REVIEW FOR THE TYCHO BRAHE.

The opening of Congress is the chief event to communicate to our foreign readers by this mail.

The Provincial Government is busy preparing for Mr. Crawford's expedition to the Andes to survey the line of the Transandine Railway.

The health of Buenos Ayres is now completely restored, and small-pox, which was so prevalent last month, has almost disappeared.

The state of affairs in the Banda Oriental shows no improvement.

On the 18th inst. the Water-works of Montevideo will be publicly inaugurated.

Among the passengers for England by this steamer are the Rev. Mr. Ash and Mrs. Ash.

Advices from the country districts are favorable. The sheep farmers have had a splendid lambing season.

Either it is that Sr. Dominguez is totally ignorant of the terrible state of affairs at the Custom-House and on board the lighters, or that, cowed by the magnitude of the misfortune...

The very first law that this Congress should pass is to hire more peons to work on the Custom-House Mole...

The following might be the preamble of the new law:— "Whereas the great commercial interests of Buenos Ayres have nearly reached a point of general ruin..."

Whereas the great commercial interests of Buenos Ayres have nearly reached a point of general ruin...
