ebelot, has come out to Buenos Ayres with the view of drawing up an elaborate report of its condition, resources, and general prospects for the 'Recreo de los Andes'.

At Chascomus the elections were rendered impossible by the purloining of the register the evening preceding the day fixed for the polling to take place.

In the absence of any official data furnished by a census the Tribuna publishes some approximate calculations as to the population of the department of the capital.

The dinner to be given by the Committee of Editors to the officers of the National Guards was postponed from Thursday till this evening.

The Opera House presented a brilliant aspect on Thursday night, although the intense heat prevented the audience being as numerous as it otherwise would have been.

The La Plata with the English mail of last month arrived in Montevideo yesterday, and will be in port this morning.

Sudden deaths are becoming daily more frequent in the metropolis; on Wednesday three occurred, one of them, we understand from sunstroke.

Notwithstanding the heat, numbers of people flocked to the Parque on Thursday to witness the distribution of medals to the National Guards.

The white. This curious accident is probably unexampled in railway annals.

Mr A. D. Gregorio Machain has been appointed Paraguayan Consul in this city.

in order that the data derived from meat consumption should be altogether followed, the calculation should be based upon the weight of the animals, and not only on the number of heads consumed.

The valuable information contained in the above extract will I hope be a sufficient apology for its length which leaves me scarcely any time to add any other news.

The general state of affairs continues as bad as ever, the heat is unbearable and a general aspect of gloom pervades the whole city.

The Captain of the Port, Mr. Solsona, has taken up with warmth the question of establishing a fixed light over the Capitanía or at the extremity of the Mole.

There was not much doing on the Bolsa today. Some few operations were done in gold for cash, opening at 5 1/2, going down to 5, and closing at 4 1/2.

Sir—In the month of June last your well-informed correspondent, 'Lique', has a question of great interest to your readers.

The question to be decided was, whether or not the system of increasing the weight of shot in the larger sizes and decreasing the powder grain the best result.
