

by some of the provincial papers were without foundation. Letters from La Ramada, in Santa Fe, announce an incursion of Indians at that point, resulting in a heavy loss of horses to the estancieros in the neighborhood; as usual there were no troops at hand.

Don Elias Nickleson, Commissary of Police at Rosario, met with a sad accident last week. He threw his cigar end into a waste paper basket accidentally, and observing the papers on fire stooped down to extinguish them, when a terrific explosion took place, burning his right hand and face; it is believed some one had put a quantity of loose powder in the basket for a 'joke.' Mr. Nickleson was recovering by latest accounts.

The authorities have to do. The rub is, will they do it? The public have been thoroughly aroused by recent events to a sense of their danger, but the Municipality seems still in a sound, snoring snooze, with every appearance of remaining asleep for an indefinite length of time.

There are doleful complaints from many families just returned from the camp respecting the pillage of their houses by robbers during their absence. On the whole, however, such depredations are not so numerous as was supposed; and it must be remembered that the Police Department had a very hard time of it during the epidemic.

be practically closed against all vessels coming from Buenos Ayres, if the interdiction does not extend to all vessels arriving with cargo from the River Plate. We have seen the detention which has been inflicted upon our Shipping in the Ports of Spain and Portugal since small-pox has been epidemic in this country.

THE LATE FATHER FAHY. To the Editors of the STANDARD. Gentlemen, I beg to make known through the STANDARD that the funeral service for Father Fahy takes place on the 20th and 21st inst. For reasons too obvious to need explanation, this first instalment of the debt of gratitude we owe him had, up to the present, to be postponed.
