Text regarding the memo in Merlo, mentioning the state of the city and the population.

At a period when three-fourths of the population of Buenos Ayres are living as best they can in the country districts, and when sorrow shrouds the land, perhaps the most advisable plan to avoid are those which one most wishes to discuss.

Text regarding the state of Buenos Ayres, mentioning the population and the situation of the city.

About seven years ago Merlo took a start; but it was a mere flash-in-the pan. True, an English broker built a handsome house; two well known city deniers started shops; but the broker found that to go into town every day and return at night was so tedious a journey that he might as well become a railway guard at once; the shopkeepers did a roaring business as long as they sold on credit, and ultimately liquidated from the result of too much custom.
