

obtain the public support he deserves for initiating this enterprise.

We received yesterday through the kindness of our gallant and esteemed friend Colonel Manilla a most extraordinary and priceless addition to the valuable curiosities comprising our Museum. The affair in question is one of the shibonones of the famous Pampa chief Atahualpa, cousin to the Inca King, and the traditions connected with this spot where it was discovered (on the banks of the Arroyo Catalina) leave no doubt as to its being a 'bona fide' relic of this noble savage.

The people of Rosario are about to follow the good example we set them last year, and 'suppress the serenos.'

On last Wednesday there were no less than 15 different picnic parties at the Tigre, almost every island was crowded with happy joyous excursionists, who made the woods ring with laughter and glee.

The subscriptions to the share list of the proposed new bank in Gualeguaychu have already, according to a local colleague, reached the sum of 1,200 ounces.

The quantity of coffee grown annually in Brazil is estimated at 400 million pounds.

The latest 'canard' published by a morning colleague respecting Madame Gavotti and young Gomez is that they have not paid their lawyer's bill and in consequence are obliged to defer a projected trip to Europe till it is settled.

In Catamarca there is a good deal of election excitement going on, and things are quite upset through the extraordinary conduct of the local Legislature.

All the principal families in Entre Rios have been invited to San José by General Urquiza to meet H. E. President Sarmiento.

Mr. Craunford forwarded us another letter yesterday in reference to the progress of the President; it will be found in another column, and is very interesting.

The French theatre announces another masked ball for this evening. A colleague remarks that during the fire in Calle Piedra the other night several 'vigilantes' were remarked carrying off articles from the saddlery establishment of Messrs Montferand.

Two young boys of humble parentage were drowned on the beach the other day while bathing. It is very difficult to prevent such accidents whilst parents neglect looking after their children, as is too often the case amongst the poorer classes.

A letter has been addressed to the Verdad by some inhabitants of Azul, in which they object strongly to the route chosen for the branch line from Lobos to that town.

The vacation at the various public and private schools terminated yesterday, it was consequently a 'dies irae' in juvenile circles.
