Our worst fears that justice would not be done on the wretches who lately perpetrated the massacre of the Diaz family at Baradero are in process of being realized. We find that the prisoners have been taken to San Nicolas, where a farce which is mockingly termed a trial for murder in this country will be played in the good old style, ending with the stock finalethe escape of the prisoner through the very doors of his prison; or through the more formal, though not less certain process of being condemned by a fameant judge to a brief imprisonment for 'homicidio.' Well may society tremble for its future and that of the country, when, notwithstanding the unanimous burst of public, indignation this tragedy caused, it finds that the Two women have been taken np for horrors attending it have been unpeople or the authorities to any unusual effort to have justice satisfied. We refer to this subject at length in leading columns; but we must remark day with mails from Chile, and will here that it would have been better if the people of Baradero had had the courage to keep their promise of insisting on the trial being held at the scene of the crime, and failing the compliance of the authorities with this just demand, Lynched the murderers there and then. If these assassins escape, we shall be pointed at by other nations as ignoring wilfully the worst crime on earth, for which our tribunals can only find the name of 'homicidio,' and no inconsiderable portion of the lower classes the almost ludicrous term of 'desgracia' to the perpetrator. This crime exceeds in cold ferocity that of Pantin, and it is but the simple trath to say that the eyes of the civilized world will be strained towards us to witness how we deal with those who committed it. We publish Mr. Henly's letter to us from Rosario. We see it stated in a contemporary of that town that £8,000 is the sum paid by Mr. Henly for his land.

We had yesterday a horrible story of brigandage in Obile, the details of which exceed those of the Athenian massacre in bloodthirsty ferocity. It is curious' that up to the present we should have heard nothing here of this crime, the account of which we take from an Irish contemporary, and will publish to-morrow.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAUA AND Co. 101--Cangallo--103 BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current of the River Plate, Montered and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few derchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount described. we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Monte-video and Buenos Ayres, that there are vory few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Mana & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their The sums deposited in that very important in-stitution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, siskness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maus & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has posited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to with-draw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Maua & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operatious, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Maua & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render that the restrict of Business and Business will render that the restrict of Business will render. immense service to the working classes of Buenc Ayros and its neighborhood.
