THE EXHIBITION.

Only those who have personally inspected the articles on exhibition at the Argentine Palace of Industry can form an exact idea of their varied character and acknowledged merit. As, of Buenos Ayres. Same exhibitors. however, it is not within the range of possibilities that all the readers of the Palermo by M. Gentilli :-STANDARD can make a trip to Córdoba, we purpose giving to the Englishreading public in the Plate as truthful a description of the Exhibition and its contents as is possible. The task is, by no means, an easy one, since, owing to some errors in the catalogue, the numbers on some of the articles afforded no means of reference. The post of honor has, beyond all questism, been given to Buenos Ayres. The department is the most important in the Exhibition, and present a larger and more varied collection of articles than that of any other province most of the artists are from Buenos! Ayres, the Art department belongs Fusoni & Mayeroff. to this Province, although it is right to remark that some of the very best oil-paintings are by a Cordobese ar- and bone.
