PHOTO-DRAWINGS.

This new style of picture, introduced by Mr. S. L. Reignolds, of London, makes the finest and most effective style of Portrait known at the present day. Their purity of colouring and delicacy of tone is such, that some of the first English artists have been unable to determine whether they are Photographs, or simply and purely Water Color Drawings. The process is peculiarly applicable to the reproduction and enlargement of Card Photographs, enabling the artist to introduce accessories and backgrounds, change dresses, or alter fagures; and, in fact, to make a harmonious portrait, which will be a 'Picture' on which the eye rests with pleasure, as well as a faithful likeness.

THE REMBRANDT STYLE.

This is a recent American invention, and has created a 'furore' in the States which bids fair to revolutionise Photographic Portraiture. Its peculiarity is, that it makes a Portrait standout in bold relier from a black background, like a statue done in marble.

DON'T OPEN THE STREETS.

There is always something amusing in a Municipality meeting, and yet the debates of our Aldermen are rarely attended by any save the members themselves, and one or two parties interested in contracts. If the Municipality had a fine open hall, where there would be accommodation for the public, doubtless a better attendance might be secured; the present quarters are more fitted for a private board room than the Town Hall assembly rooms. The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and approximated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevide and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mana & Co. in Montevideo has already never the confidence of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays an helidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The Bank of Mana & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city p safe and profitable depositary for their average.

The sums deposited in that very important in-stitution are daily increasing, and already reach s very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks entisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maua & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevidee, now offer the same facilities in this city, and nas
