Mr. F. W. Rice, formerly Consul Aspinwall, had arrived at Panama. We have also late advices from New Zealand via the Isthmus. The return of new members to the General Assembly leaves the Protectionists and Free-traders in about equal numbers in the House.

The exchange operations in Montevideo for the Douro were remarkably heavy for that place, which shows that the takers were not limited to a French holder before the French courts. The Court of Cassation, indeed, has gone so far as to decide that the same rule obtained even where the instrument had been dishonoured and endorsed over to the French holder after date.
